"My first game at what was then Hemingway Stadium was in 1960 when Ole Miss played LSU, and I had never been more excited than I was that day. Of course, the stadium is much larger and more impressive now than when I played. I love the on-campus experience at Ole Miss, starting with The Grove, the team taking the short walk to the stadium and the overall atmosphere of gameday."

- Archie Manning

Ole Miss celebrates its 48-20 win over Oklahoma State in the 2016 Allstate Sugar Bowl in New Orleans. It was the Rebels' sixth all-time win in the Sugar Bowl Classic.

Sugar Bowl MVP Chad Kelly and Laquon Treadwell, who connected for three touchdowns through the air, celebrate the Rebels' 48-20 win over Oklahoma State in 2016.

Ole Miss is 12th nationally with 24 bowl victories, tied for 21st with 37 bowl appearances and second with a .649 bowl winning percentage.

See pages 154-171 for the Rebels' full bowl history.

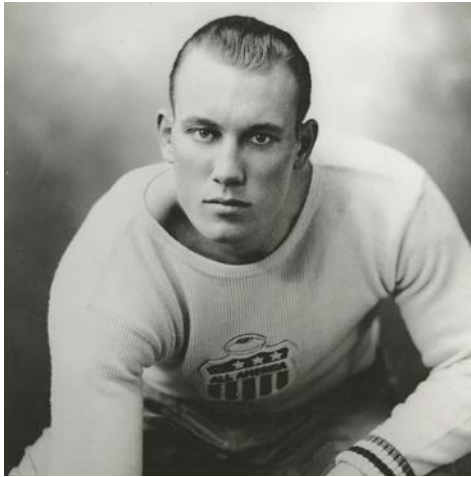

Ray Brown rushed for 157 yards and two scores to lead Ole Miss to its first Sugar Bowl title with a 39-7 win over Texas in 1958.

Archie Manning earned offensive MVP honors at the 1970 Sugar Bowl after he passed for 273 yards and a TD to guide Ole Miss to a 27-22 win over Arkansas.

Evan Engram became the 58th first team All-America selection in school history last season. Engram set or tied Ole Miss records for most catches (65), yards (926) and touchdowns (8) in a season by a tight end, as well as most catches (162), yards (2,320) and touchdowns (15) in a career by a tight end.

REBEL RECONNECT

Rebel Reconnect was established to assist returning student-athletes who have exhausted their athletic scholarship eligibility, with the costs of full or part-time tuition and/or books associated with completing their degree at the University of Mississippi.

NFL veteran Jerrell Powe recently returned to complete his undergraduate degree and walked in commencement ceremonies in May 2018.

Other notable Rebel Reconnect graduates include Fahn Cooper, Kentrell Lockett, Deuce McAllister, Terrence Metcalf and Carlos Thompson.

FedEx STUDENT ATHLETE ACADEMIC SUPPORT CENTER

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Ole Miss student-athletes not only have the opportunity to play in one of the best conferences in the nation, they also attend a university that is world-renowned for its academics. Through the office for Student-Athlete Development, Ole Miss has made great strides in improving the environment for student-athletes with numerous full-time academic counselors, learning specialists and tutors and the FedEx Student-Athlete Success Center provides the perfect environment for learning.

Last year, Ole Miss Football placed 25 total players on Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Rolls. A total of 16 players earned their degrees, making it 137 graduates during the last six years.

In numbers released in 2017-18, Ole Miss football posted an academic progress rate (APR) score of 984.

Among all sports, Rebel athletes posted the highest cumulative semester GPA in recorded history with a 3.013, while more than 50 percent of student-athletes earned a spot on the AD's Honor Roll for a 3.00 GPA or better.

Ole Miss football graduated 16 players in the past year:
DK Buford, Josiah Coatney, Will Gleeson, CJ Hampton, Marquis Haynes, Davion Johnson, Graham Lindman, Elliot Markuson, AJ Moore, Javon Patterson, Tyler Putman, Sean Rawlings, JP Sherling, Jordan Sims, Markell Winters and Gary Wunderlich.

LANDSHARK

At Ole Miss, Landshark is a term that was first adopted by the Rebel football team's defensive unit. As part of that identity, defensive players celebrate big plays by putting a hand to their forehead in the shape of a shark fin. A battle cry of "Fins Up" also contributes to the players' persona.

With the popularity of both the players and the hand gesture, Ole Miss fans and student-athletes from other sports embraced the spirit of the Landshark, and in October 2017, the university announced the Landshark as the official mascot of the Ole Miss Rebels. The Landshark mascot is expected to be unveiled before the 2018 season.

Roots of the Landshark at Ole Miss date back to 2008. After four straight losing seasons, the Rebel football team returned to national prominence with a 9-4 record and a victory over 7th-ranked Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl. Leading the charge was a defensive squad that ranked fourth in the nation in rushing defense and included All-American Peria Jerry and eventual All-SEC standout Jerrell Powe.

The term Landshark originated that season from senior linebacker Tony Fein, an Army veteran who served a one-year tour in the Iraq War before arriving in Oxford. A two-year letterman after transferring from Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College, Fein was the 2008 recipient of the Pat Tillman Award by the Military Order of the Purple Heart.

Fein passed away in October 2009, but his legacy at Ole Miss continues through the Landshark.

"I've never been a quitter. It's not in my heart to give up. I don't think it should be in anybody's heart. I may give out, but I'll never give up."

Chucky Mullins

CHUCKY MULLINS COURAGE AWARD

Roy Lee "Chucky" Mullins was born on July 8, 1969, in Russellville, Alabama. After his mother's death when he was in the seventh grade, and at his request, Chucky was placed under the guardianship of Carver and Karen Phillips.

Chucky graduated from Russellville High School in 1988. He earned all-conference, all-area and all-state honors in football as a junior and senior. He was team captain and most valuable player on his high school team. He also earned three letters in football, basketball and baseball.

Because of his athletic and leadership abilities, Chucky was awarded a four-year scholarship to Ole Miss, and he arrived on campus in the summer of 1988. He was redshirted in 1988 but later saw action as a "nickel" defensive back for the Rebels and was rapidly emerging as a defensive force in the Southeastern Conference.

Tragically, his injury on Oct. 28, 1989, in the Homecoming game against Vanderbilt ended his football career and left him paralyzed. He was treated at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis until February 1990, when he was transferred to Spain Rehabilitation Center in Birmingham.

Chucky's battle with his physical disability and his undefeatable spirit changed the University of Mississippi. For months after the tragic accident, Chucky endured the grueling challenges of rehabilitation. During the difficult time, Chucky's gritty determination and positive spirit touched the lives of literally hundreds of people. More than a million dollars was raised for the Chucky Mullins Trust Fund. He was visited in the hospital and later at home by such stars as Walter Payton, Janet Jackson and President George Bush. Chucky's accident and his unbroken spirit transcended football. The people of Mississippi, the South and the entire United States rallied around this remarkable young man.

When Chucky returned to Oxford in August 1990 to begin living in the specially-equipped house built by the Trust Fund donations, he announced a determination to return to Ole Miss and pursue a degree. Against all odds, in January of 1991, he did return to the classroom. However, on May 1, 1991, as he prepared for class, he suddenly stopped breathing. Rushed to the hospital, he never regained consciousness and died five days later from complications resulting from a blood clot.

While Chucky did not have a long life, it was a particularly special one. His teammates and coaches said Chucky was a teacher. He taught others how to live their lives to the fullest and how to maintain their focus on the truly important aspects of a precious life. In the state of Mississippi, Chucky Mullins will be forever young and never forgotten.

In the spring of 1990, the Phi Beta Sigma fraternity at Ole Miss initiated the Chucky Mullins Courage Award to be given each spring to an outstanding defensive player, who is chosen by the Rebel coaching staff.

Recipients are presented the award at the Chucky Mullins Courage Award banquet, with the proceeds from the banquet going to a special fund created to help Ole Miss students that are involved in serious accidents.

Each award recipient receives a framed Mullins jersey and has the honor of wearing Mullins' No. 38 on the field the following season. In 2006, the number was officially retired, joining Archie Manning's No. 18 as the only retired numbers in the Rebels' storied football history. A 38 patch, rather than the jersey number, was worn from 2006 until 2010. The decision was made in March 2011 for the jersey to remain retired and be worn only by the Chucky Mullins Courage Award winner each year.

On Sept. 26, 2014, Coliseum Drive on the Ole Miss campus was renamed Chucky Mullins Drive, honoring his life and influence in the most visible and enduring way.

Senior defensive back C.J. Moore is the 28th different player to win the Chucky Mullins Courage Award and will wear #38 on the field this fall. Moore has been a leader among the Landshark defensive players throughout his tenure.

“THE HOLY GRAIL OF TAILGATING SITES”

THE SPORTING NEWS

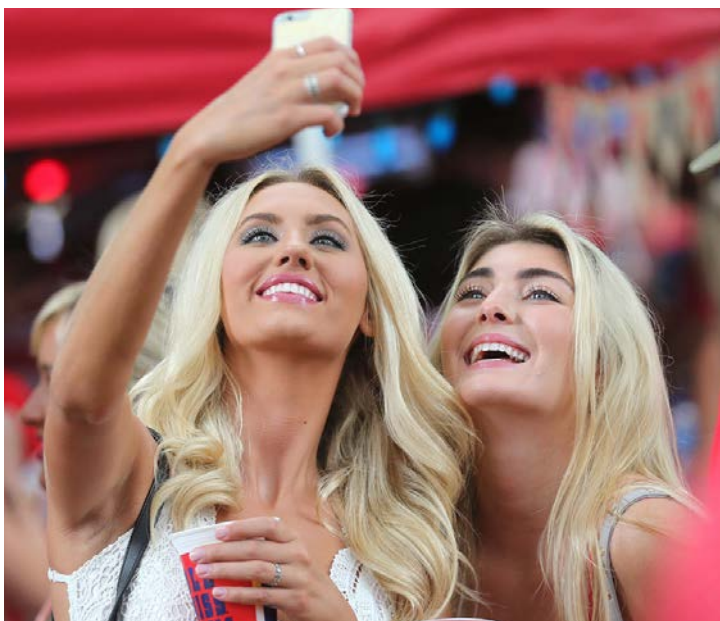

Ole Miss

"I've been at ESPN 27 years and I've always wanted to come to this place, The Grove. It's the most beautiful place I've ever been."

- Lee Corso, ESPN College GameDay (Oct. 4, 2014)

WALK OF CHAMPIONS

Rebel players and coaches have paraded through The Grove and been greeted by thousands of admirers approximately two hours before each football game since 1983.

- Nation's No. 1 Tailgating School (Sports Illustrated)
- Top Tailgating Spot (Tailgater Monthly)
- "The Holy Grail of tailgating sites" (The Sporting News)
- "The mother and mistress of outdoor ritual mayhem" (New York Times)
- "The mecca of tailgating in American sports" (Columbia Missourian)
- "In Oxford lies the most magical place on all of God's green, football-playing Earth: the Grove." (SI on Campus)

"I can say in definitive terms that there isn't a better place to spend a college football Saturday than at The Grove, followed by an SEC battle at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium."

- Mel Kiper Jr., ESPN

See page 194 for the history of The Grove.

Visit OleMissGameday.com for "Tailgating Tips."

The gameday atmosphere on the Ole Miss campus is second to none, and fans have shown their loyalty with record-setting crowds. Vaught-Hemingway Stadium/Hollingsworth Field has been filled to capacity over the past six years, selling out of season tickets four times in that span. The recently expanded north end zone has increased capacity to 64,038, making it the largest stadium in Mississippi.

FORWARD TOGETHER CAMPAIGN

As part of the $200 million Forward Together capital campaign, the north end zone of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium was closed in 2016 to increase capacity to 64,038, and the entire north side of the stadium has been transformed into an exciting new “front door” for Ole Miss Athletics. Beginning this season, fans will enjoy a new plaza, bell tower and green space at the north side of the stadium that connects with the Walk of Champions and leads all the way from The Grove, site of the nation’s best and most unique tailgating experience. Stadium enhancements in 2016 also included new videoboards, sound system, stadium lights and a natural grass playing field for the first time since 2002. The south end zone was also renovated to add 30 luxury suites and 770 club level seats, and the west suites have been refinished.

Visit ForwardTogetherRebels.com for more information on the campaign. See page 198 for more information on Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

MANNING CENTER

The Rebels' luxurious indoor practice facility that the football team has called home since 2004 was made even more spectacular with a $12.5 million renovation and expansion in 2013. It also received a new name: the Olivia and Archie Manning Athletics Performance Center, to honor the mother and father of the "First Family of Football." Ole Miss boasts some of the most exquisite facilities in the country. Among the upgrades was the construction of a full kitchen and dining hall named the Grill at 1810 that provides a daily nutrition center for all Ole Miss student-athletes. The Rebels also enjoy an impressive new team meeting room, renovated and expanded locker room, renovated and expanded weight room, and an interactive foyer to welcome recruits and other guests.

(Above) - The Roland and Sheryl Burns Team Meeting Room seats about 200 people and boasts state-of-the-art audio/video equipment.

LOCKER ROOM

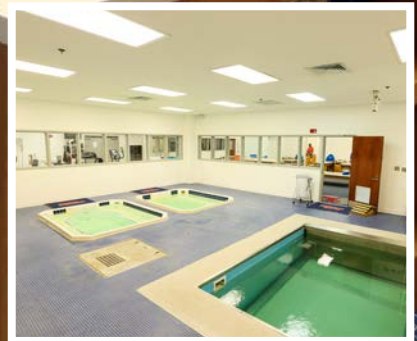

The Rebels' locker room is no ordinary one. A massive renovation and expansion gave the players access to new lounge areas with video games, arcade games, pool and ping pong tables, computer work stations, a kitchenette and an abundance of couches and chairs. A two-chair barber shop is one of the most exciting new features in the locker room. Renamed the Van Devender Family Foundation Locker Room, it gives Ole Miss players easy access to the indoor field, the Mattingly Family Equipment Room and the training room.

See page 199 for more information.

(Right, clockwise) - Lockers are wide and open, and former Ole Miss All-Americans, NFL stars and other football alums are recognized throughout the facility; Players don't even have to leave the facility to get a fresh haircut; Players are greeted by inspirational quotes on a regular basis; There are several lounge areas connected to the main locker room.

Ole Miss HEALTH & SPORTS PERFORMANCE

"Our team of Health and Sports Performance professionals strive to provide quality health and sports performance services based on the latest in health and strength training research. By doing this we hope to not only provide our student-athletes with a better chance of winning on the field, but also give them an opportunity to lead a healthy lifestyle."

- Shannon Singletary, Senior Associate A.D. for Health & Sports Performance

See page 202 for more information.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

"We will demand discipline, relentlessness and intelligent effort while we work toward improving each athlete's skill level. We will cultivate a high-energy, up-tempo environment where enthusiasm and competition will flourish."

-Paul Jackson, Head Football Strength & Conditioning Coach

OXFORD, MISSISSIPPI

Touted as the “Cultural Mecca of the South”, creativity abounds in Oxford as musicians, artists and writers alike find inspiration in Oxford’s rich history, small town charm and creative community. Nobel Prize winning author William Faulkner made his home here and many have followed in his footsteps. Oxford is also known for its exceptional culinary experiences at the many restaurants options, from down home cooking to upscale culinary creations.

“The boys were extremely excited to come to Oxford. I think as a ballclub, with our players and all of the parents talking, I think we are falling in love with Oxford, the people here, how we are being treated and the hospitality. I think we are going to have a lot of people rooting for Ole Miss in every sport down the road after the experience they have given us here.”

- Mike Gambino, Boston College baseball coach
 (at the 2016 NCAA Oxford Regional)

Ole Miss sporting events regularly attract such celebrities as movie stars Samuel L. Jackson and Woody Harrelson.

In addition to the popular Double Decker Arts Festival that brings thousands of visitors to Oxford each April, the town’s thriving music scene has welcomed such acts as Snoop Dogg, Willie Nelson, B.B. King, Brad Paisley, Zac Brown Band, Thomas Rhett, Three 6 Mafia and Wilco. Artists that have recorded at local Sweet Tea Studios include the Counting Crows, Gavin DeGraw, Ben Folds, the Hives, Jars of Clay and Modest Mouse. Oxford’s Lyric has been named one of the top 100 music club venues in the world by Pollstar, the leading concert industry trade publication.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

The people of Oxford offer tremendous support to the Ole Miss athletics teams, and the Rebel student-athletes return that support by being actively involved in both the Oxford and University communities. Among the worthwhile activities that Ole Miss student-athletes regularly participate in are assisting with reading programs at local schools such as “Reading with the Rebels,” visiting patients in area hospitals, being mentors to elementary school students, visiting senior adults at local retirement centers, holding several “Meet the Rebels” days throughout the year, and giving numerous talks on subjects such as drug awareness and staying in school to area students. And for the last five spring breaks, members of the football team have done mission work in such locales as Panama, Haiti and the Mississippi Delta.

See page 203 for more information.

(Clockwise from top) - Ole Miss Athletics hosted students from the Marks Project in several activities throughout the year, providing tutoring to Quitman County middle schoolers from football players including Armani Linton, Marquis Haynes, Javon Patterson and Sean Rawlings; Talbot Buys, Armani Linton and Chad Kelly were among the football players and coaches that spent their 2016 spring break in Haiti, working to provide clean water systems for villagers in Camp Marie; Jordan Ta'amu stops by a local elementary school to speak to students; Marquis Haynes and Javon Patterson spend time with elementary students as part of the “Reading with the Rebels” program.

Matt Luke was born a Rebel. His family has ties to Ole Miss that span three generations. Now, he has achieved a lifelong dream by taking over the reins of his alma mater. After serving as interim head coach for the 2017 season, Ole Miss made it official on Nov. 27, 2017, removing the interim tag and introducing Luke as the 38th head coach in program history.

During his 24 years as a player and coach at the collegiate level, Luke has risen through the ranks while learning from a number of successful veteran coaches. He has worked alongside national champion Tennessee coach Phillip Fulmer, Duke head coach David Cutcliffe and former Ole Miss head coach Tommy Tuberville, among others. On the field, he has mentored 17 all-league selections as well as All-Americans and first-round draft picks Laremy Tunsil and Laken Tomlinson.

Luke, a four-year center for the Rebels (1995-98), just wrapped up his 10th season as a coach at Ole Miss. Prior to taking over as interim head coach, Luke spent five seasons as the team's co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. During his first stop in Oxford (2002-05), Luke served four seasons coaching the Ole Miss tight ends and offensive line under Cutcliffe.

Since returning to Oxford in 2012, Luke has helped the Rebels earn four bowl berths, including a 10-3 record and Sugar Bowl victory to cap the 2015 season.

Luke's 2017 Rebels saw breakout performances from all three phases of the game.

A.J. Brown, the SEC leader in multiple receiving categories, set single-season marks in both receiving yards and receiving touchdowns, while senior running back Jordan Wilkins became just the fifth Rebel to surpass the 1,000-yard mark in a single season. Two different quarterbacks threw for 350 or more yards in three games during the 2017 season, becoming just the fourth FBS team in the last 20 seasons to accomplish that feat.

The 2017 Rebel defense finished the season strong, forcing five turnovers in the season finale win against Mississippi State. Senior linebacker DeMarquis Gates finished the season with 114 tackles, the most in a single season since Patrick Willis had 137 in 2006.

Luke also saw senior kicker Gary Wunderlich become Ole Miss' career record-holder in points scored (350), points kicking (350), field goals made (64), PATs made (158) and PATs attempted (162).

Luke has also made waves in the world of recruiting. His first recruiting class as a head coach ranked in the top 25 according to Rivals. As the offensive line coach with the Rebels, Luke was ranked eighth amongst recruiters in 2016 by 247Sports.

Under Luke's tutelage, the 2016 offensive line helped Ole Miss lead the SEC in passing for the second consecutive year (314.9 ypg) and rank 13th nationally. The Rebels averaged 464.3 yards in total offense, good enough for third in the SEC. Luke also mentored left tackle Greg Little to a Freshman All-American season. He coached Javon Patterson, Sean Rawlings and Rod Taylor to play multiple spots on the line as well.

In 2015, Luke's offensive line paved the way for the Rebels to have a record-breaking year on that side of the ball. Ole Miss set program records for scoring (531), touchdowns (68), total offense (6,731), passing yards (4,351) and passing touchdowns (35), among others. The Rebels led the SEC and were top 10 nationally in scoring (40.8), total offense (517.8 ypg) and passing (334.7 ypg).

In 2015, senior Fahn Cooper collected the third-ever Kent Hull Trophy, presented to the most outstanding offensive lineman in Mississippi, making Luke the coach of back-to-back Hull Trophy winners. Tunsil won the award in 2014. In three years of college, Tunsil played in 29 games with 26 starts at left tackle and surrendered only two sacks.

Luke helped develop both Tunsil and Cooper into NFL draft picks. Tunsil was taken 13th overall by the Miami Dolphins, and Cooper was selected in the fifth round by the San Francisco 49ers in the 2016 draft.

Having to replace three starters due to graduation, Luke helped the 2014 Rebel squad rank seventh in the SEC in total offense (419.1 ypg) and yards per play (6.0). The offensive line also helped the Rebels rank fifth in the SEC and 37th nationally in passing offense (263.6 ypg).

As a unit, the offensive line helped pave the way for Ole Miss to rack up 500 or more total yards in four games last year, including a season-high 640 total yards, the second-most in school history, against Presbyterian.

In 2013, Luke helped oversee a Rebel offense that broke the then-school record for total offense (473.3 ypg). The Rebels ranked third in the SEC in passing offense (283.3 ypg) and fifth in total offense, while finishing top 25 in the NCAA in both categories.

As a unit, the offensive line helped pave the way for the Rebels to rack up 500 or more total yards in five games, including a program-record 751 against Troy.

His guidance of the offensive line included plugging in star freshman Tunsil to the starting lineup early in the 2013 season and seeing immediate results. One of only two true freshmen in the country to be a full-time starter at left tackle, Tunsil allowed just one sack while protecting quarterback Bo Wallace's blind side. When Tunsil was named to the AP All-SEC second team, he became one of the first two true freshmen in school history to be tabbed All-SEC (along with TE Evan Engram).

In 2012, Luke helped Ole Miss improve in almost all offensive categories from the previous season, including total yards per game and points per game.

Luke developed an inexperienced offensive line into a unit that could hold its own in the SEC, as the Rebels ranked fifth in the league in rushing (173.9 ypg), up from 10th the previous year (129.6 ypg).

A former Rebel player and assistant coach, Luke spent the previous four seasons as Duke's offensive coordinator/running game while coaching the offensive line. His line ranked among the ACC's top five in fewest sacks allowed throughout his tenure, including finishing third in 2009 and 2010.

Luke's 2010 offensive front helped Duke to its highest yards per game average since 1989 as Sean Renfree became the fourth quarterback in school history to throw for 3,000 or more yards in a single season. Nearly doubling its rushing totals from the previous year, the Blue Devil run game produced 19 touchdowns - Duke's highest total since 1995 - and the squad repeated that total again in 2011.

Under Luke's guidance, both guard Dave Harding and tackle Perry Simmons received Freshman All-America honors in 2010. In 2009, guard Brian Moore was a Freshman All-ACC pick by Sporting News. Guard Laken Tomlinson went on to be the 28th overall pick in the 2015 NFL Draft.

Luke came to Duke following two seasons at Tennessee where he served as recruiting coordinator while coaching the tight ends and assisting with the offensive line. During his two-year stay (2006-07) in Knoxville, the Volunteers went 19-8 with an SEC Eastern Division championship and two appearances in the Outback Bowl.

A native of Gulfport, Mississippi, Luke lettered four seasons (1995-98) as a center at Ole Miss. A starter in 33 career games for the Rebels, he served as team captain in 1998 as Ole Miss posted a 7-5 ledger and defeated Texas Tech in the Independence Bowl. He was named the 1998 Ole Miss Most Valuable Senior by the Jackson (Miss.) Touchdown Club and twice earned Academic All-SEC honors.

Following his playing career, he served as a student assistant coach at Ole Miss in 1999, helping the Rebels to an 8-4 mark with regular-season wins against Auburn, South Carolina, LSU and Arkansas as well as a 27-25 triumph over Oklahoma in the Independence Bowl. He graduated in May 2000 with a degree in business administration.

Luke then spent two years (2000-01) coaching the offensive line at Murray State before returning to his alma mater to guide the Rebel tight ends and offensive line for four seasons (2002-05).

Born Oct. 29, 1976, Luke is married to the former Ashley Grantham of Oxford, Mississippi, and the couple has two sons, Harrison (born Feb. 18, 2008) and Cooper (born July 20, 2011). His father, Tommy, was a defensive back at Ole Miss in the 1960s while his brother, Tom, quarterbacked the Rebels from 1989-91. Tom is also on the Ole Miss football staff as assistant athletics director for player development.

- He and his wife, Ashley, have two sons, Harrison and Cooper.

In his first Egg Bowl as Ole Miss head coach, Matt Luke led the Rebels into Starkville and upset No. 14 Mississippi State 31-28. On Thanksgiving night in front of a national TV audience, the Landshark defense forced five turnovers, while A.J. Brown (167 yards receiving) and Jordan Wilkins (110 yards rushing) had big nights on the offensive side of the ball. The complete team performance brought the Golden Egg back to Oxford and capped off Luke's debut season as head coach.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN YEAR ONE UNDER MATT LUKE

- Concluded the season by leading the Rebels to an upset victory over rival Mississippi State in the Egg Bowl.
- Sophomore wide receiver A.J. Brown set school records for receiving yards (1,252) and receiving touchdowns (11) in a single season.
- Senior Jordan Wilkins rushed for 1,011 yards to become the fifth Rebel in school history to rush for at least 1,000 yards.

- Two quarterbacks recorded three games of at least 350 passing yards, the fourth FBS team in the past 20 seasons to accomplish the feat.
- His first recruiting class ranked top 25 nationally.
- Four Rebels were chosen in the 2018 NFL Draft.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT LUKE

DEUCE MCALLISTER

NFL RB (2001-08), TWO-TIME PRO BOWLER
RUSHER

"When we played together, I remember a game where Matt could barely walk. He was limping down the field, and I tried to tell him that he needs to get out of the game, but he said, 'I need to stay with my guys. My offensive line has fought too hard for me to not participate in this game.' He wasn't the biggest or strongest guy but he gave it all he had, and he will know when a guy isn't doing that. He will love his players, and he will be able to get that full effort out of them. I'm excited and happy for Matt - I'm looking forward to supporting not only him but my Ole Miss Rebel family. Those guys on the team are a part of it because they wear the Red and Blue just like I did."

MIKE MACINTYRE

COLORADO HEAD COACH

"I've known Matt now for nearly two decades, and I can tell you that he is an excellent football coach. He has that football 'intelligence,' a great personality and an excellent ability to communicate with young people. He has tremendous passion for Ole Miss, has always loved the school and I believe he will do a great job."

"I met Matt for the first time before we played Texas Tech in the '98 Independence Bowl. The new staff came in right before the bowl; he was our starting center, and I knew right away that he was 'football-smart.' But he also has a great sense of humor, which is one of the reasons he can relate to and communicate so well with young people."

DAVID CUTCLIFFE

DUKE HEAD COACH

"The first experience I had with Matt Luke was as a player when I was hired as the head coach at Ole Miss in December of 1998. We inherited Matt as a senior starter at center for the Independence Bowl versus Texas Tech. With a new staff and coaching one game for a team that was completely entrenched in its own terminology and system, it was going to be close to impossible for us to install an offense that made sense to both players and coaches. I sat down with Matt and was amazed at his football knowledge as a player. Matt was able to take the offense we wanted to use in the game and translate it into terms his teammates would best understand. I knew then he would become a special football coach."

"We hired Matt at Ole Miss to coach tight ends and he continued with us in that role at Tennessee before becoming our offensive line coach here at Duke. Matt has a great pedigree in coaching. He has been exposed to numerous outstanding coaches, as well as having coached some great players in his own right. Matt is an outstanding recruiter, very positive, energetic and easily liked by his players."

PHILLIP FULMER

TENNESSEE HEAD COACH (1992-2008)

"Matt is a great friend, a great family man and a really great football coach. I doubt that there's anybody out there that loves Ole Miss more than him. He's passionate when he talks about the Rebels, and his blood is as pure Ole Miss as anyone's could possibly be. He'll do a great job, and I have confidence in him being an outstanding head coach."

Jack Bicknell Jr. is in his second season as offensive line coach and was Luke's first hire after taking over head coaching duties. Bicknell has 32 years of coaching experience, including 25 years in college and seven seasons in the National Football League.

JACK BICKNELL JR.

ASSISTANT COACH | OFFENSIVE LINE

2ND SEASON

In his first year in Oxford, Bicknell coached an offensive line that protected Ole Miss quarterbacks and allowed them to throw for a conference-leading 328.4 yards per game (11th nationally). With the help of the offensive line, the Rebels ranked second in the SEC in total offense (462.3 ypg) and sixth nationally in red zone offense (.953). Under Bicknell's guidance, left tackle Greg Little earned second team All-SEC honors in just his second season as a Rebel.

Bicknell spent eight seasons as the head coach at Louisiana Tech (1999-2006), where his 43 victories are still the third-most in school history. Following the 2001 season, he was named WAC Coach of the Year after leading the Bulldogs to a conference championship in its first year of membership. Bicknell also served as the Bulldogs' offensive line coach from 1997-98.

Bicknell joined the Ole Miss staff after spending two seasons as assistant offensive line coach with the NFL's Miami Dolphins. Working with offensive line coach John Benton, Bicknell assisted to guide the Dolphins' offensive line that helped protect quarterback Ryan Tannehill during a pair of 4,000-yard passing seasons. Bicknell's line also paved the way for running back Lamar Miller to rush for 1,971 yards over the 2014 and 2015 seasons.

In 2014, the Dolphins produced 361 first downs, tied for the second-most in franchise history and most since 1985 when the team had the same amount. The line opened up holes for Miller who surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark (1,099) for the first time in his career and kept a clean pocket for Tannehill as he threw for 4,045 passing yards (most since Dan Marino's 4,453 in 1994). It was the first time in franchise history that the team has produced a 1,000-yard rusher and 4,000-yard passer in a season.

Bicknell coached a variety of offensive linemen who found success under his watch. Despite missing the first four games of the season due to injury and making the switch to guard, Mike Pouncey was tabbed to his second-straight Pro Bowl in 2014. Tackle Ja'Wuan James became the eighth offensive lineman in Dolphins history to start all 16 games as a rookie, showing his versatility by starting nine games at right tackle and seven at left tackle en route to earning PFWA All-Rookie Team honors. Before suffering a knee injury, tackle Branden Albert was acknowledged as a member of the CBSSports.com MidSeason All-Pro Team.

Bicknell came to Miami after spending the 2013 season as the offensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers. While in Pittsburgh, Bicknell's unit helped running back Le'Veon Bell amass 1,259 yards from scrimmage, the most by a Steelers rookie, surpassing Franco Harris (1,235) and became just the third Pittsburgh rookie to amass more than 1,000 yards from scrimmage.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Bicknell served as the offensive line coach for the Kansas City Chiefs in 2012 where he directed a unit that was instrumental in helping running back Jamaal Charles return to All-Pro form after an ACL injury cut short his 2011 season. Charles returned in 2012 and set career highs in carries (285) and rushing yards (1,509) en route to his second Pro Bowl selection at the conclusion of the season.

Bicknell began his NFL coaching career with the New York Giants in 2009 and was a member of a coaching staff that helped lead the franchise to its fourth Super Bowl title with a 21-17 victory over the New England Patriots on February 5, 2012. During the 2011 season, the Giants' line anchored an offense that finished fifth in the NFL in passing while only allowing 28 sacks. During his tenure as the Giants' offensive line coach, guards Chris Snee and Shaun O'Hara were selected to three straight Pro Bowls each (2009-11) for protecting former All-American Rebel quarterback Eli Manning. Following his first season with New York, three offensive linemen (Snee, O'Hara and tackle David Diehl) were selected to the 2010 Pro Bowl, marking the first time since 1962 that three Giants from the same position group were selected to the Pro Bowl.

Bicknell began his coaching career at his alma mater, Boston College, as a graduate assistant from 1985-86. Following his two seasons with the Eagles, Bicknell joined the staff at the University of New Hampshire in 1987 and spent 10 seasons with the Wildcats coaching the defensive line (1987-92) before moving to the offensive line (1993-96). Bicknell returned to Boston College in 2007 as the Eagles' assistant head coach/offensive line coach for two seasons (2007-08) before joining the Giants in the NFL.

A three-year letterwinner as an offensive lineman, Bicknell played collegiately for his father at Boston College from 1981-85 where he was the center for 1984 Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Doug Flutie. It was Bicknell who snapped the ball to Flutie on the final play of the Boston College/Miami game which led to one of the most memorable conclusions to a game in college football history. The Flutie "Hail Mary" game-winning touchdown pass to wide receiver Gerald Phelan propelled the Eagles over the Miami Hurricanes in the 1984 Orange Bowl. In Bicknell's final season at Boston College, he was honored with the Scanlon Award, the highest honor bestowed upon a Boston College football player, the Scarminach Award for athletic and academic excellence and the Dean's Award in the school of education.

Bicknell comes from a family of coaches. His father, Jack, was the head coach at Boston College (1981-90) prior to becoming the head coach of the Barcelona Dragons (1991-03) of NFL Europe. His brother, Bob, has been an assistant coach at the collegiate and professional level since 1993 and in the NFL since 2007 where he has been with three different teams, including Kansas City (2007-09), Buffalo (2010-12) and Philadelphia (2013-15). Born in North Plainfield, New Jersey, Bicknell attended Orono (Maine) High School. He and his wife, Helen, have three children, John, Katelyn and Alyse.

Clark, a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter at safety for the Rebels from 2003-06, has coached at Duke, San Jose State, Colorado and Oregon, where he spent the 2017 season as cornerbacks coach. Notably, his 2016 secondary with the Buffaloes ranked among the best in the nation.

During his time roaming the Ole Miss secondary, Clark appeared in 47 games, including 34 straight starts during his sophomore, junior and senior campaigns. The Green Cove Springs, Florida, native tallied 198 tackles, three interceptions, 12 pass breakups and five fumble recoveries during his Rebel career.

Prior to Oregon, Clark spent four seasons at Colorado, coaching safeties for two seasons before moving to cornerbacks for the 2015 and 2016 campaigns. Clark's secondary was instrumental in helping the Buffs to the 2016 Pac-12 Conference South Division title, finishing second in the league and 21st in the country in passing defense (193.6 ypg) and tied for third in the nation in passing yards allowed per attempt (5.7). Four of Clark's defensive backs earned Pac-12 all-conference honors, and three seniors in the secondary were drafted in the first four rounds of the NFL Draft.

Before Colorado, Clark coached defensive backs at San Jose State from 2010 to 2012. His unit led the WAC in interceptions (15) and forced turnovers (31) in 2012, and he helped to mold Duke Ihenacho into an All-Western Athletic Conference selection and future NFL player. Three of Clark's players earned WAC all-conference honors, and Peyton Thompson and Bene Benwikere joined Ihenacho as selections in the NFL Draft.

Clark began his coaching career at Duke in 2008, starting as a defensive quality control intern while also assisting the special teams coordinator and defensive assistant coaches. In 2009, he was promoted to a graduate assistant position assigned to the defense and special teams.

Clark graduated from Ole Miss in 2007 with a degree in banking and finance, and he worked briefly in private business before entering the coaching profession.

Clark has one daughter, CadeMorgan, and one son, Charles IV.

MAURICE HARRIS

ASSISTANT COACH | TIGHT ENDS

7TH SEASON

Maurice Harris is in his seventh season as the tight ends coach at Ole Miss. Harris returned to Ole Miss on Dec. 8, 2011, serving the past six years as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator. This marks Harris' second stop at Ole Miss as he served as the Assistant Athletics Director for Internal Football Operations for the Rebels in 2006.

Last season, Harris coached walk-on Dawson Knox into a starting role. Over 10 games, Knox hauled in 24 catches for 321 yards. It was an impressive year for the sophomore, who had to follow in the footsteps of record-setting tight end Evan Engram.

Harris helped develop Engram into one of the best tight ends in school history and a first-round NFL Draft pick. Engram proved to be a mismatch for opposing defenses and a difference-maker with the ball in his hands. Over his sensational collegiate career, Engram became the first Rebel to be named All-SEC four times and finished as the all-time Ole Miss leader in receptions (162), receiving yards (2,320) and touchdowns (15) by a tight end.

As a senior in 2016, Engram earned first team All-America honors and won the Ozzie Newsome Award (nation's best tight end), Pop Warner College Football Award (excellence in football and community service) and C Spire Conerly Trophy (top college football player in Mississippi). He led all the nation's tight ends with 84.2 receiving yards per game and 5.9 catches per outing. Under Harris' guidance, Engram broke the Ole Miss single-season records for catches (65) and receiving yards (926) by a tight end and tied the record for touchdown catches (8) by a tight end.

As a unit in 2015, the tight ends helped the Ole Miss offense surge to school records in nearly every major total offense and passing category, while topping the SEC and ranking top 10 nationally in scoring (40.8), total offense (517.8 ypg) and passing (334.7 ypg).

A semifinalist for the John Mackey Award as well as an All-America and All-SEC pick in 2014, Engram led all SEC tight ends with 662 yards receiving and topped the nation's tight ends with 17.4 yards per catch. His 662 receiving yards established a single-season school record at the time.

With uncertainty at the tight end position entering the 2013 season, Harris helped turn the question mark into an exclamation point with the play of a rookie Engram.

Before going down with an ankle injury, Engram turned in one of the best seasons ever by a freshman pass catcher with 20 catches for 265 yards and three touchdowns. Despite missing half the season, he was honored by the AP with second team All-SEC honors, becoming one of the first two true freshmen in school history to be named All-SEC.

In 2012, Harris worked to improve the tight ends unit, which recorded a combined 313 receiving yards, along with four touchdowns. They also provided blocking for a vastly improved Rebel offense that finished top five in the SEC and top 50 in the nation in scoring, total yards and passing yards.

His efforts on the recruiting trail have helped Ole Miss land four top-15 signing classes, including the 2013 and 2016 hauls that ranked top five in the nation. Harris was tabbed the 26th recruiter in the nation by 247Sports in 2013.

In 2011, Harris was part of an Arkansas State offense that led the Sun Belt Conference in total offense (447.85 ypg) and scoring (32.46 ppg). His tight ends unit also helped an A-State rushing attack that ranked second in the conference in yards (154.23 ypg).

During his time in Jonesboro, Harris coached All-Sun Belt Conference selections David Johnson, who was also drafted by the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers, and J.T. Jordan. Harris also helped develop Kedric Murry into a starting tight end for the Red Wolves as a redshirt freshman in 2009, and Trevor Gillott ranked third on the team in receptions, while setting individual career-best marks last season under his watch.

Murry continued to develop under Harris, recording career-high numbers for both receptions and touchdowns as a sophomore in 2010. Harris also mentored Jeff Blake as he made the move from fullback to tight end for his senior season. Blake became a big factor in ASU's blocking attack that helped ASU post a school-record 4,481 yards.

During Harris' first two seasons, the tight ends were responsible for 90 receptions for 1,166 yards and 12 touchdowns.

His 2009 tight ends corps helped lead the way for 21 rushing touchdowns, the third-most in the Sun Belt Conference, and paved the way for three different ASU players rushing for more than 100 yards in at least one game. The tight ends were a big part of ASU's line that helped the team to its most yards of total offense (484) against an FBS opponent since the 2007 season.

The tight ends were also heavily involved in the ASU running game that ranked No. 18 in the nation and No. 2 in the Sun Belt Conference in 2008.

Harris returned to his alma mater as tight ends coach after serving as Alabama State's offensive coordinator and running backs coach during the 2007 season.

Harris worked with Alabama State head coach Reggie Barlow to design the overall offensive game plan and call plays. Harris helped the offense improve its total yards and points from the previous season and coached the Southwestern Athletic Conference's leading rusher and MVP in Jay Peck.

Prior to his return to Alabama State, where he also served as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator from 2004-05, Harris spent the 2006 season at Ole Miss.

During his first stint at Alabama State, Harris helped lead the football team to a 10-2 record in 2004 and the SWAC Championship. In addition to his duties as a position coach, Harris was responsible for organizing and planning the Hornets' recruiting strategy.

Harris was a four-year letterman at Arkansas State, including the 1996 season when he recorded a team-high 100 tackles from his safety position. After earning his bachelor's degree from ASU in 1998, he went to Whitehaven High School in Memphis, Tennessee, as an assistant coach.

Harris headed Whitehaven's offense, which was tops in the area, and improved its yardage by more than 100 yards per game from the previous season. He was promoted to head coach at Whitehaven two years later and was named West Tennessee Coach of the Year in 2001 after leading his team to the city and region championships in 2001.

He followed the 2001 campaign with another city title in 2002 and was named assistant coach in two all-star games. He was named head coach for the Liberty Bowl High School All-Star Game in Tennessee.

During his three seasons as head coach at Whitehaven, Harris posted a 23-12 record and had 32 players sign scholarships to play college football.

Harris and his wife, LaQuesha, have two children, Arami, Cortlynn, and a Godson, DeVonte'. The Harris family is involved in a number of charity efforts and went with members of the Ole Miss team and staff on spring break mission trips to Haiti in 2015 and 2016.

Jason Jones is in his sixth season as Ole Miss' co-defensive coordinator. After mentoring the cornerbacks for four years and serving as the secondary coach last season, he is now responsible for the safeties beginning in 2018.

In his 14 seasons as a college coach, his teams have made a bowl game appearance in 12 of them, including the Rebels' 2013 Music City Bowl, 2014 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and 2016 Sugar Bowl berths.

Last season, Jones helped junior college transfer Javien Hamilton make a smooth transition to FBS football. In his first season as a Rebel, Hamilton led the team in pass breakups (5) and interceptions (3). C.J. Moore also collected three picks after missing the 2016 season due to injury.

In 2016, Jones helped convert wide receiver Derrick Jones (no relation) into a defensive back. He ranked second on the team with five passes defended and two interceptions, returning one for a touchdown against Georgia. The transformation led to Jones getting selected as a defensive back in the sixth round of the 2017 NFL Draft by the New York Jets.

In 2015, Jones assisted in coordinating a Rebel defense that returned four interceptions for touchdowns, including a pick-six by cornerback Tony Bridges in the Egg Bowl. The four pick-sixes tied a school record that dates back to 1938. In total, Ole Miss ranked second in the SEC with 15 interceptions and third with 23 turnovers throughout the 2015 season.

Jones helped coach All-SEC DB Mike Hilton, a Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist who led all SEC defensive backs with 12.5 tackles for loss. He also brought along inexperienced but talented corners Ken Webster and Bridges to flashes of brilliance in big wins over Alabama, Auburn, LSU, Texas A&M and Mississippi State.

In 2014, Jones turned one of the most inexperienced units the previous year into one of the most dominant. His cornerbacks helped Ole Miss lead the nation in scoring defense (16.0) and fewest touchdowns allowed (24).

Ole Miss ranked third in the SEC and 16th nationally in passing defense (192.1 ypg), more than 23 fewer yards per game allowed than the previous year. The Rebels also led the SEC and ranked eighth nationally, forcing 32 turnovers, including 22 interceptions, the most in the SEC and fifth-most in the nation.

For his efforts, Jones was tabbed by FootballScoop as the 2014 National Defensive Backs Coach of the Year, along with Dave Wommack.

One of five finalists for the Bronko Nagurski Award, presented annually to the national defensive player of the year in college football, cornerback Senquez Golson was a consensus first team All-American. He led the SEC and ranked second nationally with a school record-tying 10 interceptions. He was also tied for first in the SEC and fourth nationally with 18 passes defended.

Hilton and Huskie Tony Conner were the Rebels' top two tacklers in 2014 with 71 and 69 tackles, respectively.

In his first year with the Ole Miss corners, Jones helped teach a young and exciting unit that allowed 31 fewer passing yards per game (215.5 ypg) than a year earlier (246.5 ypg). Despite a number of injuries to the team's corners, Jones helped guide Golson and Hilton to strong seasons.

Jones arrived in Oxford after five seasons at Oklahoma State, where his teams amassed a 49-16 record.

In his time in Stillwater, Jones coached three different Cowboy corners to First Team All-Big 12 honors and a pair of Thorpe Award semifinalists in Perrish Cox (2009) and Brodrick Brown (2011). Cox was a first team All-American in 2009, as well.

With Jones serving as position coach, Cox led the nation in passes defended per game in 2009 and Brown ranked third in the same category in 2011. As a team, OSU led the nation with 44 turnovers forced in 2011 and was fifth with 34 in 2010.

Jones also helped develop former high school QB Justin Gilbert, who became the eighth overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft as a cornerback.

As a unit, the Oklahoma State defense was among the nation's most opportunistic from 2009-12, as the Cowboys forced 130 turnovers to rank second nationally in that span.

Jones came to Stillwater from Tulsa, where he served as cornerbacks coach and special teams coordinator in 2007. He helped the Golden Hurricane to a 10-4 record, an appearance in the Conference USA championship game, and a 63-7 win over Bowling Green in the 2008 GMAC Bowl.

Success has followed Jones at each of his coaching stops. In 2006, Jones served as the cornerbacks coach at Rice University, helping the Owls to their first bowl trip in 45 years as the Owls competed in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.

In his first stint at Tulsa, Jones coached cornerbacks and helped the Golden Hurricane to a Conference USA championship and an appearance in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. With Jones leading the Tulsa secondary in 2005, the Hurricane defense ranked third nationally in takeaways (36) and interceptions (22) and was 11th nationally in pass efficiency defense and 17th in pass defense. Jones' cornerbacks totaled 13 of those interceptions and had 29 passes defended.

His first coaching job came as a graduate assistant at Alabama, where he helped his alma mater to an appearance in the Music City Bowl.

Born Nov. 13, 1977, Jones is a 2001 graduate of the University of Alabama with a degree in financial planning. He was a two-year starter at defensive back for the Crimson Tide and was part of three bowl teams, an SEC West championship in 1996 and SEC championship in 1999.

Jones earned a master's degree from Alabama in sports management in 2005. He and his wife Kysha have four children, Andrew, Jace, Jarah and Jathan.

PHIL LONGO

ASSISTANT COACH | QUARTERBACKS
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR | 2ND SEASON

Phil Longo enters his second season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after a remarkable debut 2017 campaign in Oxford.

Last year, the Rebels thrived in Longo's system. Ole Miss averaged 462.3 yards of total offense to rank second in the SEC and 18th nationally. The Rebels produced the conference's best passing game with 328.4 ypg (11th nationally). Quarterbacks Shea Patterson and Jordan Ta'amu each recorded three games of at least 350 yards passing, as Ole Miss became the fourth FBS team over the past 20 seasons to accomplish that feat. Following Patterson's season-ending injury, Ta'amu and the Rebel offense did not skip a beat under Longo's guidance.

Ole Miss was one of the nation's best red zone teams in 2017 with a 95.3 percentage of success to rank sixth in the country. The Rebels not only excelled in the air but on the ground as well. Senior running back Jordan Wilkins tallied 1,011 yards to become just the fifth Rebel in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a single season.

Three Rebels recorded at least 600 yards receiving, including sophomore A.J. Brown. In his first season in Longo's offense, Brown set school records for receiving yards (1,252) and receiving touchdowns (11) in a single season. DaMarkus Lodge (698 yards) and D.K. Metcalf (646 yards) hauled in seven touchdown receptions apiece.

Prior to arriving at Ole Miss, Longo engineered one of the nation's best FCS offense at Sam Houston State. He helped Sam Houston to the FCS Playoffs in each of his three seasons, while shattering the record books. The 2016 team went 12-1 and boasted the nation's No. 1 total offense (547.3 ypg), No. 2 scoring offense (49.5 ppg), No. 2 passing offense (368.3 ypg) and No. 37 rushing offense (179.0 ypg) out of 122 FCS teams. The Bearkats scored touchdowns on 80.3 percent of their red zone chances, also best in the nation.

Sam Houston had more than 4,500 passing yards and 2,000 rushing yards in 2016. No FBS team accomplished that.

In Longo's three years on head coach K.C. Keeler's staff, SHSU won the Southland Conference twice (2014, 2016) and compiled a 34-10 overall record. The Bearkats advanced to the semifinals of the FCS Playoffs in 2014 and 2015 and quarterfinals this year, while rising as high as No. 1 in the FCS national polls in both 2015 and 2016.

The red zone was a key area of success for Longo's offense. Over the last three years, no FBS team has had more red zone touchdowns than the 145 scored by the Bearkats.

Despite featuring a pass-heavy attack, Longo's units also ranked top 10 among FCS teams in rushing in both 2014 and 2015. Sam Houston produced 1,000-yard rushers in 2014 (Keshawn Hill) and 2015 (Corey Avery) and a 900-yard rusher this past season (Remus Bulmer).

In 2015, Sam Houston's 7,975 total yards set a Southland Conference season record and ranked third all-time in NCAA Division I FCS history. The Bearkats led the nation in total offense (531.7 ypg) and first downs per game (27.6). They ranked No. 5 in scoring (41.1 ppg) and No. 9 in rushing (254.5 ypg), while also ranking 14th in third-down conversions (45.7 percent).

The 1,275 plays run by Longo's offense in 2015 was also a league record. Three times in the past three seasons SHSU ran more than 100 plays in a game, including a school-record 118 plays in the 2015 NCAA opening-round victory over Southern Utah.

In 2014, Longo's attack led the Southland in rushing (241.6 ypg, 9th nationally) and red zone offense (90 percent, 8th nationally).

Regarded as an outstanding recruiter and quarterbacks coach, Longo helped Bearkats QB and first team All-American Jeremiah Briscoe set a school record with 4,602 passing yards in 2016, while Sam Houston had the first two 1,000-yard receivers in school history in the form of junior Yedidiah Louis (1,152) and freshman Nathan Stewart (1,004). Briscoe led all FCS players with 57 touchdown passes (to 10 interceptions), while ranking second nationally in passing (354.0 ypg) and third in total offense (349.9 ypg).

Longo began his coaching career in the high school ranks. He was the winningest coach in school history at Parsippany Hills High School in Troy, New Jersey, serving as head coach from 1996-99. In 1999, his team competed in and won the 11th-highest scoring game in the history of high school football in the U.S. Longo earned NJ Star Ledger and Daily Record Coach of the Year honors in 1998-99 and was awarded the Sportsmanship, Ethics & Integrity Award by the National Federation of State High School Associations.

He entered the college ranks as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at D-III William Paterson University (2000-01) and was head coach at FCS La Salle in 2004 and 2005.

Other schools at which Longo has served as offensive coordinator include Slippery Rock (2012-13), Southern Illinois (2008-09) and Minnesota-Duluth (2006-07). He was a wide receivers coach at Youngstown State in 2010.

A running back at Rowan University from 1988-91, Longo was a member of the school's first New Jersey Athletic Conference championship and NCAA Division III playoff team. The New Jersey native earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Rowan in 1992.

Longo, 48, and his wife Tanya are the parents of daughters Gianna and Macaria.

WESLEY McGRIFF

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH | DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR 3RD SEASON

McGriff returned to Ole Miss after gaining valuable experience at the NFL level with the New Orleans Saints and as Auburn's co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

During his first season back in Oxford, McGriff orchestrated a defense that included a pair of NFL Draft picks in Breeland Speaks (second round) and Marquis Haynes (fourth round). The duo combined for 14.5 sacks, and both Rebels earned second team All-SEC honors as part of the Landshark defensive line. Linebacker DeMarquis Gates had his biggest season as a Rebel in McGriff's system, registering 114 tackles. Gates' total was the most by a Rebel in a single season since 2006.

In his one season at Auburn, McGriff helped guide the Tigers to a Sugar Bowl berth and helped turn around a defense that struggled during a 7-6 season (2-6 SEC) the year before he arrived.

With McGriff's influence, Auburn went from the bottom third of the SEC in 2015 to top three in the league in 2016 in scoring defense (11th/26.0 to 2nd/15.6), rushing defense (11th/182.7 to 3rd/124.8) and third-down conversion defense (13th/44.9 to 2nd/34.0). The Tigers gave up far less explosive plays of 10+ yards (190 in 2015, 144 in 2016) and were locked down when it came to allowing touchdowns in the red zone (51.0 percent to 34.2 percent). Auburn ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (17.1 ppg) and 11th in total red zone defense (74.4 percent) in 2016.

McGriff went to Auburn after three seasons with the NFL's New Orleans Saints, working with the defensive backs. In his first two years, McGriff oversaw the development of young players such as safeties Rafael Bush, Kenny Vaccaro and Pierre Warren and cornerback Terrence Frederick, as well as veterans like safety Jairus Byrd and cornerback Keenan Lewis. In 2015, Lewis led the Saints with 13 passes defended, while adding two interceptions. Vaccaro led the New Orleans secondary with 113 tackles and added one sack and two interceptions. McGriff also worked the undrafted rookie Warren into the starting lineup for the final six games due to injuries in the secondary and he responded, tying for the team lead with three takeaways.

In his first season in New Orleans, the Saints ranked fourth in the NFL in total defense (305.7 ypg), second in opponent passing yards per game (194.1 ypg) and fourth in scoring defense (19.0 ppg), posting an 11-5 record and advancing to the divisional round of the playoffs.

McGriff spent 2012 as co-defensive coordinator/cornerbacks coach at Ole Miss, helping the young Rebel defense finish second in the SEC and top 15 in the NCAA in tackles for loss (7.7) and sacks per game (2.8). Linebacker Denzel Nkemdiche was named to the FWAA All-America and SEC All-Freshman teams, defensive tackle Issac Gross earned conference all-freshman honors and was named to the CollegeFootballNews.com Freshman All-America team, and safety Trae Elston was named to the ESPN SEC All-Freshman team.

In his first season at Ole Miss, McGriff helped the Rebels go from 2-10 the year before to 7-6 and a win over Pitt in the 2013 BBVA Compass Bowl.

McGriff spent the 2011 season as defensive backs coach/recruiting coordinator at Vanderbilt, where he helped the Commodores to only their fifth all-time appearance in a bowl. His secondary produced 12 interceptions, three returns for touchdowns, eight tackles behind the line of scrimmage and more than 20 pass breakups. McGriff helped current San Diego Chargers CB Casey Hayward become the first Vanderbilt All-American in four years, posting seven interceptions, the third-highest season total ever by a Commodore.

McGriff's season in Nashville was preceded by four at Miami (Fla.), where he mentored some of the ACC's top defensive backs. In 2010, the Hurricanes ranked second in the nation in pass defense, allowing just 164.3 yards per game. The Miami defense ranked 16th nationally and 21st in scoring defense. In 2009, he tutored All-America defensive back Brandon Harris, seven-year NFL veteran safety Kenny Phillips (2007 All-American and first-round NFL draft pick) and Green Bay defensive back Sam Shields, as the Hurricanes ranked 29th in total defense.

Before joining the Miami staff, McGriff served four years at Baylor as recruiting coordinator and defensive backs coach. With McGriff's assistance, the Baylor defense notched 16 interceptions and ranked 13th in pass efficiency in 2005. As a recruiter, McGriff was responsible for signing offensive lineman Jason Smith, who left Baylor as an All-America tackle and the No. 2 pick of the 2009 draft.

McGriff earned his first SEC coaching experience at Kentucky, where he coached running backs in 2001 and cornerbacks in 2002. One of McGriff's pupils, Artose Pinner, led the SEC in rushing and played six years in the NFL.

McGriff spent the 2000 campaign as the secondary coach at Eastern Kentucky, where he mentored Jeremiah Bell, a first-team All-Ohio Valley Conference pick who went on to be drafted by the Miami Dolphins in the sixth round in 2003.

From 1995-99, McGriff served as assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Kentucky State. The Thorobreds had the No. 1 defense in the nation in 1995 and the No. 1 pass yardage defense in 1997. He was named the AFCA's NCAA Division II National Assistant Coach of the Year in 1998.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Savannah State, from 1990-94. Starting as a graduate assistant, McGriff tutored running backs before coaching the secondary in 1991-92 and then serving as defensive coordinator in 1993-94. He was the team's interim head coach for three months in spring 1993.

A native of Tifton, Georgia, McGriff played cornerback, running back and wide receiver for the Tift County High School state championship team. He played at South Carolina State for one year before transferring to Savannah State, where he started at outside linebacker for three seasons and was named the conference's 1989 Male Academic Athlete of the Year.

He received his bachelor's degree in criminal justice, graduating cum laude, from Savannah State in 1990 and earned a master's in public administration from Georgia Southern in 1993. McGriff was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army in 1990 and was a member of the Army Reserves until 2001. He is a member of Omega Psi Phi fraternity.

DERRICK NIX

ASSISTANT COACH | RUNNING BACKS

11TH SEASON

Derrick Nix is in his 11th year as Ole Miss' running backs coach.

At Ole Miss, Nix has tutored five of the most productive backs in school history in Dexter McCluster, Brandon Bolden, Jeff Scott, Jaylen Walton and Jordan Wilkins, while the Rebels have ranked top three in the SEC in rushing twice.

Last season, Wilkins thrived under Nix's guidance. The senior running back rushed for 1,011 yards to become just the fifth Rebel in school history to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark in a single season. Wilkins added 10 touchdowns (nine rushing, one receiving), as Ole Miss running backs accounted for 15 TDs throughout the year.

In 2016, Nix coached running back Akeem Judd to an impressive year on the ground. In his first season as the Rebels' primary back, Judd ran for 826 yards, the most by an Ole Miss running back since Jeff Scott totaled 846 rushing yards in 2012.

With a variety of running backs with different styles and strengths at his disposal, Nix helped the 2015 Ole Miss squad lead the SEC and rank top 10 nationally in scoring (40.8), total offense (517.8 ypg) and passing (334.7 ypg). The Rebels eclipsed 600 yards of total offense in three games, a school record, and more than 200 yards rushing in six contests.

Walton emerged as the leader of the group, rushing for 730 yards and averaging 5.1 yards per carry. He finished his career second in Ole Miss history with 4,742 career all-purpose yards; Walton found the end zone 23 times throughout his career, the sixth-most by an Ole Miss Rebel. His 1,957 career rushing yards sit ninth in program history.

During the 2014 season, Nix's running backs topped 150 yards rushing in seven games to assist in the Rebel offensive attack.

In 2013, Nix helped the Ole Miss offense rank top five in the SEC and top 25 nationally in total offense (473.3 ypg), which also broke the school record at the time. Led by a bevy of talented rushers, the Ole Miss ground game was a headache for many opposing defenses to try and stop.

Scott averaged 61.6 yards per game in eight contests before going down with injury. In his stead, young backs I'Tavius Mathers and Walton each played well, setting respective career highs for rushing yards in a game and each topping the 100-yard plateau in a game. Walton, a threat on runs, catches and returns, ranked ninth in the SEC with 111.8 all-purpose yards per league game.

In 2012, Nix helped Scott, who finished the season with career-best totals of 846 yards and six touchdowns, develop into more of a feature back while the Rebel run game increased its average by 40 yards from 2011 to 2012. The Rebels finished fifth in the SEC with 173.8 rushing yards per game.

Nix also helped with Randall Mackey's transition from quarterback to running back, where as a senior Mackey ran for 325 yards and four touchdowns while also lining up at slot receiver.

The Nix backfield stable helped Ole Miss register the third-best ground game in the SEC in 2010 (207.58 ypg), while Bolden ranked No. 5 in the league in rushing (976 yards). A Nix pupil for the duration of his career, Bolden finished second in school history in both total touchdowns (33) and rushing TDs (27), third in all-purpose yards (3,681) and fourth in rushing yards (2,604).

In 2009, McCluster became the first player in SEC history with 1,000 rushing yards (1,169) and 500 receiving yards (520) in the same season. The first team All-American recorded the second-highest rushing total in school history and went on to be drafted in the second round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs.

In his first season with the Rebels, Nix helped construct a running attack that ranked second in the SEC. Using a balanced attack, the Rebels featured three rushers that piled up at least 500 rushing yards in McCluster (655), Cordera Eason (647) and Bolden (542). McCluster was also named a second team All-SEC selection as an all-purpose player.

Before arriving in Oxford, Nix spent 2007 in the NFL as offensive assistant and quality control coach for the Atlanta Falcons.

Nix, one of the best-known players to ever wear a Southern Miss uniform, began his four-year stint on the Golden Eagles sidelines as a defensive graduate assistant in 2003. The following year, Nix was promoted to tight ends coach before being appointed to the running backs coaching position, where he spent two years.

In 2006 under Nix's direction, the Southern Miss running backs ran for 2,378 yards and scored 23 touchdowns, the first time the Golden Eagles ran for over 2,000 yards since 1987. True freshman Damion Fletcher, who earned first team All-Conference USA honors and Freshman All-American honors, ran for 1,388 yards and scored 11 touchdowns, the second-most yards in a season in school history. Fletcher set the freshman rushing record at Southern Miss and for Conference USA, and he was also named a finalist for the Conerly Trophy, signifying the top player in the state of Mississippi.

In 2005, Nix got career-best years from youthful players Larry Thomas and Cody Hull. Thomas posted three 100-yard rushing performances, while Hull started the final two games of the year and recorded his first 100-yard rushing day in the New Orleans Bowl with 161 yards on 37 carries, setting the Bowl record and the Southern Miss all-time bowl record. Hull's 37 carries tied for the fourth most in school history, matching Nix's own 37-carry performance against Nevada in 1998.

As the Golden Eagles' tight ends coach in 2004, Nix's crew, used primarily as blockers in the offensive scheme, was successful.

A three-time all-conference selection, Nix was a record-setting running back throughout his Southern Miss playing days and was named to the USM "Team of the Century." He recently became one of only five players in the history of the football program to become a member of the Southern Miss Legends Club.

Nix was the first Golden Eagle ever to rush for 1,000 yards in each of his freshman and sophomore campaigns and the only Southern Miss and C-USA player ever to rush for 1,000 yards or more in three seasons. His career achievements at Southern Miss also included being the C-USA Freshman of the Year and a first team Freshman All-American in 1998.

The Attalla, Alabama, native was born Feb. 22, 1980 and is a 2002 Southern Miss graduate with a bachelor's degree in sports administration. Nix is married to the former Allison Story of Frankfort, Kentucky, who also attended USM and played forward on the women's basketball team. The couple has a daughter, Ava.

Jacob Peeler, a Mississippi native and fast-rising star in the coaching profession, enters his second season as wide receivers coach.

Peeler made an immediate impact during his first season in Oxford, coming up with the nickname "Nasty Wide Outs" (NWO) that described the talented Ole Miss receiving corps. Four Rebel receivers caught at least 39 passes throughout the season, while three tallied at least 600 yards receiving.

A.J. Brown hauled in 75 catches, setting school records for receiving yards (1,252) and receiving touchdowns (11) in a single season. Both marks led the SEC and ranked top 11 nationally. With Peeler's tutelage, Brown collected a plethora of accolades, including: second team All-American, first team All-SEC, Conerly Trophy winner and Biletnikoff Award semifinalist.

While Brown excelled in the slot, DaMarkus Lodge (698 yards) and D.K. Metcalf (646 yards) became threats out wide. The duo combined for 14 touchdowns with seven apiece. Metcalf earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman team.

A dynamic on-field coach and top recruiter, Peeler served four seasons on the staff at Cal before making the move to Oxford. He was a graduate assistant in 2013-14 before being promoted to assistant coach for inside receivers in 2015.

The Kosciusko native helped turn Cal's offense into one of the nation's best, as the Golden Bears ranked top 10 in passing offense, top 15 in total offense and top 25 in scoring offense for three straight seasons.

As a recruiter, Peeler helped bring in a strong 2016 class highlighted by the signing of wide receiver Demetris Robertson, considered the nation's top-ranked receiver by Rivals, 247Sports and 247Sports Composite. In his freshman campaign, Robertson hauled in 50 catches for 767 yards and seven TDs en route to receiving Freshman All-America accolades from several outlets.

In 2016, Peeler assisted with a Cal offense that finished fourth nationally in passing (358.8 ypg), 10th in total offense (513.2 ypg) and 22nd in scoring (37.1 ppg). Among his inside receivers, he helped freshman Melquise Stovall (42 catches, 415 yards, 3 TDs) become an immediate contributor and helped senior Bug Rivera (41 catches, 386 yards, 3 TDs) transition to a full-time receiver role and move up the depth chart in his final season in Berkeley.

The inside receivers played a major role in the Golden Bears' 8-5 record in 2015 and a victory in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl over Air Force, Cal's first bowl win since 2008. Cal's offense flourished, setting numerous records including single-season school marks in passing yardage (4,892), passing yards per game (376.3 ypg), passing touchdowns (44), total offense (6,879), total yards per game (529.2 ypg), total touchdowns (63), scoring offense (37.9 ppg, modern-era record), first downs (341) and first downs passing (201), with all the marks previously set in 2013 or 2014.

Cal ranked third nationally in passing offense, eighth in total offense and 17th in scoring offense in 2015, with all of the numbers second in the Pac-12.

Peeler coached a trio of inside wide receivers in his first season as a full-time coach on the offensive staff in 2015 that had at least 40 catches led by Bryce Treggs (45 catches, team-high 956 yards, 7 TDs) and also including Darius Powe (47-560-8) and Stephen Anderson (41-474-2). Treggs and Anderson were both two-time All-Pac-12 honorable mention selections who picked up their second honor as 2015 seniors under Peeler. Treggs also finished his career fourth all-time at Cal with 195 receptions, fifth with 2,506 yards receiving and 10th with 15 touchdown catches.

All three players signed undrafted free agent contracts following the 2016 NFL Draft, with Anderson going to Houston, Powe signing with the New York Giants and Treggs hooking on with the San Francisco 49ers.

Cal set or equaled nine single-season school or modern-era records on the offense side of the ball in 2014 while Peeler was working with the inside receivers as a graduate assistant, all of which were broken in 2015. Cal ranked in the top 25 nationally in a total of seven offensive categories in 2014, including passing offense (6th, 346.0 ypg), scoring offense (10th, 38.3 ppg), and total offense (13th, 495.2 ypg).

Despite being an inexperienced unit that was the nation's second-youngest to start the season and battling injuries that caused players on the preseason depth chart to miss 138 games, Cal still set school records during Peeler's first season in 2013 for single-season passing yards (3,977), pass completions (368) and total plays (1,046). The passing offense finished third in the Pac-12 and 10th in the nation with an average of 331.4 yards per game that was also the best in school history before being surpassed in both 2014 and 2015.

Peeler developed the likes of current Green Bay Packers' tight end and third-round 2014 NFL Draft pick Richard Rodgers as well as Anderson, Powe and Treggs during his time in Berkeley.

Prior to continuing his career out west, Peeler spent four seasons (2009-12) on the football staff at his alma mater Louisiana Tech, serving as a graduate assistant working with the inside receivers in 2012 after three previous seasons in quality control roles on the offensive side of the ball. Before returning to Louisiana Tech, he coached at both Itawamba Community College (Fulton, Miss.) and Independence Community College (Independence, Kansas).

Peeler added a master's degree in kinesiology in 2008 from Mississippi State after receiving his bachelor's degree in education in 2007 from Louisiana Tech. At Louisiana Tech, he played two seasons (2005-06) and started all 13 games as a senior for an offensive line that helped the Bulldogs produce 4,479 total yards. Peeler redshirted his first season in Ruston in 2004.

Peeler arrived at Louisiana Tech after playing every offensive snap for two seasons in 2002 and 2003 at Holmes Community College (Goodman, Mississippi), where he earned All-America as well first team all-state and first team All-NJCAA Region 23 honors.

Peeler and his wife, the former Tori Hollis, were married in July 2016.

with linebackers and serving as special teams coordinator.

For the second straight season, the Troy defense was tops in both the Sun Belt and NCAA in multiple defensive categories on its way to a school-record 11 wins in 2017. The Troy defense ranked first in the nation in red zone defense (.614), second in tackles for loss per game (8.6), seventh in rushing defense (105.3), 11th in scoring defense and 24th in total defense per game (336.6).

Sumrall oversaw a Troy special teams that ranked second in the country with 27.71 yards per return and had a freshman All-American return specialist in Marcus Jones.

Sumrall joined the Troy staff after spending the previous three seasons as the co-defensive coordinator at Tulane. In his first season at Tulane, Sumrall's defensive line accounted for 27.5 tackles for loss, including 13.5 sacks, recorded 11 quarterback hurries, forced four fumbles and recovered two.

In addition to ranking among the nation's best in forcing turnovers, Sumrall's 2013 defense finished 22nd nationally in total defense (352.1), 13th in sacks per game (2.92) and 11th in red zone defense (73.5 percent). That season he was named a finalist for FootballScoop Defensive Line Coach of the Year along with coaches from Michigan State, Stanford and Missouri.

Prior to his arrival at Tulane, Sumrall spent five seasons in various positions at the University of San Diego, including as the defensive coordinator during his final two seasons. He spent his first three seasons as the defensive line coach, recruiting coordinator and camp coordinator before assuming the defensive coordinator and linebackers coaching role in 2010. During his final season with the Toreros, Sumrall was promoted to assistant head coach.

Sumrall spent two seasons (2005-06) serving as the defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Kentucky. In 2006, Kentucky recorded an 8-5 record and finished the season with a victory over Clemson in the Music City Bowl. While at Kentucky, he worked with the linebackers and the secondary.

Sumrall was a three-year letterman at middle linebacker for Kentucky from 2002-04 and played under current Ole Miss defensive coordinator, Wesley McGriff. He started every game as a senior and led the Wildcats with 72 tackles. Sumrall was a two-time all-state performer and a four-year letterman at Grissom High School in Huntsville, Alabama.

Sumrall completed his bachelor's degree in finance in 2005 and has completed coursework on a master's degree in sports leadership.

Sumrall is married to the former Ginny Nixon of Huntsville, and the couple has twins, Samuel George and Sadie Gayle, and a daughter, Stella.

FREDDIE ROACH

ASSISTANT COACH | DEFENSIVE LINE

2ND SEASON

Freddie Roach enters his second season as defensive line coach. Roach, a former Alabama All-SEC player and staff member at Alabama and South Alabama, was hired as assistant coach for the defensive line on Feb. 16, 2017.

During his first season in Oxford, Roach coached a pair of NFL Draft picks in Breeland Speaks (second round) and Marquis Haynes (fourth round). The duo combined for 14.5 sacks, and both Rebels earned second team All-SEC honors as part of the Landshark defensive line. Haynes went on to finish as Ole Miss' career leader in sacks (32.0) and tackles for loss (47.5) during the modern era.

Roach comes to Oxford from Tuscaloosa, where he served on Nick Saban's Crimson Tide staff as director of player development since March 2015.

In his role as the Tide's director of player development, Roach's main focus was off-the-field activities of Alabama's football student-athletes, serving as a resource in balancing the demands of academics, athletics and community outreach. He also served as a liaison for high school coaches, while assisting with Alabama camps and clinics. During his two seasons in the role, Alabama won back-to-back SEC titles and played for national titles in both years, winning the crown after the 2015 season.

Roach spent the 2013 and 2014 seasons as the defensive ends and outside linebackers coach at South Alabama under head coach Joey Jones. Roach helped the Jaguars end the 2013 season third nationally in sacks per game and 21st in tackles for loss per contest, while finishing second in the Sun Belt in pass, total and scoring defense. The 2014 defense was second in the Sun Belt in total defense.

Roach went to USA from Murray State, where he was the Racers' defensive line coach while assisting with the strength and conditioning program during the 2012 season.

The previous fall, he coached the defensive line and was the director of strength and conditioning at East Mississippi Community College, helping lead the Lions to the NJCAA National Championship.

Roach spent three seasons (2008-10) as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Alabama, during which time the Crimson Tide won both the BCS national championship and Southeastern Conference title in 2009.

As a player, Roach was a four-year letterman at linebacker for the Crimson Tide from 2002-05, during which time he was named the National Freshman of the Year, a freshman All-American, was twice selected second team All-SEC and named to Alabama's All-Decade Team for the 2000s. He signed as a free agent with the New England Patriots in 2006.

A native of Killen, Alabama, he made 194 tackles with 23 tackles for loss and six forced fumbles as a senior at Brooks High School. Roach earned his bachelor's degree in human environmental sciences from The University of Alabama in 2008.

Roach and his wife, Ashley, have two daughters, Addison and Alexandria. He is the brother of former Alabama players Will Roach and Tim Bowens.

JOHN MILLER

John Miller joined the Rebel support staff as assistant athletics director for football operations in January 2012. Miller has since been promoted to associate A.D.

Miller oversees the day-to-day operations of the Ole Miss football office, which includes administrative duties with academics, player development, recruiting, facility management, team travel and other areas.

His behind-the-scenes work has supported the team's improvement on the field, which has resulted in four bowl berths, including back-to-back New Year's Six games.

Miller came to Ole Miss after 12 years at Southern Miss, including the final seven as operations director. Prior to that, he worked as an assistant with the recruiting department and also spent time assisting with the defensive backs.

While overseeing the day-to-day operations of the USM football office, Miller also assisted with all areas of fundraising within the football program and served as Southern Miss' liaison with NFL Scouts and oversaw the player timing days.

The Golden Eagles received a bowl invitation in all but one of Miller's seasons in Hattiesburg, including each of the final 10 years.

Before entering the football profession, Miller was in the United States Army, where he worked in the criminal investigation division. He received two Army Commendations, a National Defense Award for Desert Storm and a Cold War Era Award for Desert Storm.

After serving four years in the Army, Miller worked as an assistant coach at Clinton High School under David Bradberry.

A 1999 graduate of Southern Miss, Miller is the son of Walter and Mary Miller of Clinton. He has two sons, Jonathon and Josh.

CHRIS RIPPON
ASSOCIATE A.D.
FOR COMMUNITY RELATIONS & SPECIAL TEAMS CONSULTANT

Chris Rippon, who has been on staff for the past three seasons, begins his first year as associate athletics director for community relations. Rippon will also serve as special teams analyst in his new role.

Rippon, a former Ole Miss assistant coach, returned to the Rebel program in August 2015 as Assistant A.D. for Recruiting Operations.

Rippon worked under Ed Orgeron from 2005-07 as the Rebels' defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator. He has since had coaching stints at Rutgers (2008), Marshall (2010-12) and Columbia (2013-14).

A 35-year veteran of the college coaching ranks, Rippon has also served on staffs at Syracuse (1993-2004), Boston University (1990-93) and Western Connecticut State (1982-90). He has been the defensive coordinator at Columbia, Marshall, Syracuse, Boston and Western Connecticut State, while he's been special teams coordinator at Rutgers, Ole Miss and Syracuse. He was head coach at Western Connecticut State from 1987-90 and interim head coach at Columbia for the first two months of 2015.

Over the course of his career, Rippon coached 22 players that have been drafted into the National Football League, including five first-round picks.

He is a 1982 graduate of Southern Connecticut State with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He earned a master's degree in agency counseling from Western Connecticut State in 1986.

Rippon and his wife, the former Lisa Miano of Trumbull, Connecticut, have four children: sons Christopher and Matthew, and twin daughters Jillian and Samantha.

TOM LUKE
ASSISTANT A.D.
FOR PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Former Ole Miss quarterback Tom Luke returned to his alma mater in May 2013 as assistant athletics director for player development.

The brother of Ole Miss head coach Matt Luke, he oversees various aspects of academics and campus life for Rebel players. His guidance has helped raise the players' standards in the classroom and off the field, as the team posted its highest GPA in history during the 2017-18 academic year.

Luke has helped the Rebels reach bowl games in three of his five seasons, including back-to-back New Year's Six appearances.

Luke was Ole Miss' coordinator of football operations from 2004-05 under David Cutcliffe and Ed Orgeron. Prior to returning to the Ole Miss football program, he worked a few years in the sporting goods business.

He spent 12 years teaching and coaching at Jackson Academy prior to his first stint on the Ole Miss staff.

Luke earned three letters (1989-91) while playing quarterback at Ole Miss, but suffered three concussions during his career, which led to his decision to pass up his senior year and accept a coaching position on the high school level.

He ended his career ranked 17th in passing with 1,524 yards, completing 86 of 178 passes with 10 interceptions. At the time, he also ranked 17th in career total offense with 2,078 yards (554 rushing and 1,524 passing).

After receiving his bachelor's degree from Ole Miss in 1992, Luke began teaching and coaching at Jackson Academy. During his nine years as offensive coordinator, Jackson Academy won four Mississippi Private School Association state titles and was twice state runner-up. As the head baseball coach from 1995-2001, Jackson Academy won two MPSA state championships.

Luke is married to the former Angie Pope of Clinton, Mississippi, also an Ole Miss graduate and former Rebelette in "The Pride of the South" marching band. They are the parents of one son, Cale, and two daughters, Carson and Cayden.

TYLER SISKEY
ASSISTANT A.D. FOR PLAYER PERSONNEL

The 2018 season will mark the first year as assistant athletics director for Tyler Siskey.

Siskey returns to Ole Miss after spending three seasons at South Alabama, serving as wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator and two years at Alabama, where he oversaw the recruiting operation for Nick Saban's staff.

He previously served on the Ole Miss staff as coordinator of recruiting development in 2012. He helped oversee recruiting efforts for the 2013 class that featured four first-round NFL draft picks and was regarded as one of the top five in the nation by analysts and recruiting services.

While at South Alabama, Siskey mentored all-Sun Belt receivers Jamarius Way and Josh Magee. Way hauled in 47 catches for 762 yards and three scores during the 2017 campaign to earn second team all-conference honors. Magee, who ranked among the top five in the Sun Belt in both receptions and receiving yards per game in 2016, signed a free-agent contract with the Atlanta Falcons following his senior season.

Siskey joined the Crimson Tide program in March of 2013 as the associate director of player personnel before being promoted to the director position less than a year later for the 2014 season. In his role, he was responsible for organizing all of UA's recruiting efforts, helping the program put together the No. 1 signing class in the country that February according to all four major recruiting services.

Prior to Ole Miss in 2012, Siskey was the wide receivers coach at fellow Sun Belt Conference member Arkansas State for four years, helping the Red Wolves set single-season school records for passing yards, completions, passing touchdowns and passing yards per game during his tenure. In 2011, Dwayne Frampton broke ASU's single-season reception record and ranked 13th nationally in catches as the Red Wolves finished the regular season ranked in the top 25 in the country in total yards and passing offense.

He also has coaching experience in Mobile having served as an assistant for four years at St. Paul's Episcopal School. Siskey was the Saints' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2007 when the team claimed the state 5A championship, helping St. Paul's advance to postseason play each of his first three years at the school as well; after making the playoffs in 2004, the school moved on to the quarter-finals each of the next two seasons.

Siskey began his coaching career as a student assistant at Troy, where he would go on to earn his bachelor's degree in 2000. He was an offensive graduate assistant at Northwestern (La.) State during the 2001 season, before joining the staff at Arkansas State as an offensive graduate assistant from 2002-03.

Siskey earned a bachelor's degree in sports and fitness management from Troy in 2000, followed by a master's degree in education from Northwestern State in 2003.

PAUL JACKSON
HEAD FOOTBALL
CONDITIONING COACH

Paul Jackson was named head strength and conditioning coach on Jan. 9, 2012.

Now in his seventh season, Jackson's hard work and leadership have helped the Ole Miss program improve throughout his tenure. With players that are noticeably stronger and faster, the Rebels have achieved four bowl appearances, including back-to-back New Year's Six bowls in 2014 and 2015.

Jackson came to Oxford after spending 2011 at Southern Miss, where he oversaw the strength and conditioning for the entire USM athletics department with direct responsibility over football. In his one season there, the football team had its best record in history at 12-2 and captured the Conference USA championship.

Jackson arrived in Hattiesburg after serving in 2010 as the Director of Athletic Conditioning for Football at Miami (Ohio). In his lone season, he helped the Redhawks to the 2010 MAC championship and a victory in the 2011 GoDaddy.Com Bowl, becoming the first team in NCAA history to go from double-digit losses to double-digit wins in one year (1-11 in 2009 to 10-4 in 2010).

From 2007-10, Jackson served as an assistant strength coach at LSU, working directly with the Tigers football and volleyball teams. During his time in Baton Rouge, Jackson won an SEC and national championship with the football team as well as three consecutive SEC Western Division and one SEC championship with the volleyball team. While working for the Tigers, Jackson worked under and was mentored by strength and conditioning legend Tommy Moffitt.

A native of White Plains, New York, Jackson got his start in the business as a Professional Intern Strength Coach with the NFL's New York Giants. He also spent time as a Performance Enhancement Specialist at the Parisi Speed School in Garwood, New Jersey, where the focus is sport-specific speed and agility training as well as combine prep.

He is a Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength & Conditioning Association.

During his college days at Montclair State (N.J.), Jackson lettered in football, spending time at both fullback and linebacker. He earned a B.S. in physical education in 2006 and later received an M.S. in kinesiology from LSU in 2009.

He is married to the former Kristina Hull, who played softball at Georgia Tech and has been a Winter Olympic hopeful in the skeleton. The couple met when they were both on the strength and conditioning staff at LSU.

PAT JERNIGAN

After more than a decade in the NFL, Pat Jernigan joined the Ole Miss staff in June 2012 as head football athletic trainer.

In six years with the Ole Miss program, Jernigan has seen the Rebels achieve bowl appearances in four seasons, including back-to-back New Year's Six berths in 2014 and 2015.

Jernigan, who has earned Performance Enhancement Specialists (PES) certification, spent the previous 10 seasons serving as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' assistant athletic trainer, where he assisted with the treatment and rehabilitation of the Bucs' injured players.

During his second season with the organization in 2002, Jernigan helped the Buccaneers capture their first Super Bowl title. He was also part of three NFC South division titles in his first eight seasons with the club.

Jernigan spent two seasons (2000-01) as Tampa Bay's seasonal intern and also served as the Buccaneers' intern during training camp from 1998-2000. Along with Tampa Bay's training staff, he has also been involved in research on dehydration and exercise in the heat done in conjunction with scientists from the Gatorade Sports Science Institute.

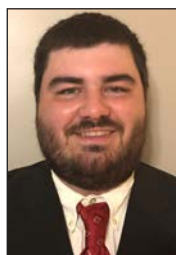

Jernigan graduated from Valdosta State (Ga.) in 1998 with a B.S. in sports medicine and earned a master's degree in health science from Middle Tennessee State in 2000.

While pursuing his master's degree at MTSU, he worked as an athletic trainer for both the football and baseball teams.

A native of Atlanta, Jernigan and his wife, Krisden, have two daughters, Maier and Hadley.

AM AN OLE M

combination of veteran players, fresh faces ready to ring in A NEW ERA

Headed into the 2018 season, Ole Miss is looking to build off the momentum gained at the end of last season, winning three of its last four games including a 31-28 Egg Bowl win at No. 14 Mississippi State.

After having the interim title removed after the 2017 season, head coach Matt Luke and the Rebels return 56 lettermen, including eight starters from the offensive side of the ball and seven from the Landshark defense.

Offensive coordinator Phil Longo returns for his second season spearheading the Ole Miss offense and has a bevy of weapons at his disposal. Junior All-American and Conerly Trophy winner A.J. Brown returns after setting the Ole Miss single-season record with 1,252 yards. DaMarkus Lodge and D.K. Metcalf join Brown to form one of the most explosive receiving corps in the country. The trio combined for 25 touchdowns last season and make up the only receiving corps in the country that returns three receivers who tallied seven or more touchdown catches during the 2017 season.

Signal-caller Jordan Ta'amu will man the QB spot for the Rebels after starting the last five games behind center. Ta'amu averaged 320.8 yards passing per game during his starts, while accounting for 15 touchdowns; 11 through the air and four on the ground. After passing for 418 yards in win over Louisiana during week 11, Ta'amu became only the second-ever Ole Miss QB in program history to throw for 350 or more yards in three straight games. Ta'amu's 418 passing yards vs. the Ragin' Cajuns was the sixth-best passing performance in Ole Miss history. Ta'amu completed more than 66 percent of his passes and threw for 1,682 yards and 11 TDs, including three straight 365-plus yard performances to begin his Ole Miss career.

Tight end Dawson Knox returns after a successful sophomore campaign that saw the Nashville, Tennessee, native haul in 24 catches for 321 yards in nine starts last season.

The Rebels return four of their five starters on the offensive line in Greg Little, Javon Patterson, Sean Rawlings and Alex Givens, as well as Jordan Sims who appeared in 11 contests during the 2016 campaign. The five veteran offensive linemen have a combined 103 starts between them.

On the defensive side of the ball, Wesley McGriff and the Rebels will have some big shoes to fill with the loss of all-conference performers Marquis Haynes and Breeland Speaks. Haynes, Ole Miss' modern-era leader in both sacks and tackles for loss, graduated, and Speaks decided to forgo his senior season to enter the NFL Draft. The duo combined to record 115 tackles and accounted for more than half of Ole Miss' 29 sacks.

Also gone is DeMarquis Gates, who led the Rebels in tackles for three straight seasons. Gates' 114 tackles in 2017 were the most by any Rebel defender since Patrick Willis recorded 137 in 2006.

Defensive tackles Josiah Coatney and Benito Jones, as well as defensive backs Zedrick Woods, Myles Hartsfield, Jaylon Jones and Ken Webster are all returning starters who will look to anchor the Rebel defense in 2018.

QUARTERBACKS

- Jordan Ta'amu returns after starting the final five games of the season.
- Ta'amu went 3-2 and closed the season strong.
- The rising senior completed 115-of-173 passes for 1,682 yards. Ta'amu tallied 11 touchdown passes compared to just four interceptions. He also ran for four scores.
- In his first career start, Ta'amu threw for 368 yards, the most passing yards ever by an Ole Miss QB making his first career start.
- Newcomer Matt Corral is expected to handle snaps behind Ta'amu.
- Corral was a U.S. Army All-American and was ranked the No. 3 pro-style QB in the 2018 recruiting class.

RUNNING BACKS

- Jordan Wilkins was the team's leading rusher in 2017 with 155 carries for 1,011 rushing yards, averaging 6.5 yards per carry, nine rushing TDs, 26 receptions, 241 receiving yards, one receiving TD.

Ole Miss will rely on a deep and talented receiving corps - including A.J. Brown, DaMarkus Lodge and D.K. Metcalf - to light up the scoreboard in the fall.

- D'vaughn Pennamon, D.K. Buford, Eric Swinney and newcomers Scottie Phillips and Isaiah Woullard will be battling for the running workload. Both Phillips and Woullard were early enrollees and participated in spring camp.
- Armani Linton adds depth as the former defensive back moved over to the offensive side of the ball in the spring.
- Phillips, a transfer from Jones County Junior College, was the top-rated junior college running back.

WIDE RECEIVERS

- Rebels return five lettermen from last year's team.
- A.J. Brown, an All-America selection by the Associated Press and Phil Steele, totaled 75 catches for an Ole Miss single-season record 1,252 yards.
- DaMarkus Lodge caught 41 balls for 698 yards and seven touchdowns. Lodge tallied two multiple touchdown games and went over the 100-yard receiving mark twice.

- D.K. Metcalf tallied 39 catches for 646 yards and seven touchdowns on his way to earning SEC All-Freshman honors.
- Ole Miss is the only team in the country with three returning receivers who hauled in seven or more touchdowns during the 2017 season.
- Sophomore Braylon Sanders and senior Alex Weber also return for the Rebels.
- Newcomer Demarcus Gregory is a mid-year enrollee and participated in spring drills. Elijah Moore and Miles Battle are incoming freshmen that will join a talented receiving corps in the fall.

TIGHT ENDS

- Dawson Knox leads the way for the Ole Miss tight end group. Knox tallied 10 catches for 324 yards in 10 games in 2017.
- Junior Octavious Cooley, who was named Most Improved during the spring, will return after appearing in 10 contests in 2017, hauling in four catches for 66 yards.
- Jason Pellerin, Alex Faniel and Gabe Angel add depth to the position.

OFFENSIVE LINE

- The veteran group performed well through some attrition in 2017.
- Blocked for Jordan Wilkins on his way to becoming the first 1,000 yard rusher since 2009.
- Ole Miss returns All-SEC left tackle Greg Little, who started every game at the blind side position for the Rebels in 2017.
- The Rebels return four starters in Little, Sean Rawlings, Javon Patterson and Alex Givens.
- Jordan Sims and Ben Brown will compete at right guard for the fifth spot. Sims started 11 games on the offensive line as a sophomore in 2016.
- Little, Rawlings, Patterson, Givens and Sims have combined for 103 starts during their careers at Ole Miss.
- Royce Newman, Bryce Mathews, Tony Gray, Eli Johnson, Chandler Tuitt and Michael Howard return to add depth.

DEFENSIVE ENDS

- Rebels lose two all-conference ends in Marquis Haynes and Breeland Speaks.
- Haynes, Ole Miss' modern-era sack leader has graduated and Speaks decided to forgo his senior season to enter the NFL Draft. The pair combined for 115 tackles and accounted for more than half of Ole Miss' 29 sacks.
- Victor Evans (18 tackles), Markel Winters, Ryder Anderson, Qaadir Sheppard, Brenden Williams return from last season to fill their shoes.
- Austrian Robinson, who moved from defensive tackle in the spring, will also help add depth.

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

- The Rebels return former Freshman All-American Benito Jones, Josiah Coatney, Ross Donelly, Sincere David.
- Coatney, a preseason All-SEC pick, tallied 65 tackles and 3.5 sacks.
- Jones compiled 1.5 sacks and 7.5 tackles for loss.
- Hal Northern earned 2017 NCAA first team All-America honors and joins the Rebels for the 2018 season.
- K.D. Hill and Quentin Bivens are newcomers who will add depth come the fall.

LINEBACKERS

- The Rebels lose DeMarquis Gates (114 tackles) and Taylor Polk (39 tackles, one sack) to graduation.
- Willie Hibbler, Josh Clarke, Donta Evans, Zikerrion Baker, Detric Bing-Dukes and Mohamed Sanogo return from last year's team to lead the unit.
- Bing-Dukes, a senior from Tucker, Ga., is the returning leading tackler at the linebacker spot for the Rebels with 24 stops last season.
- Clarke, a redshirt freshman from Jefferson, Louisiana, will likely see heavy snaps opposite of Bing-Dukes.
- Jaquez Jones, Jonathan Hess, Luke Knox and Kevontae' Ruggs will all report to fall camp to battle for snaps.

SAFETIES

- Ole Miss returns a veteran nucleus of Zedrick Woods (64 tackles, four break ups, four deflections), C.J. Moore (51 tackles, three interceptions), Cam Ordway, C.J. Miller and Montrell Custis.
- As the recipient of the 2018 Chucky Mullins Courage Award winner, Moore will wear Mullins' No. 38 jersey throughout the 2018 season.
- Ole Miss added the Mississippi 6A High School Player of the Year in Tylan Knight in its 2018 class. Knight can play on both sides of the ball and could see time in the defensive backfield.
- Junior college transfer Vernon Dasher participated in spring drills and plays the Star position for the Rebels.

CORNERBACKS

- The Rebels return all but one cornerback from the 2017 squad.
- Returning is a core of upperclassmen in Ken Webster, Javien Hamilton, Myles Hartsfield and Jaylon Jones. Sophomore D.D. Bowie also returns for Ole Miss.
- Hartsfield recorded 42 tackles, five deflections and two interceptions in 2017.
- Webster had 29 tackles and a pair of break ups and deflections last season.
- Kidreon Smith and JaKorey Hawkins are newcomers to this group that will join the team in the fall.

SPECIALISTS

- The Rebels must replace all-time leading scorer Gary Wunderlich on field goal duties as well as punter Will Gleeson.
- Luke Logan made 2-of-3 field goals last season and will compete with Patrick Nasiatka for kicking duties.
- Mac Brown punted five times and averaged 42.2 yards per punt.
- Junior Jaylon Jones, a preseason All-SEC kick returner by Athlon, expects to handle kick return duties again in 2018 after finishing third in the SEC with 25.0 yards per return last season.

OLE MISS 47, SOUTH ALABAMA 27

Attendance: 62,532 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - Ole Miss blitzed South Alabama in the second half en route to a 47-27 win over the Jaguars to deliver Matt Luke his first career victory as a head coach.

The Rebels started fast with 10 quick points in the first 13 minutes of the game, but endured a sluggish end to the first half that saw South Alabama climb back into the game at 13-10.

The story of the second half - at least the early portion of it - was A.J. Brown and Shea Patterson. The two hooked up for a pair of long touchdown passes in the first two drives of the half from 71 and 77 yards, respectively. Brown had 8 receptions for 233 yards and the two touchdowns. Patterson finished the game 28 of 35 for 429 yards and four scores. He threw all over the Jaguars in a strong opening performance for the sophomore quarterback who is the centerpiece of Phil Longo's offense.

Brown broke the school record for receiving yards in a game. He and Patterson connected on a lot of broken plays when Patterson was flushed out of the pocket. It is a byproduct of their timing together and being on the same page.

Brown was one of seven Rebels to record catches on the day as the most explosive element of the Ole Miss offense dominated South Alabama's secondary.

DaMarkus Lodge had five receptions for 51 yards and a pair of touchdowns. D.K. Metcalf caught eight balls for 84 yards on the night.

Ole Miss kept pouring it on after the two early second half strikes between Patterson and Brown. Jaylon Jones took a kickoff 97 yards for a score to give Ole Miss a 33-13 lead midway through the third quarter. Lodge followed that with the second of his touchdown catches that put the game out of reach at 40-13.

OLE MISS 45, UT MARTIN 23

Attendance: 60,476 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. -- An early kickoff was accompanied by a sluggish start for Ole Miss, but it persevered to a 45-23 win over UT Martin to improve to 2-0 on the season.

The Rebels finished the game in a much more appealing fashion than they started. UT-Martin jumped out to a 9-0 lead early on behind a rushing attack that tallied 67 yards in the opening quarter. Ole Miss was stopped on its opening drive, but the offense quickly gelled after that. Shea Patterson found A.J. Brown for a 58-yard touchdown pass. UT Martin answered that with a score of their own to go up 16-7.

Ole Miss proceeded to score 31 consecutive points after that highlighted by a 21-point third quarter in which the offense scored on every drive. Patterson found Brown on a two-yard touchdown pass for a second time just before halftime to give the Rebels a 17-16 lead.

For a second consecutive week, the Rebels hit the ground running in the second half. Jordan Wilkins completed a nine play, 80-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown rush on the first drive of the second half.

Both Brown and Lodge had touchdown catches on the day and both surpassed the 100-yard mark by the third quarter. Brown caught eight balls for 156 yards while Lodge had 6 receptions for a career-high 133 yards.

Ole Miss continued to show how dynamic it can be in the passing game. Patterson threw for 489 yards and five scores. He broke the school record for passing yards in a single game, completed 74.4 percent of his throws and threw passes to nine different receivers. Four different receivers caught touchdown passes.

CALIFORNIA 27, OLE MISS 16

Attendance: 37,125 • Memorial Stadium • Berkeley, Calif.

BERKELEY, Calif. - Ole Miss faced adversity from multiple angles, and fell short in the second half in a 27-16 loss to Cal.

Nothing came easy for the Rebels in California after a fast start.

Shea Patterson and the offense marched the football down the field on the team's opening possession and settled for a Gary Wunderlich field goal. The senior kicker injured his hamstring shortly after and would not return to the game after missing an extra point later in the half.

Two drives later, Cal cashed in on a Patterson interception and took a 7-3 lead. That evaporated in the blink of an eye after Patterson found DaMarkus Lodge for a 72-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the ensuing drive. It was the first of two long touchdown passes as Patterson hit D.K. Metcalf in stride for a 71-yard score in the second quarter that pushed the Rebels' lead to 16-7.

C.J. Moore had two interceptions in the second quarter that kept Cal off of the scoreboard and gave the Rebels a 16-7 heading into the half.

The third quarter was not kind to Ole Miss as Cal outscored the Rebels 10-0 and took a 17-16 lead highlighted by a Ross Bowers 23-yard touchdown pass to Vic Wharton III on the Bears' opening possession of the half.

Penalties thwarted Ole Miss' momentum for much of the night, but particularly in the third quarter. The team was penalized 16 times for 113 yards in the game.

A bulk of the penalties were shouldered by the offensive line, who had to shift around after it lost veteran center Sean Rawlings to an ankle sprain in the first half. Luke did not know how long he will be out, but anticipated it being a couple of weeks.

Patterson was flushed out of the pocket often and was forced to try to extend plays with his feet. The offense sputtered for much of the second half as a result. The Rebels mustered just 131 yards in the second half. Cal had 201 by comparison.

#1/1 ALABAMA 66, OLE MISS 3

Attendance: 101,821 • Bryant-Denny Stadium • Tuscaloosa, Ala.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - Alabama proved why it is the most dominant team SEC in more ways than one in its 66-3 win over Ole Miss. After the two teams exchanged three-and-outs to begin the game, Alabama took control in every facet of the game. Bo Scarbrough opened up the scoring with a six-yard touchdown rush. Levi Wallace made it 14-0 less than a minute later when he picked off a Shea Patterson pass and returned it 35 yards for a touchdown.

Gary Wunderlich added a 26-yard field goal to make it 14-3, getting the Rebels on the board. The Rebels' tumultuous opening quarter was capped off by the first of two Jalen Hurts touchdown passes, this one to tight end Hale Hentges that capped off an 85-yard drive. Hurts hit Josh Jacobs for an 18-yard score a short time later and capped off the half with a rushing touchdown to give the Crimson Tide a 35-3 lead at the break.

Alabama cruised the remainder of the way and piled on 31 second half-points. Hurts was 12-19 for 197 yards and two touchdowns. He rushed for 101 yards and compiled a passer rating of 185. Ole Miss struggled to find a rhythm offensively for much of the night, largely due to Alabama's pass rush that repeatedly flushed Shea Patterson out of the pocket and sacked him five times. Patterson was 14 for 29 on the night and threw for 165. Ole Miss was 0-13 on third down.

Jordan Wilkins had his best game of the 2017 season in a night where Ole Miss rushed the football with more effectiveness than it did in the first three games. The senior running back tallied 101 yards on 12 carries and broke runs of 21 and 44 yards. D.K. Metcalf led all receivers with three catches for 46 yards.

#12 AUBURN 44, OLE MISS 23

Game #5 • Oct. 7, 2017
Attendance: 86,700 • Jordan-Hare Stadium • Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN, Ala. - A tumultuous three-game road trip came to an end for Ole Miss on the Plains in a 44-23 loss to No. 12 Auburn.

The Rebels dug themselves into a multi-score hole early on that was far too deep to climb out of. Kerryon Johnson opened the scoring with a 17-yard touchdown rush, his first of three in the first half. Johnson touched the ball 28 times and gained 204 yards on the day. Auburn as a team rushed for 326 yards. The defense struggled to defend the ground attack for much of the afternoon, and penalties only compounded that.

Ole Miss drove down the field and answered with a field goal, but it was quickly negated by a screen play that resulted in a 75-yard touchdown pass from Jarrett Stidham to Ryan Davis on Auburn's first play from scrimmage. Everything was set up by Auburn's ability to run the football at will. The Tiger offense picked up large chunks of yardage for most of the game and averaged 7.8 yards per snap.

The latter two of Johnson's touchdown rushes followed that, one from 48 yards out and one from five yards. Auburn had four 70-plus-yard drives in the opening half, and compiled 339 yards of total offense. It led 35-3 at halftime. The Tigers compiled 561 yards of total offense in the game.

Ole Miss found the end zone for the first time in the game early on in the third quarter when Shea Patterson found D.K. Metcalf in space for a nine-yard touchdown pass. It completed a 75-yard drive and brought the score to 38-10. The two found each other again early on in the fourth quarter, this one a five-yard strike to make the score 41-17. As much as the offense sputtered in the first half, it found its footing in the second half and totaled 429 yards in the game.

OLE MISS 57, VANDERBILT 35

Attendance: 60,157 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - It was a collective exhale and a breath of life after more than a month on the road. Ole Miss returned home and let out some frustration in its 57-35 win over Vanderbilt, a game in which the Rebels looked rejuvenated from all angles.

The Rebel offense showed its best self in the first half, compiling 35 points behind Shea Patterson's four first-half touchdowns and Jordan Wilkin's 82 yards and a score. The first score of a game was a familiar site as Patterson found A.J. Brown over the middle for a 58 yard touchdown pass.

Two Ralph Webb touchdown runs followed, putting Vanderbilt ahead 14-7 and pushing Ole Miss' back against a proverbial wall yet again. The Rebels responded with 28 unanswered points that plopped them squarely in control of the game. Patterson hit wide open Damarkus Lodge for a 35-yard score on a busted coverage to tie the game at 14. The sophomore quarterback then rushed for a four-yard score to give the Rebels a lead at 21-14. Patterson finished the game 22-35 for 351 yards and four passing touchdowns and five total scores.

The barrage of scoring was capped off with a Wilkins 18 yard touchdown rush and a Patterson-Lodge connection from six yards out. The Rebels led 35-15 with just a couple minutes left in the first half. It held a 35-21 lead at halftime and never looked back. Wilkins ran for 113 yards and the Rebels rushed for 251 yards as a team, the most all season by a long shot. It took pressure off of Patterson and the offense.

The Ole Miss defense forced three turnovers and sacked Vanderbilt quarterback seven times, including five in the first half.

#24 LSU 40, OLE MISS 24

Attendance: 64,067 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - Ole Miss had its Achilles Heel exploited defensively to the tune of 393 LSU rushing yards in a 40-24 defeat to the Tigers.

LSU offensive coordinator Matt Canada handed the football to its bell cow running back Derrius Guice again and again daring Ole Miss to neutralize him. Guice ripped through the Rebel defense into the second and third level on his way to 276 yards and a score on 22 touches. Backup running back Darrel Williams also surpassed the century mark on the ground, compiling 103 yards on 22 touches. Guice averaged 21.5 yards per carry and LSU gained seven yards per carry as a team. The Tigers posted 593 yards of total offense in the game.

The Tigers averaged 8.7 yards per play and the Rebels struggled to find an answer for Guice and Williams for most of the night.

The team's traded field goals in the early minutes of the game before Guice ran for a seven-yard touchdown that aided in his 98 first-quarter rushing yards. LSU's Connor Culp banged home his second and third field goals of the first half in the second quarter from 38 and 26 yards out. That gave LSU a 13-3 just before halftime.

Luke and his staff got an injury scare late in the second quarter when Shea Patterson hobbled off of the field into a makeshift medical tent and eventually into the locker room after injuring his right knee on a play in which he was intercepted by Grant Delpit.

Jordan Ta'amu stepped in and led the Rebels down the field to three points in the final 90 seconds of the half in Patterson's absence to narrow LSU's lead to 13-6 at halftime. Ta'amu was 7-11 for 78 yards on the night. He re-entered the game and led a nine play, 66 yard touchdown drive late in the game.

ARKANSAS 38, OLE MISS 37

Attendance: 55,684 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - Turnovers set the forces in motion for a 24-point lead to evaporate in front of Ole Miss' eyes as Arkansas escaped Oxford with a wild 38-37 win in the latest chapter of this SEC West rivalry.

The most critical one came late in the fourth quarter. Ole Miss took the field with 6:01 remaining on the game looking to salt away a 37-28 lead that once was as high as 31-7. A zone read between Jordan Ta'amu and Eric Swinney went haywire and the football landed in the grass. It was scooped up by Arkansas's Kevin Richardson, who ran it into the end zone for a touchdown that altered the trajectory of the game more than any other. The Razorbacks trailed 37-35 with plenty of time on the clock.

It was a bitter end to an otherwise productive debut for the senior. An Ole Miss punt on the next drive paved the way for Arkansas to take the football down the field and win the game on a 33-yard field goal from the left foot of Connor Limpert. The Razorbacks led for a total of four seconds in the ballgame.

Both teams came into the game with back up quarterbacks, battered offensive lines and struggling defenses. The Rebels carried the advantage at signal caller thanks to the play of Ta'amu. He was 20-30 for 368 yards and a pair of rushing touchdowns and was a large reason why Ole Miss' lead ballooned to 31-7 in the first 25 minutes of the ballgame.

Jordan Wilkins scored on the second play of the game when he exploded through a hole on the far side of the field en route to a 64-yard touchdown. Wilkins had 16 rushes for 118 yards.

OLE MISS 37, KENTUCKY 34

Attendance: 55,665 • Kroger Field • Lexington, Ky.

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Gatorade dripped down Matt Luke's face onto his soaked black shirt and pants. He sauntered towards the visiting tunnel at Kroger Field, his path impeded with players and coaches wanting an embrace. He bear hugged defensive coordinator Wesley McGriff with a fury that seemingly released the weight of a season that has tried him to the point of tears.

The scene was on the field could best be described as pure elation and one ignited by D.K. Metcalf high-pointing a football in the back left corner of the end zone with five seconds remaining on the clock. The score gave Ole Miss a 37-34 lead over Kentucky that it would not relinquish and its first road win in nearly a year.

The ball sailed out of Jordan Ta'amu's hand and resulted in his fourth touchdown pass of the day. A guy who had played a total of one SEC football game completed 31-of-40 passes for a career high 382 yards and did not turn the ball over.

He orchestrated the game's final drive that went 71 yards and began with 2:14 on the clock. He needed all but five of those seconds and did with a calmness that mesmerized his offensive coordinator.

The ball floated away from Ta'amu and towards Metcalf as the game hung in the balance. The thoughts of previous failures and trying times this year has brought entered the minds of many watching. Metcalf's thought was simpler.

He reached over the defender, snagged the football and grazed his foot onto the stretch of blue turf. A play so close it required a review to solidify what just took place.

OLE MISS 50, LOUISIANA 22

Game #10 • Nov. 11, 2017
Attendance: 51,618 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - Ole Miss handled its necessary business against a Louisiana team that's running out of gas down the stretch. The Rebels amassed 50 points on 641 yards of offense in a 50-22 rout to earn their fifth victory of the season and get back to .500 for the first time since they took the field against Auburn on October 7.

Jordan Ta'amu looked sharp once again and steered the Ole Miss offense on the same upward trajectory it has been on the last three weeks since he assumed the duties of starting quarterback.

The Rebels scored on their first five drives of the game, and the junior signal caller was responsible for all five touchdowns in one form or another. He went 28-36 for 418 yards and three touchdowns on the day.

Ta'amu zipped a 37-yard deep ball to DaMarkus Lodge just 72 seconds into the game to open the scoring. Ta'amu followed that up on the next drive by throwing A.J. Brown the ball on the far sideline and let him do the rest. Brown made a shifty move down the sideline and dove for the pylon for a 31-yard touchdown that capped off a 96 yard drive.

Ta'amu ran one in from eight yards out on the fifth play of an 80-yard drive and then found Brown again for 27 yards a few minutes later to put Ole Miss 28-0. His final touchdown came on a short one-yard touchdown dive at the end of a 10-play, 75-yard scoring drive that helped the Rebels attain a 35-10 lead at the half. The team coasted the rest of the way.

TEXAS A&M 31, OLE MISS 24

Attendance: 55,880 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - The opportunities for Ole Miss to grab a win over Texas A&M on senior night were tangible, sitting there in front of them. But penalties and a sputtering offense prevented them from doing so in a 31-24 loss to the Aggies in the season's penultimate game.

A pace that started out so rapid that each team scored two touchdowns in the first 11 minutes of the game, slowed considerably after that. Each team scored on its first two drives. Ole Miss by way of a seven play, 70 yard drive capped off by a 27 yard touchdown pass from Jordan Ta'amu to A.J. Brown, and a 64 yard Jordan Wilkins touchdown rush on the first play of its second drive.

Ta'amu was 19-34 for 189 yards and two touchdowns on the night. Wilkins had 147 yards and a score on 19 carries. 123 of those came in the first half.

A&M answered each one with two 75 plus yard drives of their own. The score was quickly 14-14 just over ten minutes in. Things slowed after that. Each team scored one more touchdown apiece and a Gary Wunderlich 28 yard field goal with a few seconds left in the second quarter gave Ole Miss a 24-21 halftime lead.

The second half is really when the pace of the game fully evolved. Ole Miss totaled 325 yards in the first half and just 66 in the second. Texas A&M had only 91 yards of offense in the second half alone, but won the game on a late field goal and a Derrick Tucker pick six of Ta'amu in the third quarter. Ta'amu was flushed out of the pocket on the heels of his own end zone. He threw it across the middle, Tucker stepped in front of it and took off towards the end zone. It proved costly for Ole Miss.

Perhaps the strangest part of the loss is how the Rebel defense fared against the run. The unit has struggled mightily against the ground game in each of the previous 10 games, but tonight allowed just 119 yards on 44 rushes. Texas A&M's Travis Ford picked up 43 of those on his first carry. Ole Miss yielded just 76 yards on the next 43 Aggie attempts.

OLE MISS 31, #13 MISSISSIPPI STATE 28

Attendance: 59,345 • Davis Wade Stadium • Starkville, Miss.

STARKVILLE, Miss. - Moments after the Ole Miss sideline made its way over to the south end zone at Davis Wade Stadium to grab the Golden Egg Trophy after salting away a 31-28 win, Matt Luke found himself in the middle of a scrum of his players so tight it was nearly suffocating. Senior Marquis Haynes hugged his head coach as chants of "LUKE, LUKE" were bellowed from his players gathered around him.

The game itself was a strange one, with parallels beyond Luke realizing a dream. Brown's return to his hometown of Starkville began in the first 30 seconds of the game. He caught a 58-yard ball from Jordan Ta'amu. It set up a 22-yard Jordan Wilkins run later to set the tone and put Ole Miss up 7-0 less than 40 seconds into the ball game.

Mississippi State's defense kept them in the ballgame until about midway through the third quarter. Brown got loose on a deep ball that resulted in a 78-yard touchdown pass that sweetened his trip home. D.K. Metcalf followed that up with a 63-yard score of his own to give the Rebels a 24-6 lead. Mississippi State made a late charge with three touchdowns in the fourth quarter. A Jordan Wilkins 46-yard touchdown run midway through the final quarter ended up being enough for the Rebels to prevent a comeback.

Wilkins, in his final game, became the first 1,000-yard rusher since Dexter McCluster did it in 2010. He had 110 yards on 14 carries and a pair of scores. Brown broke Laquon Treadwell's single-season record for receiving yards, finishing with 1,252 yards on the year. He had six catches for 166 yards and one touchdown.

SEC HISTORY

The Southeastern Conference begins its 87th season of play in 2018. The league began play in 1933 with 13 schools - Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt.

Alabama won the league's first conference title in 1933 by virtue of its 5-0-1 conference record.

Sewanee left the conference following the 1940 season while Georgia Tech left after the 1963 season and Tulane followed after the 1965 campaign. Arkansas and South Carolina entered the SEC prior to the 1992 season and Missouri and Texas A&M joined in 2012.

The SEC was the first conference to split into two divisions and have its regular season culminate in a conference championship game. The first SEC Championship Game was held on Dec. 5, 1992 at Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala.

The SEC sponsors championships in 21 sports - 12 women's sports and nine men's sports. They include baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, equestrian, football, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field and volleyball.

The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

2017 SEC NOTES

- The SEC became the first conference to advance two teams to the College Football Playoff last season, as both Georgia and Alabama earned Playoff spots.
- With Georgia and Alabama both earning victories in the CFP Semifinals, the national championship game featured two SEC teams for the second time in the last seven seasons.
- In the stands, the SEC remained the national leader in attendance, with one million overall and 10,000 per game more than next closest conference.
- Since Florida in January 2009, five different teams from the SEC have played for the national championship. Four of those five have multiple appearances and at least one victory since 2007.
- For the 11th time in the last 12 seasons, a team from the SEC has advanced to the national championship game. The SEC has won nine of those 11 contests, with the two losses coming in the game's final seconds.
- The All-SEC College Football Playoff Final between Alabama and Georgia was the second most-watched event in the history of cable television with 28.4 million viewers. It was also the second most-watched national championship game since the event went to cable for the 2010 season.
- The SEC is 76-45 (.628) in bowl games since 2006, the only FBS league with a .600 or better winning percentage and 23 wins more than the next closest conference.
- The SEC has now won 27 games in the last four postseasons, a national record, and has sent no less than eight teams to postseason bowls in each of the last 11 seasons.
- Teams from the SEC have posted 71 wins in the last 10 seasons against non-conference Top 25 teams (at time game was played), an average of over seven wins per season.
- In the four seasons of the College Football Playoff era, only four programs nationally have been ranked No. 1 in the weekly CFP Top-25 Poll) which begins in late October each year) — three of those four programs are from the SEC.

HISTORY OF OLE MISS FOOTBALL

The University of Mississippi boasts a long and colorful football history, which includes the formation of the first football team in the state, as well as one of the most successful programs in the history of collegiate football.

In its 123-season history, the Ole Miss football program has claimed three national championships (1959, 1960 and 1962), six Southeastern Conference titles (1947, 1954, 1955, 1960, 1962, and 1963), and one SEC Western Division title (2003). In addition, Ole Miss has produced 58 first team All-America selections and 175 first team All-SEC selections, appeared in 37 bowl games with 24 wins, and sent more than 300 players into the professional ranks.

REBEL FOOTBALL BEGINNINGS

The beginnings of the program can be traced all the way back to 1890 when Dr. A.L. Bondurant, who would later serve as Dean of the Graduate School, urged Ole Miss students to help in the formation of an Athletic Association in the interests of football, baseball and tennis. Such a group became a reality a short while later, and in 1893, a football team was organized, with Bondurant serving as the manager-coach.

That first squad set a precedent that was to become an Ole Miss tradition, winning four of five games during that maiden season, including a 56-0 victory over Southwest Baptist University of Jackson, Tenn., in the inaugural game on Nov. 11, 1893.

Early financial matters were the responsibility of the manager. Support came largely from the Athletic Association, which was made up of a combination of students and faculty members willing to back the athletes by payment of a small fee.

Although it has never been documented, it is thought that C.D. Clark of Tufts was the first paid football coach at Ole Miss. His name appears as manager of the team, as shown in the Ole Miss Magazine, dated November 1894.

THE PRE-WWII YEARS

Prior to 1925, a total of 22 coaches took their turn as head coach at Ole Miss with only seven heading up the program for more than one season. Those early years were characterized by periods of both prosperity and difficulty: 1883-95, 12-3; 1896-1908, 24-36-1; 1909-14, 33-17-4; and 1915-24, 30-48.

Since the formation of the Athletics Committee in 1925, the Rebels have had just 16 head coaches, with three of those also handling the dual responsibility of athletic director. The establishment of the committee on a faculty-alumni basis (a student representative has since been added) seemed to re-establish alumni support for the football program and a bright future lay ahead.

Homer Hazel of Rutgers served as the head coach from 1925-29, winning 21 games, losing 22 and tying three before being succeeded by Ed Walker, a Stanford graduate, in 1930. While Walker's record was a modest 38-38-8 over his eight-year stay, he firmly established the direction of the football program. He took Ole Miss to its first bowl game in 1935, with the Rebels falling to Catholic University, 20-19 in the Orange Bowl. He also coached the Rebels' first All-America first-teamer, Bruiser Kinard, in 1936. Kinard, who also earned All-America first-team honors in 1937, would be the first of 58 Rebels to earn the prestigious national accolade.

Under Walker's tenure, Ole Miss took another step to help cement a solid future for Rebel football and other athletic teams when they became a charter member of the SEC in 1933. The Rebels have competed in the league ever since. Prior to joining the SEC, Ole Miss had competed in the Southern Conference from 1922-32.

Harry Mehre, from Notre Dame, became the head coach in 1938 and put together a pre-war record of 39-26-1, which included several notable victories. Mehre led Ole Miss to its first ever victory over Vanderbilt in 1939, its first win in 11 years over LSU in 1938, and its first win over Tulane in 25 seasons in 1941.

The post-war period would prove to be the Rebels' most glorious era as C.M. "Tad" Smith, a member of the Ole Miss athletic family since 1929, succeeded Mehre as director of athletics. Smith would serve as athletic director for 25 years before retiring on Feb. 1, 1971.

Harold (Red) Drew of Bates was brought in as head coach in 1946 and Ole Miss football stood on the verge of becoming one of the most powerful and respected programs in the country. A long-time assistant coach at Alabama, Drew remained at Ole Miss just one season before returning to Tuscaloosa as head coach, but his brief stay would prove to change the course of Rebel football.

VAUGHT PLACES OLE MISS ON NATIONAL FOOTBALL MAP

John Vaught, a line coach under Drew and a former All-American at TCU, remained in Oxford as head coach in 1947 and led the Ole Miss program to national prominence over the next 24 years.

In his first season at the helm in 1947, the Rebels posted a 9-2 record and won the first of six SEC crowns (1947, 1954, 1955, 1960, 1962, 1963). That 1947 season also saw Ole Miss great Charlie Conerly become the first Rebel player to be a contender for the Heisman Trophy, placing fourth in the voting for the prestigious honor. Vaught's first year proved to be a sign of good things to come for Ole Miss. During his 24-year tenure, the Rebels would have only one losing campaign.

Vaught's squads, however, didn't stop at just winning league titles. The Rebels also claimed three national championships in 1959, 1960 and 1962. Ole Miss won the 1959 Dunkel System national crown, the 1960 Football Writers Association of America, Dunkel System, Williamson System national championships, and the 1962 Litkenhous Ratings national title. Vaught's 1959 squad, which was honored as the "SEC Team of the Decade," was ranked the third best collegiate football team from 1956 to 1995, according to the Jeff Sagarin Ratings released in January of 1996.

The Rebels were also among the winningest programs in the country under Vaught during the 1950s and 1960s. From 1950-59, Ole Miss posted an 80-21-5 record (.778 winning percentage). The 80 wins and 77.8 winning percentage were second to only Oklahoma during that decade. In the 1960s, Vaught guided the Rebels to a 72-20-6 record and a 76.5 winning percentage, which was the fourth best during that decade.

Under Vaught's guidance, Ole Miss made Hemingway Stadium (later named Vaught-Hemingway Stadium) one of the toughest places in the nation for opposing teams to play. In his 24 seasons at the helm, Vaught's teams compiled an impressive 57-6-2 record in Oxford for an astounding 89.2 winning percentage. From 1952-1964, the Rebels put together an incredible 34-game homefield unbeaten streak (33-0-1), including 21-straight victories from 1952-59.

In the 1950s and 1960s under Vaught, Ole Miss was a fixture in the national polls. The Rebels were ranked atop the Associated Press poll for three weeks during the 1960 season and one week during the 1961 campaign. In 1964, Ole Miss was ranked preseason No. 1 in the Associated Press poll.

Vaught also made going to postseason play the norm rather than the exception for the Rebel football program. Ole Miss played in 15 consecutive bowl games from 1957-71 which, at that time, was a national record. In all, Vaught led Ole Miss to 18 bowl game appearances, posting a 10-8 record in those contests. For his efforts, Vaught was named SEC Coach of the Year six times (1947, 1948, 1954, 1955, 1960, 1962).

During his time at the helm, Vaught coached some of the best players ever to wear the Red & Blue. In 24 seasons, Vaught produced 26 All-America first-teamers. He also coached four players who finished in the top five in the Heisman Trophy voting. Along with Conerly in 1947, Charlie Flowers (5th in 1959), Jake Gibbs (3rd in 1960) and Archie Manning (4th in 1969, 3rd in 1970) were in the running for college football's top honor.

Failing health forced Vaught to resign his position in 1970 and the reins of the Ole Miss football program were turned over to Billy Kinard.

THE POST-VAUGHT YEARS

Kinard became the first Ole Miss alumnus to lead the football program, while Frank "Bruiser" Kinard, an offensive line coach under Vaught since 1948, was named to replace Smith as athletic director that same year.

The Rebels went 16-9 under Billy Kinard, including a 10-2 record and a 41-18 Peach Bowl victory over Georgia Tech in his first year in 1971. Kinard's 10 victories in '71 are tied for fourth most by a first-year head coach in NCAA Division I history.

Kinard coached the Rebels through the 1972 campaign and the third contest of the 1973 season before startling developments following the Sept. 22, 1973, game with Memphis State saw both Kinards replaced by Vaught. Vaught returned to the field to guide the Rebels through the remainder of the 1973 season while also taking on the responsibility of athletic director.

Following the 1973 football campaign, Vaught resigned once again as head coach, but remained on as athletic director. His final record with the Rebels was an amazing 190-61-12. The 190 victories still rank Vaught among the top 25 winningest coaches in NCAA Division I history, and he is the seventh-winningest coach in SEC history behind Bear Bryant's (Alabama) 323 wins, Lou Holtz's (South Carolina) 249 wins, Steve Spurrier's (Florida/South Carolina) 228 wins, Nick Saban's (LSU/Alabama) 218 wins, Vince Dooley's (Georgia) 201 victories and Dan McGugin's (Vanderbilt) 197 victories. In 1979, Vaught was inducted in the National College Football Hall of Fame.

Ken Cooper, an assistant under Kinard since 1971, was named head coach on Jan. 17, 1974, and took Ole Miss through the 1977 season. Cooper compiled a 21-23 record during his four years at the helm, and his tenure is probably best remembered for one hot and humid day in September 1977. In one of the most memorable games in Rebel football history, Ole Miss upset Notre Dame, 20-13 in Mississippi Memorial Stadium on Sept. 17, 1977, in Jackson. That loss was the Irish's lone setback of the 1977 campaign, as Notre Dame finished the season with an 11-1 record and claimed the national title.

Following the 1977 season, Steve Sloan was hired as the new Rebel boss and began his five-year stint in 1978. Sloan posted a 20-34 record from 1978-82.

BREWER RETURNS

After stepping outside the Ole Miss family football tree the previous nine seasons, Ole Miss looked for a familiar face to lead the football program, and the Rebels found that person when Billy Brewer returned to Oxford to take over as head coach in December of 1982.

In his first season in 1983, Brewer put the Ole Miss program on the road back to national prominence. Brewer guided the Rebels to their first winning regular season since 1977 with a 7-4 mark. The Rebels received their first bowl game invitation since 1971 and met Air Force in the Independence Bowl. Ole Miss dropped a 9-3 decision to the Falcons and finished with a 7-5 record.

Brewer followed his first season with 10 more at the helm of the Rebel program. During his tenure, he led the Rebels to five more winning seasons and four additional bowls, including Ole Miss' 1990 New Year's Day Gator Bowl appearance. The Jan. 1 bowl game was the program's first since 1969. Brewer was named SEC Coach of the Year in 1986 (8-3-1 record) and 1990 (9-3 record), and the 1986 season saw the Rebels return to the national rankings for the first time in over a decade. In his 11 seasons, Brewer also led Ole Miss to eight Egg Bowl victories over rival, Mississippi State.

Brewer coached 11 years (1983-93) and compiled a 67-56-3 record, making him the second winningest Ole Miss football coach behind Vaught. Brewer was dismissed just prior to the 1994 season, and Joe Lee Dunn took over as interim coach, directing the Rebels to a 4-7 record under difficult circumstances.

REBELS ON THE RISE

In the mid-1990s Ole Miss football was somewhat down, but not out, and it needed a boost of energy to revitalize the program. On Dec. 2, 1994, Tommy Tuberville was selected as the coach in charge of getting the Rebels on the right track.

After serving as an assistant coach on the collegiate level for nine seasons (eight at Miami and one at Texas A&M), Tuberville began creating excitement in his first season in 1995, finishing the campaign with a 6-5 record and a Egg Bowl victory over Mississippi State.

That excitement grew to a fever pitch in 1997, when Ole Miss recorded its best season since 1992 with an 8-4 record, a thrilling 15-14 Egg Bowl victory and a Motor City Bowl win over Marshall. The bowl appearance was the program's first since 1992, and the Rebels earned a final national ranking of No. 22 in both polls.

The revitalized Ole Miss program continued its winning ways in 1998, despite a coaching change following the regular season. David Cutcliffe took over as head coach on Dec. 2, 1998. Cutcliffe, who came to Ole Miss from his offensive coordinator post at Tennessee, took over the reins just 29 days before the Rebels' Sanford Independence Bowl date versus Texas Tech. Despite the short preparation time for the game, Cutcliffe led the Rebels to a 35-18 victory over the Red Raiders, quite arguably the biggest upset of the 1998 bowl season.

OFFENSIVE FIREWORKS OVER OXFORD

Cutcliffe, who is recognized as one of the top offensive minds in collegiate football, brought a high-powered offensive style that had Rebel fans waiting with anticipation for each season to start.

In his six seasons, the Rebels averaged more than 350 points per year, including shattering the then-record for points scored in a season during the 2003 campaign with 442. The previous mark was 391 points by the 2001 squad. During Cutcliffe's tenure, the Rebels set numerous game, season and career records.

Cutcliffe's football philosophy also translated into wins for the Rebel program. Under Cutcliffe, Ole Miss posted 44 overall victories, including four wins in the postseason.

In the time from 1997-2003, the Rebels played in six bowl games, which tied them with Arkansas for the most bowl appearances among SEC Western Division schools during that span. The only SEC teams that made bowl appearances all seven years were Florida, Georgia and Tennessee, all Eastern Division squads.

In 2003, Cutcliffe guided the Rebels, who many picked to finish fifth in the SEC's Western Division, to a 10-3 overall mark and a share of the SEC West title with eventual BCS National Champion LSU. The title was the Rebels' first league football title of any sort since winning the conference crown in 1963. Following their 31-28 victory over Oklahoma State in the SBC Cotton Bowl Classic, the Rebels ended the 2003 campaign with a No. 13 national ranking. It was Ole Miss' first New Year's bowl since the 1991 Gator Bowl against Michigan.

Cutcliffe preceded his 2003 campaign with four winning seasons in 1999 (8-4), 2000 (7-5), 2001 (7-4) and 2002 (7-6), becoming the first Rebel mentor since Harry Mehre (1938-41) to post winning marks in his first five years. Cutcliffe also directed Ole Miss to four bowl appearances in his first five seasons, becoming the first of two head coaches in Ole Miss history to do so.

coaches in Ed Orgeron. Orgeron took control of the Rebel program after serving the previous seven seasons as defensive line coach at the University of Southern California, where he played a key role in Pete Carroll's Trojans winning back-to-back national championships in 2003 and 2004. Orgeron also served as USC's recruiting coordinator from 2001-2004 and was named the 2004 National Recruiter of the Year by The Sporting News and Rivals.com.

Orgeron's talent as a recruiter created a buzz among Rebel fans and drew national attention when Ole Miss' 2006 signing class finished as high as ninth in the rankings. All three of his recruiting classes were listed among the best in college football.

NUTT LEADS REBELS TO CONSECUTIVE COTTON BOWLS

The Ole Miss football program sought a proven winner when Houston Nutt was introduced as the Rebels' 36th head coach on Nov. 28, 2007.

After guiding Arkansas to three SEC Western Division titles and eight bowl berths in his decade in Fayetteville, Nutt immediately reversed the Rebels' fortunes and guided Ole Miss to success that had not been experienced in Oxford in a half century.

Nutt's first two years at the helm produced consecutive nine-win seasons for the first time since 1961-62 and back-to-back January bowl victories for the first time since 1960-61.

In his first season in Oxford, Nutt led the Rebels to a 9-4 record (5-3 in the SEC), second in the West, a 47-34 win over Texas Tech in the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic and a No. 14 final national ranking.

Rising as high as No. 4 in the national rankings in 2009, Nutt's Rebels knocked off No. 8 LSU, Tennessee and Arkansas en route to a second straight Cotton Bowl berth, in which Ole Miss prevailed over No. 18 Oklahoma State 21-7. The Rebels finished 20th in the AP poll.

MISSISSIPPI NATIVE TABBED TO RETURN TITLES

A Mississippi native, Hugh Freeze was introduced as the Rebels' 37th head coach on December 5, 2011.

He was the first coach in school history to guide the Rebels to a bowl game in each of his first four seasons.

Among the accomplishments in Freeze's five-year tenure:

- 39-25 record
- Three bowl wins, including 2016 Sugar Bowl
- Back-to-back New Year's Six bowl appearances
- 45 weeks ranked in the nation's top 25
- Four top-15 ranked recruiting classes
- Four straight Vaught-Hemingway Stadium season ticket sellouts and season attendance records
- 121 graduated players
- Highest cumulative team grade point average in recorded history in 2016 spring semester
- Highest APR score in team history (991) in 2015-16 that ranked second in the SEC

The Rebels earned their 10th win of the 2015 season by crushing Oklahoma State in the Allstate Sugar Bowl, 48-20. The Sugar Bowl appearance was the Rebels' first since the 1969 season, and Freeze guided the team to its first 10-win campaign since 2003.

At No. 9 in the final coaches poll and No. 10 in the final Associated Press poll, Ole Miss finished with its highest national ranking since 1969.

Freeze led the Rebels to back-to-back seasons with at least nine victories for the first time since 1961-62.

* First Overall Pick

Ole Miss returned to the Sugar Bowl for the first time since 1970 and was crowned 2016 champion after a 48-20 victory over Oklahoma State. The Rebels made back-to-back New Year's Six bowl appearances in the first two years of the College Football Playoff system.

Ole Miss finished the regular season 9-3 overall and 6-2 in conference play to place second in the SEC West. The six SEC wins were the most by a Rebel football team since 2003.

A whopping 64 Ole Miss team and individual records were broken or tied in 2015, including most total yards (6,731), points (531), touchdowns (68) and passing yards (4,351) in a season.

REBELS LOOK TO ONE OF THEIR OWN

Following the resignation of Hugh Freeze on July 20, 2017, Ole Miss handed the reins of the program to Matt Luke, a man who has been a Rebel his entire life. After serving as co-offensive coordinator/offensive line coach for the past five seasons, Luke was named interim head coach by Vice Chancellor of Athletics Ross Bjork.

A native of Gulfport, Mississippi, Luke lettered four seasons (1995-98) as a center at Ole Miss. His father, Tommy, was a defensive back at Ole Miss in the 1960s while his brother, Tom, quarterbacked the Rebels from

As interim head coach, Luke guided the Rebels to a 6-6 record which culminated with a 31-28 upset victory over No. 14 Mississippi State in the season-ending Egg Bowl in Starkville.

Luke's 2017 Rebels saw breakout performances from all three phases of the game. A.J. Brown, the SEC leader in multiple receiving categories, set single-season marks in both receiving yards and receiving touchdowns, while senior running back Jordan Wilkins became just the fifth Rebel to surpass the 1,000-yard mark in a single season. Quarterbacks Shea Patterson and Jordan Ta'amu both threw for 350 or more yards in three games during the 2017 season, becoming just the fourth FBS team in the last 20 seasons to accomplish that feat.

Ole Miss made it official on Nov. 27, 2017, removing the interim tag and introducing Luke as the 38th head coach in program history.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The 1959 Ole Miss team, which went 10-1, gave up only 21 points all season, and defeated LSU in the Sugar Bowl, was rated the third best squad since 1956 by Sagarin.

1959 OLE MISS TEAM RANKED THIRD IN SAGARIN RATINGS

Jeff Sagarin computed his list of the all-time highest-rated college football teams from 1956 to 1995. Sagarin has a weekly college football poll during each season which rates teams according to wins and losses and strength of schedule. His all-time team ratings and strength of schedule are based on Division I games only. This list was published in USA Today in January of 1996.

NOTE: Blocked punts and loss of yardage credited to team rather than individual after the 1954 season. Averages for Hapes (3 blocked), Conerly (4), Wilson (2), Day (1), Hovious (5), and Dillard (1) adjusted to conform. Prior to 1965, punters not given credit for 20 yards (touchback) assessed when punt carried over goal line.

THE PERFECT TEAM

1962 ... The year stands as a benchmark of change in the life of Ole Miss.

Legendary Rebel Head Coach John Vaught and his football team not only put together the only perfect season in the history of Ole Miss football, but they also captured the Billingsley, Litkenhous and Sagarin ratings national titles and their fifth SEC championship. The season's highlight came when the Rebels were invited to the prestigious Sugar Bowl, where they defeated the Arkansas Razorbacks 17-13. Vaught garnered SEC Coach of the Year honors.

Those associated with the 1962 team donated the funds for the "Walk of Champions" arch, located at the entrance to the Grove near the Student Union plaza. The site is the route for the football team's traditional "walk through The Grove" on game days. It was dedicated in the fall of 1998.

The purpose of the arch is to remind all athletes that they play for national championships, SEC championships and Ole Miss pride. The names of the coaches, players, trainers and managers who won the hearts of Rebel fans with their spirit and tenacity are listed on a plaque.

"Joe Wilkins, Larry 'Leo' Johnson and I first discussed the idea of an arch in the fall of 1997 while we were visiting in the Grove, and we agreed to pursue it," said Samuel W. Owen of Nashville, a member of the 1962 team. "We want the arch to stand as a symbol of what can be accomplished with teamwork, loyalty and trust."

THE LONGEST GAME

The November 3, 2001 contest between Ole Miss and Arkansas in Oxford kicked off at 6:06 p.m. (CT), and four hours and 14 minutes later, coaches, players, fans, media members and an ESPN2 national audience saw a game that will go down in the college football record books.

The Rebels and Razorbacks stood toe-to-toe in an epic, seven over-time battle, that saw the Hogs come out on top 58-56. It is tied for the longest OT game in NCAA history, and it remains the highest scoring game (both teams combined) on the Ole Miss all-time

Jason Armstead (9) is congratulated by Doug Zeigler (89), following one of Armstead's three TDs versus the Razorbacks.

FIELD GOALS

Prior to 1959, modern-era college field goals were measured from the line of scrimmage to the goalposts. Since 1959, they have been measured from point of origin to the goalposts. To adjust, all goals kicked prior to 1959 were lengthened by seven yards. This rule was a suggested optional in 1958.

The following is the background as to how the Ole Miss-Mississippi State football game came to be known as the "Battle of the Golden Egg" or even "The Egg Bowl." Many of the excerpts are reprinted from the book "Mississippi Mayhem," written by William Banner, III.

Up until the 1926 meeting in Starkville, Ole Miss had only claimed five victories in the previous 23 football contests between the Rebels and Bulldogs. Thus, when Ole Miss claimed a 7-6 victory over then Mississippi A&M College, a celebration was due at Scott Field after that '26 contest.

Oddly, huge roars went up from both sides at the final whistle, not just from the Ole Miss stands. While the A&M players walked slowly off the field with heads bowed, wrote one newsmen, the Maroon student section stood and sang the alma mater.

But on the east side, pandemonium. Well wishers rushed "like madmen onto the field," Webb Burke said in his 1957 interview. Some fans made a dash for the goal posts.irate Aggie supporters took after the ambitious Ole Miss group with cane bottom chairs, and fights broke out. The mayhem continued until most of the chairs were splintered.

As explained by the Reveille, A&M yearbook, "A few chairs had to be sacrificed over the heads of these to persuade them that was entirely the wrong attitude."

As described in a story for the Commercial Appeal by Ben Hilbun, who one day would become president of the Starkville school, "The phantom of victory, that for thirteen years eluded Ole Miss, returned to the bearded Berserkers ... and they won over A&M, their traditional rivals, 7 to 6." Ole Miss students fought for the goal posts, he continued, "but were restrained."

Ole Miss fans couldn't believe their victory. Through all their 13 defeats since 1910 (they did not play in 1912, 1913 and 1914) they had only scored in three games, counted just 33 points to A&M's 327, an average of 25-3.

Injuries to players were expected. But not to spectators. Ole Miss and A&M students, shocked by the battle that erupted after the game, vowed that it must not happen again. The result was the Golden Egg, a trophy to cool the heat of battle, instituted the following season by joint agreement of the two student bodies.

The Golden Egg was first proposed by members of Iota Sigma, an Ole Miss honorary activities fraternity. As thoughts of last year's game, Iota Sigma proposed that a trophy be awarded in a dignified ceremony designed to calm excited fans. One proposal that was rejected was to send the goal posts to the winning side each year.

A&M approved the suggestion of an award, and Ole Miss, two weeks before the game, officially added its approval. The trophy, to be called "The Golden Egg", would be a regulation-size gold-plated football mounted on a pedestal. Costs of approximately $250 would be shared by both schools. Ole Miss students held a tag day to raise funds.

The joint resolution of the two student bodies

THE BATTLE FOR THE GOLDEN EGG

declared they agreed on the trophy "in order to effect a better understanding in athletic relations, to foster clean sportsmanship, and to promote a lasting tradition..."

A brand-new series between the University of Mississippi and Mississippi A&M College began on Thanksgiving Day, 1927; the first Battle of the Golden Egg.

Of course, it was the Ole Miss-A&M slugfest, played before a crowd of 14,000 for the first possession of the gold football which was to become symbolic of supremacy in this annual feud-battle.

It was actually the 25th meeting of the two combatants. And for the second time in four years it was Push versus Pass, a heavier line versus a lighter passing attack. And once again the Pushers prevailed, except this time the pushing team was Ole Miss. The score was 20-12.

Unlike the previous year's brawl ending, the 1927 game closed with a highly dignified ceremony, the first presentation of the Golden Egg. As previously agreed in the inception of the egg, the schools first sang their alma maters, Ole Miss, as winner, sang first. The captains of the two teams, presidents of the two student bodies and the heads of the two schools met in the center of the field. B.M. Walker, president of A&M, presented the trophy to Alfred Hume, chancellor of the University, who turned it over to Ole Miss captain Applewhite.

The Egg is one of the most treasured possessions of either school. It is engraved with the score of each year's game and stands in a place of honor. When a tie occurred, the previous year's winner kept it for the first half of the year, then it went to the other school.

The Ole Miss-Mississippi State series took on a new twist in 1978, a season which saw the Rebels 4-6 and the Bulldogs 6-4 heading into the season finale. As Steve Doyle of the Jackson, Miss., Clarion-Ledger reported in the Nov. 20 edition, "In a year in which neither team will be remembered, the Battle of the Golden Egg is a bowl game. Intense, heated, unbelievable in its lore, this one is for supremacy of the season. Bragging rights, recruiting edges and sheer pride are the guts of it. Every cliché you've ever heard about a single game applies to it."

In 1978, with both teams apparently out of the bowl picture, Executive Sports Editor Tom Patterson decided to do something extra to spice up coverage of the annual grudge match, instructing his staff to follow the "Egg Bowl" theme throughout the week. The result was an award winning special section on Sunday, which recounted in great detail the Rebels' stunning 27-7 victory over the highly-favored Bulldogs. In that game, John Fourcade made his first start at quarterback to become the first Ole Miss freshman since 1945 to receive the starting nod at the signal-caller slot. The special section was a big success and the die was cast. Patterson's idea, for the most part, has been continued by the paper since 1978. Although it's officially the "Battle of the Golden Egg," most members of the media now refer to the annual bloodletting simply as the "Egg Bowl."

In one of the series' most memorable battles, Ole Miss claimed a pulsating 24-23 victory over Mississippi State in Jackson, but it took some heroics on the part of the Rebels and a 40 miles-per-hour crosswind to decide the outcome. Down 17-0, Ole Miss got on the board when Timmy Moffett returned a punt 66 yards for a touchdown with 1:21 remaining in the first half. However, the Bulldogs added to their lead after the break, and the Rebels found themselves trailing 23-7 to start the fourth quarter. With the wind now at its back, Ole Miss utilized two fumble recoveries and an interception to take a late 24-23 advantage. But State made one last try and moved the ball to the Rebel 10 yardline with 24 seconds left. On fourth down, MSU kicker Artie Cosby attempted a 27-yard field goal, but as true as it was between the uprights, the ball never got there as the wind just slapped it down to give Ole Miss its first on-the-field winning season in eight years at 6-5 and a berth in the Independence Bowl.

Nov. 28, 2015: For the first time in 12 years, Ole Miss left Starkville with a victory, beating No. 21 Mississippi State 38-27 to retain the Golden Egg Trophy. It marked consecutive Egg Bowl victories for the first time since winning three straight from 2002-04.

1991-92

"The Battle of the Golden Egg" returned to campus in 1991 as Mississippi State hosted Ole Miss in Starkville. It marked the first on-campus meeting between the two teams since 1972. Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in Oxford was the site of the 1992 game, which Ole Miss won, 17-10 thanks to a thrilling goal-line stand. The series continues to rotate between campus sites.

1995

Ole Miss rode a school-record rushing performance and a stingy second-half deficit to a 13-10 victory over Mississippi State to regain the Egg Bowl Trophy. The win gave the Rebels a winning season and head coach Tommy Tuberville a triumph over the school's biggest rival in his first Egg Bowl game. Dou Innocent rushed for a record 242 yards on 39 carries to help the Rebels overcome an early 10-0 deficit. The Bulldogs never entered Ole Miss territory in the second half.

1997

The 1997 contest provided another close contest and perhaps the most exciting finish ever in the series. Stewart Patridge hit Andre Rone for a 10-yard TD pass with 25 seconds left and then found Cory Peterson over the middle on the two-point conversion attempt to give the Rebels a 15-14 win over Mississippi State. The win propelled the Rebels to their first bowl game since the 1992 Liberty Bowl when they were rewarded with an invite to the inaugural Ford Motor City Bowl in Pontiac, Mich.

2000

Running back Deuce McAllister rushed for three touchdowns and passed for another to lead Ole Miss to a 45-30 victory on Thanksgiving Night. With it being Senior Night in Oxford, McAllister hooked up with Rebel Romaro Miller on a 20-yard halfback option TD toss. McAllister finished with 121 yards rushing on 24 carries, while Miller threw for 127 yards and ran for 60. The win returned the Golden Egg to Oxford after a two-year absence.

2003

Eli Manning passed for 260 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Rebels to a 31-0 shutout win in his final regular-season collegiate game. The Ole Miss defense held the Bulldogs to only 91 yards passing and picked off one Mississippi State pass in Jackie Sherrill's final game as head coach on a rainy evening in Starkville. The win propelled the Rebels to the Cotton Bowl and their first 10 win season since 1971. The game was also the final of six straight Egg Bowls (1998-2003) played on Thanksgiving and televised nationally by ESPN.

2008

Jevan Snead threw for 213 yards and four touchdowns and Greg Hardy had three of Ole Miss' school-record 11 sacks, as the Rebels beat Mississippi State 45-0 in the most lopsided Egg Bowl in 37 years. The Rebels finished with a school-record minus-64 rushing yards allowed and 14 tackles for loss. Defensive end Greg Hardy and tackle Peria Jerry led the charge. Jerry had four tackles for loss, including two sacks.

2012

Paced by a three-touchdown performance from wide receiver Donte Moncrief, Ole Miss defeated No. 24 Mississippi State, 41-24. Moncrief had seven catches for a career-high 173 yards, the fourth-most in a single game in Ole Miss history. Quarterback Bo Wallace threw five touchdowns on the night. The Egg Bowl win propelled Ole Miss to its first bowl berth in three years and provided momentum that later saw the Rebels earn a BBVA Compass Bowl victory over Pitt in January and land the best signing class in school history the next month.

2014

Bo Wallace passed for nearly 296 yards, Evan Ingram had a career-high 176 receiving yards and Jaylen Walton rushed for a career-high 148 yards to lead the No. 18 Rebels to a 31-17 win over No. 4 Mississippi State. Of his 14 carries, none were bigger than a highlight-reel 91-yard touchdown run that proved to be the game-winning score for the Rebels. The Egg Bowl win capped a 9-3 regular season for the Rebels and earned them a berth in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

2015

For the first time in 12 years, Ole Miss left Starkville with a victory. The Rebels scored 21 first-quarter points on their way to a 38-27 win, their second-straight Egg Bowl and first in Starkville since the 2003 season. Thanks to a potent offense, the Rebels set the single-season total offense record on the night and scored the most points in Starkville since the 1971 season. Quarterback Chad Kelly broke the school record for passing yards in a season with 236 yards and two touchdowns.

Ole Miss entered Starkville as the underdog against 14th-ranked Mississippi State, but the Rebels jumped out to a 24-6 lead and held off a late Bulldog rally to secure the Golden Egg on Thanksgiving Day. Ole Miss followed an explosive day by Starkville native receiver A.J. Brown, who racked up 167 receiving yards, including a 77-yard scoring reception. Oxonian receiver D.K. Metcalf added 67 yards and a touchdown, while running back Jordan Wilkins had a 110-yard day with two touchdowns on the ground. Meanwhile, the Rebel defense forced five turnovers as Ole Miss won the Egg Bowl for the fourth time in six years.

This year's "Battle for the Golden Egg" will take place on Thanksgiving, Nov. 22, at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in Oxford. The matchup will be the 115th meeting between the two schools and the 91st Egg Bowl.

OLE MISS BOWL HISTORY

Ole Miss has a proud tradition of bowling that dates back to 1935, including what once was a national record of consecutive bowl appearances — from 1957 to 1972. It is a high standard of excellence which present-day Ole Miss football teams continue to strive for.

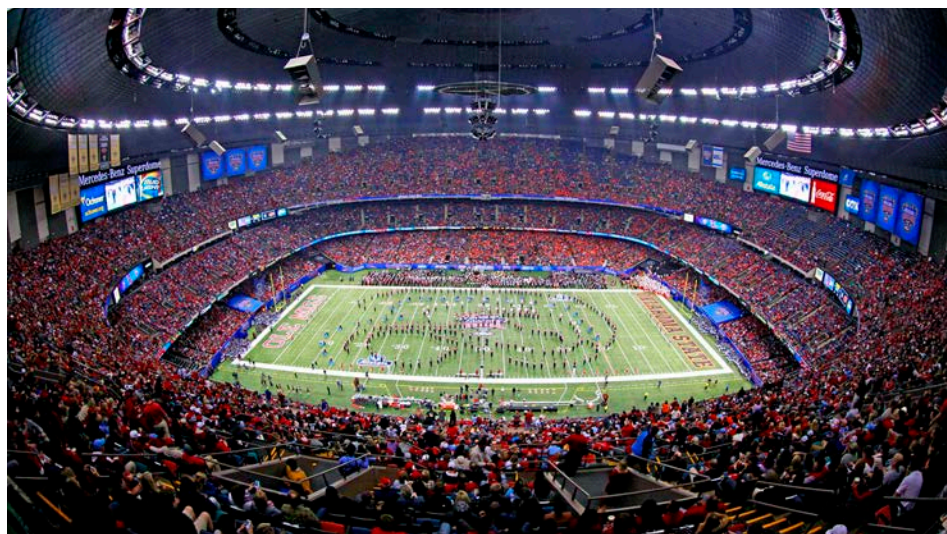

Ed Walker coached the first Ole Miss bowl team, the high-scoring outfit of 1935 which outplayed, but was nipped by Catholic University, 20-19, in the 1936 Orange Bowl.

The next bowl for the Rebels was for the 1947 squad, a 12-year wait. But from there, with Coach John Howard Vaught at the Ole Miss helm, bowls came and kept coming after the Rebels following each season. Vaught took the Rebs to the ill-fated Delta Bowl in 1948, as the 1947 SEC Champions beat Texas Christian 13-9. Vaught had to wait until 1952 to go bowling again, but from that point forward, the Rebel mentor made post-season games a habit that was hard to break.

All-in-all, the Rebels participated in six Sugar Bowls, two Gators, one Cotton, two Bluebonnets, two Liberties, one Sun and one Peach during that run of 15 straight. Vaught's personal bowl record was 10-8, while Billy Kinard's 1971 Rebels, with a 9-2 record, earned a bid to play Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl, which produced a 41-18 triumph.

Ole Miss dropped out of the bowl picture after that 1971 Peach Bowl appearance with Georgia Tech. When Billy Brewer became head coach prior to the 1983 season, the Rebels had not been bowling for 12 years. During Brewer's 11 years as head coach, Ole Miss went to five bowls, twice to the Independence Bowl, twice to the Liberty, and once to the Gator. Brewer was 3-2 as a coach in bowl games.

The Rebels returned to postseason action in 1997 for the first time since the 1992 Liberty Bowl, and for the first time under Tommy Tuberville, as Ole Miss was invited to the inaugural Ford Motor City Bowl in Pontiac, Mich., where they defeated Marshall 34-31.

The Rebels then followed with what was probably the biggest upset of the 1998 bowl season, as Ole Miss defeated heavily favored Texas Tech, 35-18, in the Sanford Independence Bowl in head coach David Cutcliffe's debut. Ole Miss went 4-1 in the five bowl games it played in under Cutcliffe as head coach, including three victories in the Independence Bowl, and one victory in the Cotton Bowl (2004).

Ole Miss returned to the Cotton Bowl in 2009 and 2010 under Houston Nutt, who led the Rebels to 47-34 and 21-7 victories, respectively.

Under first-year head coach Hugh Freeze, Ole Miss defeated Pittsburgh 38-17 in the BBVA Compass Bowl on Jan. 5, 2013. The Rebels set a number of BBVA Compass Bowl records, including most points scored by a team (38). Ole Miss followed that with a 25-17 win over Georgia Tech in the Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tennessee, on Dec. 30, 2013.

The Rebels made consecutive New Year's Six bowl appearances beginning with the Peach Bowl in 2014 and followed up the 2015 season with a record-setting 48-20 win over Oklahoma State in the Sugar Bowl on January 1, 2016. As a unit, the Rebels put up 554 yards of total offense, the most of any Ole Miss team in any bowl game, and also broke the previous record for points in a bowl game.

Editor's Note: Most of this section on Ole Miss' Bowl History was compiled and written by the late Billy Gates. Gates served as Sports Information Director at Ole Miss for 35 years until his death on Nov. 5, 1976. While serving as SID at Ole Miss, he helped promote 29 Rebels to All-America status in the sport of football and was a charter member of the CoSIDA Hall of Fame.

1936 ORANGE BOWL

Catholic University 20
Ole Miss 19

Ray Hapes

In its inaugural bowl game, Ole Miss fell 20-19 to an opportunistic Catholic University squad from Washington, D.C., which at the time ranked as an Eastern power.

The Rebels held a 15-7 advantage in first downs and out-gained the Cardinal 265-172. However, Ole Miss was unable to overcome deficits of 13-0 and 19-7.

Catholic took a 7-0 lead after converting one of four Ole Miss picks on the day into a 51-yard scoring drive, capped by Bill Adamaitis' two-yard touchdown run.

The Cardinal increased its lead to 13-0 in the second quarter when Adamaitis connected with Speck Foley on a 48-yard touchdown pass.

Ole Miss would pull to within seven at 13-6 before halftime when Ned Peters ran 67 yards for a score.

The Rebels would hold Catholic without a first down in the second half; however, the Cardinal went up 20-7 by scoring a touchdown off a blocked punt.

Ole Miss would get two fourth-quarter scores for the 20-19 final. Dave Bernard scored on a one-yard run to make it 20-12 after the PAT attempt failed, and Herb Baumstein found Buster Poole for a 24-yard touchdown pass.

Ole Miss 13
TCU 9

Dixie Howell

Ole Miss recorded its first bowl victory with a 13-9 win over TCU in front of 28,120 at Memphis' Crump Stadium in the 1948 Delta Bowl.

Charlie Conerly passed for two fourth-quarter scores to rally the Rebels from a 9-0 deficit in his final game in an Ole Miss uniform.

Conerly's first touchdown pass was a 26-yarder to Joe Johnson to cut the Horned Frog's lead to 9-6.

After a Bobby Wilson interception, Conerly hit Johnson for 52 yards to the TCU 13. Conerly then found Dixie Howell from 13 yards for a touchdown. Bobby Oswalt, who missed on his earlier PAT attempt, was accurate his second time around to make it 13-9.

Red Buchanan then sealed the win with an interception at midfield to snuff out any TCU comeback attempt.

Jimmy Lear

In its first of eight Sugar Bowl appearances, seventh-ranked Ole Miss dropped a 24-7 decision to No. 2 Georgia Tech.

The Rebels, who brought an 8-0-2 mark into the contest, struck early. Wissy Dillard's four-yard touchdown run and Jimmy Lear's PAT gave Ole Miss a 7-0 lead 3:45 into the game.

The Engineers would provide all the scoring the rest of the day. Georgia Tech got a touchdown and a field goal to take a 10-7 lead into intermission and then added a pair of touchdowns in the second half.

Georgia Tech would finish the year 12-0, and through the Sugar Bowl, had not been beaten in 25 starts.

Statistically, the game was even. Georgia Tech held a slight 16-15 advantage in first downs and a 295-287 edge in total offense. However, the Rebels were plagued by six turnovers.

Navy shutdown an explosive Ole Miss offense en route to posting a 21-0 victory over the SEC Champion Rebels in front of 83,000 at the 1955 Sugar Bowl.

Ole Miss entered the game having outscored its opponents 283-47. However, the Midshipmen would outgain the Rebels 442-121, including holding a 295-78 advantage on the ground.

Navy took the opening kickoff and marched 70 yards for a three-yard touchdown run by Joe Gattuso to take a 7-0 lead. The Midshipmen would carry the seven-point lead into halftime.

Navy would also score on its first possession of the second half, taking the kickoff and marching 86 yards. John Weaver's 16-yard touchdown pass from George Welsh capped the 11-play drive and extended the lead to 14-0.

Gattuso would complete the scoring with his second touchdown, a one-yard run in the third quarter.

Eagle Day

Quarterback Eagle Day led Ole Miss to its first major bowl win with a 14-13 victory over TCU in the 1956 Cotton Bowl.

Jim Swink staked the Horned Frogs to a 13-0 lead with touchdown runs of one and 39 yards.

Day got the Rebels going with a four-play, 66-yard scoring drive that resulted in Paige Cothren's three-yard TD run to make it 13-7 at halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter, Day would engineer another 66-yard scoring match. A 13-yard pass from Day to Cothren on fourth down moved the ball to the Horned Frog 32. Two plays later, Day sprinted 25 yards to the five. Billy Lott then broke around right end for a five-yard touchdown and Cothren's PAT gave the Rebels a 14-13 lead with 4:22 remaining.

Eddie Crawford thwarted any comeback attempt by TCU with an interception. Day would then manage to run out the clock to secure the victory for Ole Miss.

1958 GATOR BOWL

Florida 3

Richard Price

Jim Anderson's one-yard touchdown run in the first quarter proved to be enough as Ole Miss knocked off Florida 7-3 on an over-cast day in the 1958 Gator Bowl.

The Rebels took the game's opening kickoff and marched 70 yards for the game's only touchdown.

Florida would take the ensuing kickoff and score on Billy Booker's 27-yard field goal to make it 7-3 with 7:44 left in the first quarter. Neither team would score the rest of the game.

The Gators had two opportunities to take the lead in the fourth quarter.

A surprise quick kick by Florida's Bobby Joe Green traveled 76 yards to just outside the Rebel 10 to start the final period. Milton Crain, looking for someone to block, stumbled over the ball, and Dave Hudson covered for the Gators. Florida would move to the two, but Richard Price stuffed a fourth-and-goal attempt for the Gators.

After a short punt, the Gators took over at the Rebel 26 and advanced to the 15 before Bill Churchwell forced and recovered a fumble.

The two teams would then exchange punts, however, Jimmy Dunn bobbled a Rebel punt at the Florida 48 and Ole Miss recovered. The Rebels then ran out the final 3:10 of the game.

Bobby Franklin

A little over two months after Billy Cannon's famous 89-yard punt return on Halloween night lifted LSU to a 7-3 win over Ole Miss in Baton Rouge, the second-ranked Rebels and third-ranked Tigers were rematched in the 1960 Sugar Bowl.

This time, Ole Miss made sure there would be no heroics from Cannon. The Rebel defense limited the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner to eight yards on six carries. The Tigers managed just 74 yards total on the night and were a -15 in the rushing department.

Ole Miss, led by Bobby Franklin's two touchdown passes, totaled 363 yards of offense and rolled to a 21-0 victory.

Franklin finished 10-of-15 passing for 148 yards and had touchdown passes of 18 yards to Larry Grantham and nine yards to George Blair in the second half. He would garner the game's Outstanding Player honor.

Ole Miss would finish the year 10-1 and was recognized as national champions by the Berryman, Billingsley, Dunkel and Sagarin ratings.

The 1959 squad would also go on to earn "Team of the Decade" honors within the SEC by the Associated Press.

Ole Miss completed its 1960 National Championship season with a 14-6 win over Rice in the 1961 Sugar Bowl. With the win, the Rebels finished the year 10-0-1, with the only blemish coming in the fashion of a 6-6 tie with LSU in October.

Jake Gibbs scored both of Ole Miss' touchdowns with runs of eight and three yards. Gibbs' eight-yard scamper gave the Rebels a 7-0 lead in the first quarter.

The Owls used an 18-play, 77-yard scoring drive to make it 7-6 in the third. Butch Blaine completed the march with a two-yard run around the right end on fourth down. However, the PAT attempt failed, leaving the Rebels clinging to a one-point lead.

Ole Miss iced the game in the fourth quarter behind the running of Jim Anderson. Anderson's running helped set up Gibbs' three-yard score with 5:16 left.

Anderson finished the game with 59 yards rushing on 15 carries.

Following the game, Ole Miss was awarded the national title by the Football Writer's Association, and became the first SEC team to win the Grantland Rice Award.

Playing without All-America fullback Billy Ray Adams, Ole Miss became a 12-7 upset victim to Texas in the 1962 Cotton Bowl.

Adams was injured in a car accident two days after the Rebels' 37-7 win over Mississippi State in November, after returning from Jackson to attend a touchdown club meeting.

Ole Miss came into the contest sporting a 9-1 record and having outscored its opponents 326-40. However, without Adams, the Longhorns made sure the Rebels didn't do damage through the air with All-America quarterback Glynn Griffing.

The Rebels held a 319-183 advantage in total offense, but couldn't overcome six turnovers, including five interceptions.

Griffing was 12-of-29 for 163 yards with three interceptions and a touchdown. Doug Elmore was intercepted twice in eight pass attempts.

Ole Miss' only points of the day came in the third quarter when Reed Davis scored on a 20-yard touchdown pass from Griffing to make it 12-7.

Louis Guy

Ole Miss completed a perfect 10-0 season with a 17-13 victory over Arkansas in the 1963 Sugar Bowl.

Quarterback Glynn Griffing was a near unanimous selection for the game's Most Valuable Player Award. He connected on 14-of-23 passes for 242 yards with one touchdown and one interception to break Davey O'Brien's 24-year-old Sugar Bowl passing yards record.

As effective as Griffing was through the air, it was his one-yard touchdown run in the third quarter that broke a 10-10 tie and put the Rebels up for good.

The Razorbacks could only answer with a 22-yard field goal from Tom McNelly with 1:33 left in the third quarter.

Griffing's 33-yard touchdown pass to Louis Guy gave Ole Miss a 10-3 lead heading into the intermission.

Four plus inches of snow fell on New Orleans the day before Ole Miss took the field against Alabama in the 1964 Sugar Bowl.

Under the slippery conditions, the Rebels and Crimson Tide combined for 17 fumbles, including nine lost. Unfortunately for Ole Miss, the Rebels would fumble 11 times and lose six.

Alabama would also intercept three Ole Miss passes en route to receiving four Tim Davis field goals and post a 12-7 win.

Ole Miss' lone score would come in the fourth quarter on a five-yard pass from Perry Lee Dunn to Lee Smith to provide the 12-7 final.

The Rebels ended up with a 248-194 advantage in total offense, but most of the yards came too late. The Crimson Tide held a 112-34 edge in the first half to build a 9-0 halftime lead.

Tulsa quarterback Jerry Rhome passed for 252 yards and a score, and scored on a one-yard touchdown run to lead the Golden Hurricane to a 14-7 win in the 1964 Bluebonnet Bowl.

Rebel quarterback Jim Weatherly spotted Ole Miss a 7-0 lead with a one-yard scoring run in the second quarter.

Rhyme's one-yard run tied the game at 7-7 heading into the half, and capped a 72-yard, eight play march by Tulsa.

Rhyme would strike again midway through the third quarter. His 35-yard touchdown pass to Eddie Fletcher put Tulsa up 14-7 and the Golden Hurricane defense would hold the rest of the way.

Tulsa limited Ole Miss to 217 yards of total offense, while the Golden Hurricane totaled 323.

Weatherly was 16-of-24 passing, but managed just 113 yards and was intercepted twice.

Mike Dennis rushed for a game-high 73 yards on 17 carries and also caught nine passes for 114 yards.

Jimmy Keyes' two field goals helped propel Ole Miss to a 13-7 win over SEC-rival Auburn before 38,607 in the 1965 Liberty Bowl in Memphis.

Auburn drove to the Ole Miss nine with 33 seconds left in the game, but Tiger quarterback Alex Bowden was sacked on fourth down.

Keyes' first field goal, a 42-yarder in the second quarter, gave Ole Miss a 3-0 lead. The Tigers would quickly answer with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tom Bryan with 6:58 left in the first half.

Ole Miss would take the lead for good in the third quarter when Doug Cunningham caught a six-yard touchdown pass from Jody Graves.

Keyes would later add a 30-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to provide the 13-7 margin.

Tailback Mike Dennis rushed for 75 yards on 15 carries for Ole Miss, and quarterback Jimmy Heidel added 72 yards on 16 attempts.

1966 BLUEBONNET BOWL

Texas 19
Ole Miss 0

Bruce Newell

Ole Miss entered the 1966 Bluebonnet Bowl having recorded five shutouts and allowing only 46 points en route to an 8-2 regular season.

However, it was the defense of Texas that would shine in this match-up.

The Longhorns limited the Rebels to 208 yards of offense and posted a shutout in a 19-0 victory.

Texas had scoring drives of 89, 68 and 53 yards.

Ole Miss had only two scoring threats on the day. On the first, Jimmy Keyes' 43-yard field goal attempt was wide. Later in the third quarter, the Rebels were stopped on fourth down at the Texas eight.

Texas running back Chris Gilbert rushed for 156 yards on 26 carries, including a one-yard touchdown run to give the Longhorns a 12-0 lead in the third.

Doug Cunningham had 60 yards on 12 rushes for Ole Miss, and also caught three passes for 17 yards.

The University of Texas at El Paso scored two fourth quarter touchdowns and used a stingy defense to hand Ole Miss a 14-7 loss in front of 34,685 at the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas.

After a scoreless first quarter, Ole Miss took a 7-0 lead on a one-yard run by quarterback Bruce Newell. After that, the Rebels could manage very little offensively.

The Miners would limit Ole Miss to just 109 yards of total offense for the game.

Still, the Rebels carried a 7-0 lead into the final 15 minutes.

UTEP, though, would get a five-yard touchdown pass from Billy Stevens to Dave Karns to tie the score at 7-7 with 14:18 remaining.

The Miners would score the game-winning touchdown with 7:52 left when Larry McHenry found the end zone from four yards out.

Stevens finished the game 13-of-26 for 155 yards with one touchdown and one interception to earn Most Valuable Player honors.

Steve Hindman

Ole Miss erased a 17-0 first quarter deficit to roll to a 34-17 win over Virginia Tech in the 1968 Liberty Bowl, in front of 42,206 on a bright, bitterly cold afternoon in Memphis.

Archie Manning's 24-yard touchdown pass to Hank Shows early in the second quarter put the Rebels on the board and trimmed the Hokies' lead to 17-7. Manning would later find Leon Felts for a 23-yard touchdown pass to pull Ole Miss to within three at 17-14 heading into the break.

Steven Hindman broke a 79-yard scoring run just 21 seconds into the third quarter to give the Rebels the first lead of the day at 21-17.

Ole Miss would also get a 70-yard interception return for a touchdown by Robert Bailey and a pair of Van Brown field goals.

Hindman finished with 122 yards rushing on 15 carries and was named the game's Most Valuable Player and Outstanding Back.

Junior quarterback Archie Manning passed for one touchdown and rushed for another to lead No. 13 Ole Miss to a 27-22 upset of No. 3 Arkansas in the 36th annual Sugar Bowl Classic.

Cloyce Hinton gave the Rebels a 27-12 lead with a 36-yard field goal in the third quarter, before the Razorbacks would begin to rally.

Arkansas received a 35-yard field goal from Bill McClard to cut the Ole Miss lead to 27-15 entering the fourth quarter.

The Razorbacks then intercepted a Manning pass and took over at the Rebel 11. Two plays later, Bill Montgomery completed a six-yard touchdown pass to Bill Burnett to pull Arkansas to within 27-22 with 10:15 left.

Later, with 1:15 left in the game, Arkansas moved to the Ole Miss 36. Montgomery threw a strike to Chuck Dicus for 11 yards, however, Glenn Cannon's hit stripped Dicus of the ball and the Rebels recovered to secure the win.

Manning finished 21-of-35 passing for 273 yards with two interceptions. He also added 39 yards rushing to earn Most Outstanding Player honors.

Archie Manning recorded 275 yards of total offense in his final game at Ole Miss, but it wasn't enough to rally the Rebels past Auburn, as the Tigers took home a 35-28 win in the 1971 Gator Bowl.

The game also marked the Rebels' 18th and final bowl appearance under head coach John Vaught.

Behind quarterback Pat Sullivan, the Tigers built a 21-0 second-quarter lead before Manning engineered two touchdown drives before the half to make it 21-14.

The two teams would then trade touchdowns in the second half.

Manning finished completeing 19-of-28 passes for 180 yards with an interception. He connected with Floyd Franks on a 34-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter to make it 21-14.

Manning also added 95 yards rushing on 11 carries and scored Ole Miss' first points of the game on a two-yard run in the second quarter.

Sullivan passed for 351 yards and two scores for the Tigers. He completed 27-of-43 attempts and was intercepted once.

Ole Miss built a 38-6 halftime lead en route to a 41-18 win over Georgia Tech in the 1971 Peach Bowl, played on a soggy field at Atlanta Stadium.

The victory gave first-year head coach Billy Kinard a win in his first bowl game and completed a 10-2 season for Ole Miss.

Quarterback Norris Weese passed for 116 yards and added 32 rushing to earn the Most Valuable Offensive Player trophy. He gave the Rebels a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a one-yard run and connected on an 11-yard touchdown pass to Riley Myers to make it 38-6.

Linebacker Crowell Armstrong took home the Most Valuable Defensive Player trophy.

Tailback Greg Ainsworth rushed for a game-high 119 yards on 28 carries.

1983 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Ole Miss 3

Andre Townsend

Ole Miss ended a 12-year drought with an appearance in the 1983 Independence Bowl. However, the Rebels return to the postseason wouldn't be a succesful one as nationally-ranked Air Force used three field goals from Sean Pavlich to forge a 9-3 win on a rainy evening in Shreveport, La.

The Rebels held in check a powerful wishbone attack by the Falcons, one which averaged more than 400 yards per game during the 1983 season. Ole Miss used a gallant goal line stand midway through the fourth quarter to stay within striking range.

Pavlich gave Air Force a 6-0 lead with field goals of 44 and 39 yards. The Rebels got on the board just before halftime on a 39-yard field goal by Neil Teevan with four seconds remaining.

Pavlich's third field goal of the night, a 27-yarder with 7:59 left in the third quarter, marked the end of the scoring.

Air Force held a 348-244 advantage in total offense and had a 37:13 edge in time of possession.

Buford McGee rushed for 11 yards on 22 carries for the Rebels.

The 1983 Independence Bowl marked Ole Miss' first bowl appearance under head coach Billy Brewer.

Texas Tech 17

Mark Young

Mark Young passed for an Ole Miss bowl record of 343 yards to lead the Rebels to the first bowl victory in 15 years with a 20-17 victory over Texas Tech in the 1986 Independence Bowl.

Young would break five school bowl records, all held by former standout Archie Manning, on his way to being named Offensive Player of the Game. Young completed 31-of-50 passes and had 314 yards of total offense in 62 plays. All were new Rebel marks.

Ole Miss lead 17-7 at halftime as Bryan Owen hit a 21-yard field goal with one second left in the first half.

Texas Tech pulled to within 17-14 early in the third quarter when Merv Scurllark returned an interception 33 yards for a score. The Red Raiders then tied the game on Scott Segrist's 19-yard field goal with 14:52 left in the game.

Young and the Rebels would answer on the next possession with a 48-yard field goal by Owen with 12:16 remaining to break the 17-17 deadlock.

John Darnell

In a game billed to be an offensive shootout, Ole Miss outlasted Air Force 42-29 in the 31st annual Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn.

Chucky Mullins, the defensive back who was paralyzed in an October 28, game with Vanderbilt, visited the Ole Miss locker room prior to the game in his first trip outside Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis since the injury.

The visit seemed to energize the Rebels as they raced to a 28-9 halftime lead.

Liberty Bowl MVP Randy Baldwin rushed for 177 yards on 14 carries with two touchdowns, and John Darnell passed for 261 yards and a score.

The two teams combined for 55 first downs and 1,046 yards of total offense. Ole Miss held a 30-25 advantage in first downs, and a 533-513 edge in total yards.

Michigan rolled up 715 yards of total offense and broke open a 14-3 game with 21 third-quarter points to roll to a 35-3 win over Ole Miss in the 1991 Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, Fla.

The Wolverines entered the game 8-3, however, Michigan was a combined six points from being a perfect 11-0 and playing for the national championship in the Rose Bowl.

Michigan quarterback Elvis Grbac passed for 296 yards and four touchdowns, while wide receiver Desmon Howard caught six passes for 167 yards and two touchdowns.

Brian Lee accounted for Ole Miss' only points of the game, connecting for a 51-yard field goal to make it 7-3 with 8:00 left in the second quarter.

Ole Miss 13
Air Force 0

Russ Shows

For the third time in 10 years, Ole Miss and Air Force faced each other in a bowl game. For the second time in four years, that match-up took place in the Liberty Bowl.

Behind the play of linebacker Cassius Ware, Ole Miss held Air Force to 185 yards of total offense to pitch a 13-0 shutout of the Falcons. The shutout marked the first time in 150 games that Air Force had been held scoreless.

Ware was credited with 10 tackles, including two sacks, to earn Liberty Bowl MVP honors.

Dou Innocent gave Ole Miss a 7-0 lead with a five-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. The Rebels would then receive field goals of 24 and 29 yards from Brian Lee.

Innocent finished with 65 yards on 17 carries and Cory Philpot added 55 yards rushing on 10 attempts.

Quarterback Russ Shows completed 9-of-19 passes for 163 yards.

1997 MOTOR CITY BOWL

Ole Miss 34
Marshall 31

Deuce McAllister

Freshman running back Deuce McAllister's one-yard plunge with 31 seconds remaining lifted Ole Miss to a 34-31 win over Marshall in the inaugural Motor City Bowl, played at the Pontiac Silverdome.

The Motor City Bowl marked the Rebels' first postseason appearance after a four-year hiatus, and was Ole Miss' first under head coach Tommy Tuberville.

Senior quarterback Stewart Patridge garnered MVP honors, passing for 332 yards and three touchdowns. He completed 29-of-47 passes and was intercepted once.

The Thundering Herd, of the Mid-American Conference, featured Chad Pennington. Pennington was 23-of-45 passing for 337 yards and three touchdowns, and Randy Moss caught six passes for 173 yards and a score.

The two teams combined for 1,000 yards of total offense and the game featured six lead changes.

Romaro Miller

Sophomore quarterback Romaro Miller returned from a broken collarbone suffered three weeks earlier to pass for 216 yards and three touchdowns to lead Ole Miss to a 35-18 win over Texas Tech in the 1998 Independence Bowl.

The game also marked the Rebel debut of head coach David Cutcliffe, who was hired less than a month before the game from his offensive coordinator position at Tennessee.

Miller completed 14-of-23 passes and was intercepted once. His three touchdown passes set a new Independence Bowl record, and he also garnered Offensive MVP honors.

Junior defensive tackle Kendrick Clancy anchored an Ole Miss defense that limited the Red Raiders to 285 yards of total offense. Clancy would earn the bowl's Defensive MVP honors.

Sophomore running back Deuce McAllister scored three touchdowns on the evening. He scored on a 32-yard pass from Miller in the second quarter to give the Rebels a 14-7 lead. He later scored on a four-yard run to make it 28-10 and capped the scoring by returning an onside kick 48 yards with 38 seconds remaining.

Les Binkley

Les Binkley's 39-yard field goal as time expired lifted Ole Miss to a 27-25 win over Oklahoma, New Year's Eve night in the 1999 Sanford Independence Bowl. The contest was the final college football game of the 20th century.

The Sooners had taken a 25-24 lead with 2:17 left in the fourth quarter when Josh Heupel found Quenton Griffin for a 17-yard touchdown pass.

Deuce McAllister would return the ensuing kickoff 42 yards to the Ole Miss 43. He then reeled off runs of eight and nine yards to move the Rebels into Sooner territory and helped set up Binkley's game-winning field goal.

McAllister finished with 239 all-purpose yards, including 121 yards rushing on 17 carries. He broke an 80-yard touchdown run in the second quarter to give the Rebels a 21-3 half-time lead.

Eli Manning

Redshirt freshman quarterback Eli Manning came off the bench to throw three fourth-quarter touchdown passes, but it wasn't enough to overcome a 49-9 deficit as Ole Miss fell 49-38 to West Virginia in the 2000 Music City Bowl. The game was the final one for Mountaineer head coach Don Nehlen's 21-year career at the school.

Leading 35-9 at the half, Shawn Terry returned the second half kickoff 99 yards to extend the West Virginia lead to 42-9. The Mountaineers then made it 49-9 on a 10-yard pass from Brad Lewis to Khori Ivy.

Romaro Miller scored on a seven-yard run with 7:52 left in the third quarter to make it 49-16 before Manning would take over the offense.

In the final 15 minutes, Manning threw touchdown passes of 23 yards to Jamie Armstrong, 18 yards to Omar Rayford and 16 yards to Toward Sanford.

Manning's three touchdown passes tied an Ole Miss bowl record. He finished 12-of-20 for 167 yards and was intercepted once.

Ole Miss 27
Nebraska 23

Jesse Mitchell

Jonathan Nichols' 43-yard field goal with 4:36 remaining in the game helped Ole Miss post a 27-23 win over Nebraska in the 2002 Independence Bowl.

Junior quarterback Eli Manning completed 25-of-44 passes for 313 yards and a touchdown to earn Most Valuable Offensive Player honors.

The Cornhuskers took a 17-7 lead with 2:43 left in the first half when DeJuan Groce returned a punt 60 yards for a score.

Manning would engineer a nine-play, 88-yard drive in 1:11, capped by a one-yard run by Toward Sanford to pull the Rebels to within 17-14 at halftime.

Nichols tied the game in the third quarter with a 37-yard field goal and Nebraska answered with a 23-yard field goal by Josh Brown to take a 20-17 lead with 7:06 left in the quarter.

Sanford's second one-yard touchdown run of the day with 3:24 left in the third quarter put Ole Miss on top for good at 24-20.

Eli Manning

After a 42-year hiatus, the Rebels made a triumphant return to Dallas as 16th-ranked Ole Miss claimed a 31-28 win over 21st-ranked Oklahoma State in the 2004 playing of the SBC Cotton Bowl.

Eli Manning led the charge for the Rebels as the senior quarterback and Heisman finalist passed for 259 yards and three touchdowns on his way to Offensive MVP honors as he rallied the Rebels from a 14-7 deficit in the second quarter.

Manning finished the day 22-of-31 with one interception and two touchdown passes.

With the victory, the Rebels celebrated their first Cotton Bowl appearance since 1962 with a win over a nationally ranked program from the Big 12 and capped off the first 10-win season for the program since 1971 and improved the Rebels to a 2-1 record in the Cotton Bowl.

Jevan Snead

Behind Jevan Snead's passing, Dexter McCluster's squirming runs and some big returns by Marshay Green, No. 20 Ole Miss overcame an early deficit and beat No. 8 Texas Tech 47-34 Friday in the final Cotton Bowl played in the stadium of the same name.

The Red Raiders (11-2) converted a pair of early turnovers into a 14-0 lead, but Snead led the Rebels to touchdowns on their next three drives, followed by a go-ahead field goal shortly before halftime. Once Green returned an interception 65 yards for a touchdown early in the third quarter, Ole Miss (9-4) was well on its way to capping coach Houston Nutt's first season in grand style.

This was Ole Miss' sixth straight win, matching its longest streak since 2003, when Eli Manning was a senior. That also was the last time the Rebels had been to a bowl.

rushing for 184 yards and two touchdowns, including the go-ahead 2-yard run on a direct snap with 4:03 left as the Rebels beat No. 18 Oklahoma State 21-7 in the Cotton Bowl on Saturday.

McCluster also had an 86-yard TD run in the second quarter after the senior had already become the first Southeastern Conference player with 1,000 yards rushing and 500 yards receiving in the same season.

Ole Miss (9-4) had five turnovers in the game, but Oklahoma State had six in the fourth quarter, and seven overall.

McCluster was the obvious standout, the game's offensive MVP for the second year in a row. He had 34 carries along with five catches for 45 yards. He leaves Ole Miss with 3,923 career all-purpose yards, second in school history behind Deuce McAllister's 4,889.

After becoming only Ole Miss' fourth 1,000-yard rusher on his third carry of the game, McCluster surpassed 500 yards receiving on the final play of the first quarter. Yet, his best was still to come.

McCluster's 86-yard TD run in the second quarter came on a handoff from freshman quarterback Nathan Stanley. McCluster went to the right and through a gap, running untouched for the second-longest run in the 74-year history of the Cotton Bowl.

Bo Wallace

Six weeks after closing out its regular season by defeating No. 24 Mississippi State to bring home the Egg Bowl trophy for the first time since 2008, Ole Miss (7-6) took down Pitt in the BBVA Compass Bowl in Birmingham, Ala., 38-17. It was Ole Miss' first bowl appearance since topping Oklahoma State 21-7 in the 2010 AT&T Cotton Bowl. The 38 points scored by Ole Miss is a BBVA Compass Bowl record.

Ole Miss sophomore quarterback Bo Wallace, the BBVA Compass Bowl MVP, finished the game 22-32 passing for 151 yards with three touchdowns and two interceptions. The Rebels spread the ball around through the air with three receivers catching five or more passes. Freshman running back I'Tavius Mathers led Ole Miss on the ground with six carries for 96 yards, including a 62-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter, the longest in BBVA Compass Bowl history.

On the defensive side of the ball, junior middle linebacker Mike Marry led Ole Miss with seven tackles, four tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

The Rebels closed out the first half with a 31-yard field goal from Bryon Rose that gave the Rebels a 24-10 lead going into the break. Ole Miss' 24 first-half points tied the BBVA Compass Bowl record for most points scored in a half.

The Rebels' victory was their sixth straight bowl victory, which was currently the longest in the country.

Wallace, who was named the game's

MVP, finished the game 22-32 for 256 yards, as well as a career-high 86 yards rushing on 13 carries. The Pulaski, Tenn., native's 342 total yards Monday pushed his season total to 3,701, topping Eli Manning's school record of 3,572 yards set in 2003.

Junior Donte Moncrief led the Ole Miss receiving corps with six catches for 113 yards and a touchdown.

Defensively, junior linebacker Serderius Bryant and sophomore defensive tackle Issac Gross each had eight tackles, while freshman Tony Conner and senior defensive end D.T. Shackelford had seven tackles. Bryant led the Rebels with a team-high six solo tackles, and Gross recorded a team-high three tackles for loss.

2014 PEACH BOWL

TCU 42
Ole Miss 3

Senquez Golson

A dominant effort by No. 6 TCU on both sides of the ball was too much to overcome for No. 9 Ole Miss, as the Rebels (9-4) lost 42-3 in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

The nation's second-leading offense, the Horned Frogs scored early and often, and the defense suffocated the Ole Miss offense, holding the Rebels to a season-low 10 first downs and 129 yards of total offense.

Senior cornerback Senquez Golson tied the school record with his 10th interception of the season, the 16th of his career, which is tied for third place in Ole Miss history. It also helped set up the Rebels' lone score of the game, a 27-yard field goal by freshman kicker Gary Wunderlich.

Playing in its third straight bowl game for the first time since 1998-2000, Ole Miss had its six-game bowl winning streak snapped, which was tied with Florida State for the longest in the nation.

2016 SUGAR BOWL

Oklahoma State 20

Chad Kelly

How sweet it was. No. 12 Ole Miss dominated No. 16 Oklahoma State, 48-20, in the 82nd annual Allstate Sugar Bowl.

In their first appearance in the Sugar Bowl in 46 years, the Rebels left it all on the field, claiming their first 10-win season since the 2003 campaign.

It was a record-breaking night for the Rebel offense, but the defense wouldn't be outshined, holding the nation's 18th-ranked offense to its lowest point total of the season.

Junior quarterback and Sugar Bowl MVP Chad Kelly connected on four touchdown passes, the most by a Rebel quarterback in bowl history, and also led the team in rushing with 73 yards on the ground. He fired three touchdown passes to junior star receiver Laquon Treadwell, who finished with six catches for 71 yards.

As a unit the Rebels put up 554 of total offense, the most of any Ole Miss team in any bowl game, and also broke the previous record for points in a bowl game.

Even 6-foot-5, 305-pound offensive lineman Laremy Tunsil got in on the fun, trotting in for a 2-yard rush after a toss back from Kelly. The Rebels finished with 207 rushing yards and 347 through the air.

Through one quarter Ole Miss led it, 10-3, after a 34-yard field goal by Gary Wunderlich, and a 31-yard touchdown pass from Kelly to Cody Core. The Rebel defense held the Cowboys to just 36 yards in the opening quarter, including minus-eight on the ground.

Four minutes into the second quarter, Treadwell began his dominating day, hauling in a 34-yard pass from Kelly to cap a six play, 51-yard drive to make it 17-3. In that same drive, Treadwell broke one of his many records on the night, the single-season record for receptions (78 at the time).

Just five minutes later, the dynamic duo hooked up again, this time a 10-yard connection. But not before Treadwell himself found Jordan Wilkins deep for a 45-yard pass and catch. Just two plays later, the 10-yard play ensued, capping an 85-yard drive to extend the Rebels' advantage to 24-3.

Wunderlich again punched through a field goal with 3:39 left in the half, a 38-yarder to push the lead to 27-3. The Cowboys followed with a field goal of their own to make it a 27-6 game.

Then, as time expired heading into the break, Tunsil received a toss from Kelly to score the 2-yard run, making it a 34-6 game at the break. The Rebels' 34 first-half points tied for the most in the Sugar Bowl's 82-year history.

Midway through the third, the Landshark D came up big again as Terry Caldwell forced a fumble and Breeland Speaks recovered, setting up another score just a minute later. That touchdown came from Wilkins, a 36-yard rumble, capping the quick 44-second scoring drive to extend the lead to 41-6.

From there, the Cowboys added one score, and Kelly found Treadwell again for his third of the night, a 14-yard play at the 13:04 mark to cap yet another dominating 8-play, 71-yard drive.

NOTE: The overall record for each season includes bowl victories. However, the total points for each year through 2001 includes only regular-season contests. For the years the Rebels played in a bowl game prior to 2002, the points are not included because the NCAA did not count bowl game statistics.

OLE MISS PAGEANTRY

THE GROVE

When Billy Brewer became head football coach at Ole Miss in 1983, he was searching for a way to allow his team to experience the atmosphere and pageantry Rebel fans enjoyed in The Grove while tailgating on gameday. The Grove is a 10-acre grassy plot of ground in the center of campus that is heavily shaded by large oak trees.

Taking a different route two hours before kickoff each home game, Brewer would walk with the team from Kinard Hall, the athletic dormitory, across campus to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

In 1985, Brewer started going the same route each Saturday as the team would enter The Grove on the east side of the Student Union and proceed down a sidewalk that runs through The Grove. Ole Miss fans fight for position on both sides of the sidewalk and greet the players with loud cheers. The braver fans even reach out and touch the players as they pass before them.

In the fall of 1998, a "Walk of Champions" arch was erected on the east side of The Grove, where the Rebel players begin their walk for every Saturday home game. The "Walk of Champions" arch was given to the University by the 1962 Rebel football team, which is the only squad in Ole Miss football history to finish a campaign with a perfect record (10-0). The 1962 team won the SEC title and was also named National Champion by the Litkenhous Ratings.

What has become a tradition on Ole Miss football Saturdays continues under head coach Hugh Freeze.

The Grove and Ole Miss produce one of the most unique college football experiences in the South and nationwide. Sporting News ranked it among college football's greatest traditions and described The Grove as "the Holy Grail of tailgating sites." In listing America's top sports colleges, Sports Illustrated named Ole Miss the nation's No. 1 tailgating school.

Widely recognized as one of the best tailgating experiences in the country, The Grove has been featured in such publications as The New York Times, Sports Illustrated and Sporting News.

OLE MISS

The University's nickname — Ole Miss — became part of the institution over 100 years ago, in 1896, when it was selected in a contest held to identify a new student publication, the yearbook. It was suggested by Miss Elma Meek of Oxford. Each succeeding issue of the annual has been given this copyrighted identity. The name gradually became synonymous with the University and is now a treasured segment of University history. The late Frank E. Everett, Jr., B.A. '32, LLB '34, put it best when he wrote:

There is a valid distinction between The University and Ole Miss even though the separate threads are closely interwoven.

The University is buildings, trees and people. Ole Miss is mood, emotion and personality. One is physical, and the other is spiritual. One is tangible, and the other intangible.

The University is respected, but Ole Miss is loved. The University gives a diploma and regretfully terminates tenure, but one never graduates from Ole Miss.

In 2017, the University of Mississippi student body voted to adopt the Landshark as the new official mascot for Ole Miss. The Landshark moniker pays tribute to former Rebel Tony Fein, who originated the term during the 2008 season. The Landshark mascot is expected to be unveiled prior to the 2018 season.

REBELS

The name REBELS emerged as Ole Miss' official athletic nickname in 1936. Suggested by Judge Ben Guider of Vicksburg, it was one of five entries submitted to Southern sports writers for final selection from a list totaling more than 200 proposed nicknames. The promotion was a contest sponsored by The Mississippian, the student newspaper. Of the 42 newsmen contacted, 21 responded. "Rebels" was the choice of 18. The University Athletic Committee made the name official with the Committee chairman, the late Judge William Hemingway, stating: "If 18 sports writers wish to use 'Rebels', I shall not rebel, so let it go 'Ole Miss Rebels.' "

RED & BLUE

In 1893, when Ole Miss' first football team was in training for a five-game season, Dr. A.L. Bondurant, organizer and manager-coach, later recalled that "the team had much discussion as to the colors that should be adopted, but it was finally suggested by the manager that the union of the Crimson of Harvard and the Navy Blue of Yale would be very harmonious, and that it was well to have the spirit of both of these good colleges." These were adopted as the football colors, and have since been adopted by the University as its athletic colors. The PMS numbers for the Ole Miss red and blue are as follows: Red 186, Blue 2767.

HOMECOMING AT OLE MISS

Homecoming at Ole Miss was formed as a weekend when alumni would reunite on the Oxford campus. It wasn't until 1924 that Homecoming became centered around a Rebel football game.

November 22, 1924, is recognized as the first official Homecoming football celebration at Ole Miss. On that day, the Rebels defeated Mississippi College, 10-6. Since then, the Homecoming football game and Homecoming weekend have been an annual event at Ole Miss.

Homecoming is a tradition on nearly every collegiate campus. At Ole Miss, it holds a special place in the hearts of all University alumni and current students. In 1928, the University students felt it a privilege to invite all former graduates back to the Ole Miss grounds.

"We bid hearty welcome to the alumni on the campus today," wrote J.P. Dale, the editor of The Mississippian. "It is always a pleasure for the student body to receive you, and to attempt to make you feel at home here as of yore. There are many ties that bind the old grad to his Alma Mater, but the greatest of all the ties, and the one lasting tie, is that feeling of love and veneration of the traditions of Ole Miss."

The first Homecoming parade is believed to have taken place in 1930. That year, students held a pep rally followed by a huge bonfire where freshmen dressed in pajamas and joined the Ole Miss marching band as the procession continued on toward downtown.

The Homecoming parade, which has a wide range of participants from the University, still takes place today with the help of the Oxford community. The University celebrates by inducting five new members into the Ole Miss Alumni Hall of Fame. It also honors tradition by selecting a Homecoming Queen and her court.

The Rebels have found much success when hosting a foe on Homecoming. Entering this year's date with ULM, Ole Miss owns an impressive 73-15-2 record in Homecoming games. The Rebels have won 29 of the last 34 Homecoming contests.

ALMA MATER

Way down south in Mississippi
There's a spot that ever calls

Where among the hills enfolded
Stand ole Alma Mater's halls

Where the trees lift high their branches
To the whisp'ring southern breeze

There Ole Miss is calling, calling
To our hearts' fond memories.

With united hearts we praise thee,
All our loyalty in thine,

And we hail thee, Alma Mater,
May thy light forever shine;

May it brighter grow and brighter
And with deep affection true,

Our thoughts shall ever cluster 'round thee,
Dear old Red and Blue.

May thy fame throughout the nation,
Thru thy sons and daughters grow,

May thy name forever waken,
In our hearts a tender glow,

May thy counsel and thy spirit
Ever keep us one in this,

That our own shall be thine honor,
Now and ever, dear Ole Miss.

CHARLIE CONERLY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Ole Miss football standout Charlie Conerly was an unassuming man — never one to blow his own horn. He rarely celebrated after scoring a touchdown. He would simply hand the ball to the referee and trot to the sideline.

“Charlie was a shy man,” said New York Giants teammate Frank Gifford. “He didn’t want to stand out. He didn’t even like trophies. He was very sensitive about receiving praise.”

Off the field, Conerly also remained reserved. Perian Conerly said that her late husband wouldn’t understand why the Charlie Conerly Memorial Athletic Scholarship at the University of Mississippi was named in his honor, but he would be thrilled about the opportunity the scholarship provided.

“Charlie never would have gone to college without his football scholarship at Ole Miss,” she said. “That opportunity changed his life.”

One of the greatest football players ever to wear an Ole Miss uniform and a beloved alumnus, Conerly will be remembered for generations to come through the Charlie Conerly Memorial Athletic Scholarship. The $100,000 endowment was set up by his wife for deserving student-athletes.

“The endowment is a widow’s mite when compared to other donations, but it’s a very important scholarship for future players,” she said.

A Clarksdale, Miss., native, Conerly passed away Feb. 13, 1996, after a lengthy illness. Affectionately known as Chunkin’ Charlie, the former quarterback thrilled Ole Miss fans as he led the Rebels to their first Southeastern Conference Championship in 1947 and a victory over Texas Christian University in the Delta Bowl.

Conerly earned three letters at Ole Miss, playing in 1942, 1946 and 1947, earning All-America honors his senior season and All-SEC accolades twice. He interrupted his undergraduate career to serve with the U.S. Marines in World War II.

After graduation, Conerly joined the NFL’s New York Giants, leading them to the 1956 NFL Championship. He was named 1948 NFL Rookie of the Year and the League’s Most Valuable Player in 1959. Conerly ended his career in 1961 with 1,418 career completions, including 173 touchdown passes. His Giants number 42 was retired in 1962. “Charlie had an incredible arm and a great feel for the game,” said Gifford. “He was a tremendous athlete, and by the end of his career, he was a sports hero for New York.” Perian Conerly authored “Backseat Quarterback” (Doubleday 1963), detailing the couple’s experiences during his professional football years. After retiring, Conerly and his wife returned to Mississippi, and they often traveled to Oxford on football weekends.

Conerly’s honors include induction into the National College Football Hall of Fame, Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame, Ole Miss Alumni Hall of Fame, and Ole Miss Athletic Hall of Fame. He also received the Distinguished American Award from the Ole Miss Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame and was selected by Rebel fans as a back on the Ole Miss Football Team of the Century. As a college player, Conerly was also named the Atlanta Touchdown Club’s SEC Back of the Year and the Nashville Banner’s SEC Player of the Year.

A prestigious trophy named in his honor, the C Spire Conerly Trophy, is awarded annually to Mississippi’s most outstanding collegiate football player. Designed to be the Mississippi equivalent of the Heisman Trophy, the award is open to all Mississippi players, regardless of school size or position. The original bronze sculpture is permanently housed in the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and Museum in Jackson, and a replica is on display at Ole Miss in Hollingsworth-Manning Hall, the school’s athletics memorabilia area located on the second floor of the Michael S. Starnes Athletic Training Center.

CHUCKY MULLINS SCHOLARSHIP ENDOWMENT

The Chucky Mullins Scholarship is awarded to two groups of students. The first group is students who have a physical handicap, which falls under Vocational Rehabilitation guidelines. They must be enrolled full-time. The Office of Financial Aid works with Student Disability Services, Admissions and Enrollment Services to promote this scholarship so that qualifying students will come forward to inquire about it. The second group is students who have exceptional financial need. They must be full-time undergraduate students who are Mississippi residents or residents of Russellville, Alabama. The Office of Financial Aid runs reports of entering freshmen who have completed the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to find students who demonstrate financial need and have no resources to put toward their costs of education.

All students are awarded $2,000 per year for up to four years as long as they maintain a minimum 2.5 resident GPA and full-time enrollment, and have not yet received a bachelor’s degree. From the 2003-04 academic year through 2017-18, we awarded more than 180 unduplicated students the Chucky Mullins Scholarship. A total of 14 new recipients were selected for the 2017-18 academic year.

To contribute to the Chucky Mullins Scholarship endowment, contact the UM Foundation at (662) 915-5944 or umf@olemiss.edu.

J.W. "WOBBLE" DAVIDSON SCHOLARSHIP

It's a funny thing about sports and nicknames. They seem to go hand-in-hand. Whether it's quarterbacks named "Easy" or line-men named "Slim", a nickname follows you for the rest of your life. Such was the case with J.W. "Wobble" Davidson.

Never one to let the spotlight hit him, Davidson spent three years playing left end for Ole Miss, before returning to his alma mater as an assistant coach. He gave up the idea of playing pro football to enter the Marine Corps to fight in World War II. He never thought twice about it. He never even left Oxford, returning after the war to spend his days at the place he called home.

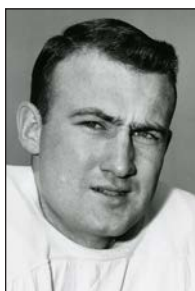

Davidson's love for Oxford and his alma mater proved just as great in his family life as it did in his professional life. A proud father of two, Wobble, his wife Sara, son Don and daughter Debra all attended Ole Miss. Davidson spent 11 years as head tennis coach and 23 years as the M-Club Advisor, mentoring student-athletes into productive members of society. He and his family even lived in the athletic dorms on campus.

It was his love for Ole Miss that the J.W. "Wobble" Davidson Scholarship fund was established. Given to the children of former Ole Miss letterwinners, the scholarship helps make sure that those who love the University as much as Wobble will always have the opportunity for their children to attend Ole Miss.

Davidson graduated from Ole Miss in 1942, earning three letters in football, three in track and two in basketball for the Rebels. A member of the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and the Ole Miss Sports Hall of Fame, Davidson also earned his master's degree from Ole Miss.

To learn more about the J.W. "Wobble" Davidson Scholarship Fund, including details about making a tax-deductible contribution, contact Clay Cavett at the UM Alumni Office at 662-915-7375.

LARRY L. JOHNSON SCHOLARSHIP

Larry L. Johnson of Jackson wants to help young men benefit from the same opportunity in life he received: a football scholarship to the University of Mississippi that enabled him to participate in the sport he loved while pursuing degrees for a successful career.

The retired BellSouth executive - whose football career at Forest High School in Scott County captured the attention of UM coaches - has established a scholarship endowment with more than $100,000. The first in his family to attend college, Johnson received an athletics scholarship that allowed him to earn two business degrees and play wingback and outside linebacker on three championship football teams (1961, '62 and '63).

Desiring to give back to his college and home community, Johnson's scholarship agreement stipulates that preference should be given to Scott County football signees when possible.

Known to the Ole Miss family as "Larry Leo," Johnson has been active in the M-Club alumni chapter for athletes. He served on the M-Club's board of directors and has organized and directed many team reunions. As Student M-Club president in 1963, Johnson helped establish the J.W. Davidson Scholarship fund to honor the legendary Ole Miss coach and has been a regular contributor since that time. He also is an Ole Miss Athletics Foundation member.

He holds bachelor's and master's degrees in business and is a past chair of the Business Advisory Board at the UM School of Business Administration. He is a major contributor to the Business Order and has guest lectured under the business school's Otho Smith Fellows Program.

An active civic leader in Jackson, Johnson continues to give of his time and resources to the community in many areas since retiring from BellSouth in 2000 after 33 years as an executive with the company. Both of Johnson's sons, Rick and Scott, graduated from Ole Miss. Larry and his wife, Rita Parks Johnson, live in Madison, and they have a blended family of five, with multiple grandchildren.

JOEY EMBRY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

During football camps under sun-drenched skies on the Oxford campus, Joey Embry decided he wanted to be an Ole Miss Rebel. In 1995, at the end of his stellar prep career at Bruce (Miss.) High School, the scholarship offer came.

Embry was a member of the Rebel football team for two years before his tragic death on May 19, 1998, when he drowned just months before he was expected to be a major contributor on the offensive line.

His Rebel teammates dedicated the 1998 season to his memory and wore Embry's name and number on their helmets.

Family and friends are keeping his spirit alive through the Joey Embry Memorial Scholarship Fund, established to help student-athletes at The University of Mississippi. "I think Joey would be really proud of the scholarship fund," said his mother, Gwen Embry, "not because it is honoring him, but because it will help so many other students."

Embry's roommate and fellow teammate Bobby Killion, a former Ole Miss center, said, "Joey touched the lives of so many people while having an influence on those who came in contact with him. He was a great man and is missed by a lot of people. I know I'll miss him for the rest of my life."

Embry left a strong impression on the Ole Miss community, providing leadership both on and off the playing field. As a business administration major, he excelled academically, making the UMAA Honor Roll and the SEC Academic Honor Roll. He also was active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA).

In addition to the scholarship fund, Weyerhaeuser Co. donated equipment to Ole Miss' Starnes Athletic Training Center in memory of the Ole Miss football player.

Individuals and organizations can contribute to the Joey Embry Memorial Scholarship Fund through The University of Mississippi Foundation, P.O. Box 249, University, MS 38677; phone 800-340-9542; e-mail umf@olemiss.edu.

WESLEY WALLS SCHOLARSHIP

Former Ole Miss All-America tight end Wesley Walls of Pontotoc, Miss., and his wife, Christy, have endowed a football scholarship at Ole Miss.

The $100,000 gift is used to provide a football scholarship to any Ole Miss signee from Pontotoc County.

Walls, a five-time Pro Bowler with the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League, enjoyed a 14-year NFL career, playing with San Francisco and New Orleans prior to joining the Panthers. He retired in 2004 after one season with the Green Bay Packers.

"I received so much from Ole Miss, not only an education and a chance to play college football, but also as a person," Walls said.

"I met my wife here and we truly love Ole Miss and her people. This scholarship represents a way to come back and help Pontotoc County. There are a lot of good athletes over there."

At Ole Miss, Walls earned four letters and excelled both on the field and in the classroom. He came to Oxford in 1985 as a defensive end, but also played tight end his senior campaign when he became one of the nation's few two-way players in 1988.

Following his senior year, Walls was selected first team All-America at tight end by the Associated Press. He was also a first team All-SEC pick, was selected Mississippi's Amateur Athlete of the Year and was chosen as one of three permanent Ole Miss team captains.

Off the field, Walls compiled a 3.41 GPA in General Engineering, earned Academic All-America honors, was a three-time Academic All-SEC pick, was selected Colonel Rebel at Ole Miss, was named to the University of Mississippi Hall of Fame and received an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. He was selected as one of 11 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athletes and was chosen to give the response at the awards dinner in New York City.

Walls finished his NFL career with 450 catches for 5,291 yards and 54 touchdowns. Upon his retirement, he was considered one of the premier tight ends in the game.

PARK STEVENS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Park Stevens, a native of Columbus, Mississippi, and a graduate of New Hope High School, walked on to the Ole Miss football team in the spring of 2013 after spending two seasons at East Central Community College. He participated in spring drills with the Rebels and was looking forward to his first season with a Southeastern Conference team. Stevens' hopes were cut short by a tragic automobile accident July 3, 2013, when Stevens died instantly at the age of 20.

"Park had such a magnetic personality. He didn't meet a stranger," former East Central Community College coach Brian Anderson told The Clarion-Ledger. "He was just an outstanding young man. He just had personality for days."

"He was a tremendous young man that was loved by his teammates and coaches, and Rebel Nation will never forget him," said Ole Miss coach Hugh Freeze. "Our thoughts and prayers are with the Stevens' family, his friends, our team and all those he touched during his life."

His parents, Dean and Gail, established the Park Stevens Memorial Scholarship Fund with the Ole Foundation in his memory. Gifts may be made by sending a check with the fund noted in the memo line to the UM Foundation, P.O. Box 249, University, Miss. 38677; or by visiting www.umfoundation.com/makeagift.

VAUGHT-HEMINGWAY STADIUM/HOLLINGSWORTH FIELD

On the southeast side of the University of Mississippi campus stands historic Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, a landmark of Ole Miss tradition and an anchor for the strong future of Rebel Football.

The stadium has received several upgrades in the last few years and most recently debuted a significant expansion in 2016 that increased the capacity to 64,038, making Vaught-Hemingway the largest stadium in the state of Mississippi.

The facelift provides Rebel fans with an even greater gameday atmosphere and more seating. The north side of the stadium was closed in to provide additional student seating and transformed into an exciting new "front door." The north plaza, including the Jake Gibbs Letterwinner Walk and the Lloyd Bell Tower, was completed in full in the spring of 2018.

Other enhancements include a new videoboard and sound system, stadium lights, as well as a natural grass playing surface returning to Hollingsworth Field for the first time since 2002.

A green space will soon extend the Walk of Champions from The Grove all the way to the new plaza to put the polishing touches on one of the nation's elite college football facilities. For its efforts in stadium enhancements, Ole Miss is one of 10 facilities (pro or collegiate) to earn the 2017 Facility of Merit Award.

As part of the $200 million Forward Together capital campaign, the south end zone was also renovated to add 30 luxury suites and 770 club level seats, and the west suites were all refinished for the 2015 season.

Upgrades leading up to the 2013 season included the removal of sideline platforms and bricking the east and west side facade, as well as a team halftime locker room and the addition of two on-field suites.

From 2009-15, the playing surface was FieldTurf synthetic grass. It was natural grass from its beginning until 1970, Astroturf from 1970-84, natural grass again from 1985-2002 and AstroPlay synthetic from 2003-08.

The stadium increased its capacity to 60,580 in 2002 with the bowling in of the south end zone.

With the additional seating, the Rebels have set record-breaking attendance figures over the last 13 years, drawing all 10 of the largest crowds in school history. The momentous Ole Miss-Alabama encounter in 2009 attracted a crowd of 62,657, the second largest ever to watch a football game on campus in Mississippi. The Rebels' matchup with LSU in 2003 gathered 62,552 fans, and the 2004 Tennessee game drew 62,028.

The stadium, known as Hemingway Stadium for much of its existence, began its long historic life in 1915 when students at the University helped in the construction of the first football grandstand at the site of the present field. The construction of the stadium and its permanent foundation was a three-year (1939-41), federally-sponsored project. Stadium capacity was originally listed at 24,000.

During the summer of 1988, the stadium received a major facelift, highlighted by a new press box, new aluminum sideline seating and a club level section for 700 people. Renovations continued in the summer of 1990 when lights were added to the stadium. A Sony JumboTron scoreboard/message center was added for the 1997 season.

In 1998, the Guy C. Billups Rebel Club Seating area was completed, placing an upper deck on the east side of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. The addition, which includes a special seating section with an enclosed concession and lounge area, pushed capacity to over 50,000.

The stadium is named for the late Judge William Hemingway (1869-1937), a professor of law and longtime chairman of the University's Committee on Athletics. On Oct. 16, 1982, John Howard Vaught saw his name added to the stadium. Vaught compiled a 190-61-12 record as head football coach at Ole Miss and brought the Rebels National Championships in 1959, 1960 and 1962. At the 1998 season opener vs. Memphis, the field was named in honor of Dr. Jerry Hollingsworth for his continuing generous support to Ole Miss Athletics.

MANNING CENTER

Among the finest facilities in all of college athletics, the Olivia and Archie Manning Athletics Performance Center at Ole Miss is the crown jewel in the growing athletics compound surrounding Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Ole Miss named the facility in honor of the Mannings in 2013, recognizing their extraordinary contributions to the University of Mississippi.

The renovation and expansion of the Manning Center was made possible by gifts to the Forward Together Campaign. In partnership with Ole Miss Athletics, the Manning family and the family of Billy Van Devender made significant contributions to the campaign in order to honor Olivia and Archie in this special way.

"The Manning Center speaks a great deal to our donor support, our athletics tradition and the future of our program," said Ole Miss Vice Chancellor for Intercollegiate Athletics Ross Bjork. "I have been all over the nation, and this is one of the most impressive out there. We are excited about the numerous enhancements we've made to this facility, and it will continue to serve as a tremendous recruiting asset for all of Ole Miss Athletics."

Located beside the South End Zone of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, the Rebels moved into the spectacular $18 million multi-purpose structure in fall 2014.

As part of the Forward Together campaign, a $12.5 million renovation and expansion commenced in early 2013. The project was built in phases and completed in early 2014.

Among the upgrades was the construction of a full kitchen and dining hall that is part of the Ole Miss dining program and open to every student, faculty and staff member. The "Grill at 1810" provides a nutrition center for all Ole Miss student-athletes. The Roland and Sheryl Burns Team Meeting Room was constructed on the north end of the facility lawn between the building and the south end zone of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. It seats approximately 200, doubling the capacity of the previous team room, and the meeting area was outfitted with state-of-the-art audio/video equipment and coaching software. Adjacent to the team room is a new head coach's office, putting all of the staff on the same level in the renovated coaching suite.

In addition to the team room, a new front door and recruiting room was added on the site of the old team room and pays tribute to the contributions of Ben Williams and James Reed, Ole Miss' first two African-American football student-athletes. The Williams-Reed Football Foyer celebrates the rich tradition of Rebel football with recruits, alumni and fans with interactive exhibits and memorable images from the program's history.

The existing weight room was expanded on the east side of the Manning Center, widening the area by 2,000 square feet. On the west side, the locker room was overhauled and enhanced to include new player lounges and renamed the Van Devender Family Foundation Locker Room. Also, the Mattingly Family Equipment Room has been renamed to honor the memory of the late Thomas J. Mattingly and his family. AECOM, CDFL and Tipton & Associates were the architects of the renovations and expansions to the Manning Center.

FEDEX STUDENT-ATHLETE SUCCESS CENTER

Since May 2007, Ole Miss student-athletes have benefitted tremendously from their first-class on-campus learning environment - the FedEx Student-Athlete Success Center.

FedEx Corporation announced on April 14, 2005, a $2.5 million gift over five years to the University of Mississippi to create such an elite academic support center for student-athletes.

The center provides state-of-the-art computer facilities and space for study halls and tutoring for men and women student-athletes, as well as additional classrooms for all students.

"FedEx has always been a strong supporter of educational initiatives at all levels," said Mike Glenn, executive vice president of marketing development and corporate communications. "This contribution to the University of Mississippi is an extension of our commitment to helping improve the academic resources available to students, and student-athletes in particular."

Glenn said FedEx and Ole Miss are committed to providing a strong academic foundation to enable students to reach their full potential.

"The FedEx Center is one of the best academic facilities in college athletics," said Vice Chancellor for Intercollegiate Athletics Ross Bjork. "It is the lifeblood of our student-athlete development and the chief recruiting tool for Ole Miss Athletics. Students come first in everything we do, and we cannot thank FedEx enough for their leadership and commitment."

The money was used to renovate a portion of the Starnes Athletic Center—which formerly housed football locker rooms, a weight room and training facilities—next to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium on All-American Drive. The 22,500-square-foot building now houses the Office of Student-Athlete Academic Support, including offices, conference rooms, 20 large and small group tutoring rooms, a large study area, a multi-media classroom, computer lab and 150-seat high-tech auditorium. The project was completed in May 2007 with an approximate cost of $5 million.

In accepting the FedEx gift, university officials said the new center provides an important link in the university's goal to compete at the highest level in every aspect of its intercollegiate programs.

"American public universities are the best in the world largely because of the generosity of American corporations," said then-UM Chancellor Robert Khayat. "FedEx sets the standard for philanthropy by which others are measured. In this case, Ole Miss student-athletes are the primary beneficiaries, but all our students will benefit and, as a result, our entire state benefits."

In addition to this gift to the University, FedEx supports several endowed scholarship programs, the Whitten Chair in Law, the Lott Leadership Institute, the William Winter Institute for Racial Reconciliation and William Faulkner's historic home, Rowan Oak.

STARNES ATHLETIC TRAINING CENTER

Every aspect of Ole Miss athletics is geared toward the success of its student-athletes. The Michael S. Starnes Athletic Training Center provides a valuable role in the development and display of that success.

The multi-purpose Starnes Center has undergone many transformations through the years. It currently houses the Ole Miss information technology staff, a sizeable memorabilia collection, and multi-purpose uses for athletic training and equipment.

Formerly the Doc Knight Field House, the Training Center stands just north of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium and within walking distance of Tad Smith Coliseum, Swayze Field and the main athletics office complex.

The training room has been used by several sports. There are four offices for the athletic training staff, room for at least 13 treatment tables, six taping stations and countless rehabilitation equipment. It also contains a wet room with a whirlpool that help make up an environment for top-notch care and injury prevention for Rebel athletes.

The facility extends to the east into a similar structure which holds a massive weight room, a lobby, a conference room and offices. Connected to the west end is the FedEx Student-Athlete Success Center, a state-of-the-art complex opened in May 2007.

Starnes, the building's benefactor, donated $1 million toward the facility as part of an extensive $2.5 million renovation in 1995. A 1968 Ole Miss graduate, Starnes is president of Tennessee California Express, Inc., a transportation company.

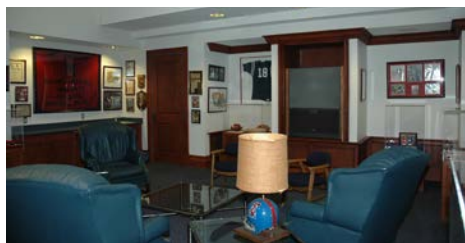

Much of the history and the many accolades of Rebel athletics are displayed in two rooms on the second floor of the Starnes Center that make up Hollingsworth-Manning Hall.

The larger room is divided into four zones, with the North Wing reserved to honor the nine Ole Miss Rebels in the College Football Hall of Fame. The East Wing spotlights the 46 Ole Miss first-team All-Americans as well as Hall of Fame Coach John Vaught and the legacy of Chucky Mullins. The West Wing is reserved for baseball, track, tennis and golf All-Americans as well as Bruiser Kinard, the only player in Ole Miss history inducted into both the College and Professional Football Hall of Fame. The South Zone honors Ole Miss All-Americans in men's and women's basketball as well as C. M. "Tad" Smith, who played and coached at Ole Miss and also served as Athletics Director.

The smaller room of Hollingsworth-Manning Hall is devoted entirely to an impressive memorabilia collection from the family of Ole Miss legend Archie Manning, which includes items of all three sons, Cooper, Peyton and Eli. The focal points of the exhibit are Super Bowl MVP photos of both Peyton and Eli hoisting the Lombardi Trophy.

Dr. Jerry Hollingsworth, an Ole Miss alumnus and general practitioner in Ft. Walton Beach, Florida, joined forces with former Rebel quarterback Archie Manning to establish the recruitment/memorabilia center. It is faithfully maintained and updated by Langston Rogers, Special Assistant to the Athletics Director for History.

OLE MISS ATHLETICS FACILITIES

OXFORD-UNIVERSITY STADIUM/SWAYZE FIELD

Ole Miss boasts one of the nation's premier college baseball venues. Mike Bianco's Rebels have annually ranked among the top five in college baseball attendance, while hosting eight NCAA Regionals and three Super Regionals.

THE PAVILION AT OLE MISS

Home to the Ole Miss men's and women's basketball teams, The Pavilion at Ole Miss opened in January 2016 and is a 9,500 seat, state-of-the-art facility nestled next to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

OLE MISS TRACK & FIELD COMPLEX

Sparkling $7.2 million renovation with top-of-the-line Beynon Sports Surface completed in September 2016.

OLE MISS SOFTBALL COMPLEX

Ole Miss' impressive softball field and hitting facility played host to the 2011 SEC Softball Tournament.

TUOHY CENTER

Opened in 2010, this $13 million, 51,000-sq.-ft. facility includes team rooms, offices and two practice courts.

GILLOM CENTER

A massive 2017 renovation makes this women's sports complex, including new volleyball court, an elite training facility.

OLE MISS SOCCER STADIUM

Known for its immaculately kept pitch, Ole Miss soccer boasts a beautiful facility adjacent to the GilloM Center.

PALMER-SALLOUM TENNIS CENTER

Dramatic enhancements were made in 2012 to what was already one of the nation's top tennis facilities.

OLE MISS GOLF COURSE

The Rebel golf teams enjoy a recently renovated short-game facility adjacent to the Whitten Golf Center.

PATRICIA C. LAMAR CENTER

The Patricia C. Lamar National Guard Readiness Center is easily one of the top college rifle facilities in the nation.

OLE MISS INDOOR TENNIS CENTER

The new Indoor Tennis Center pairs with the Palmer-Salloum Center to give Ole Miss some of the best facilities in college tennis.

HEALTH AND SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Under the leadership of athletics director Ross Bjork, Ole Miss launched the unique and comprehensive Health and Sports Performance program in July 2012, which takes a holistic approach to providing optimal health care for the demands of elite student-athletes. Through a complete collaboration between all services provided in the Health and Sports Performance model, Ole Miss is ensured not only healthy student-athletes, but ones that can achieve peak performance. These services include strength and conditioning, athletic training, team physicians, physical therapy, massage therapy, sports psychologist and sports nutrition.

"Our team of Health and Sports Performance professionals strive to provide quality health and sports performance services based on the latest in health and strength training research," said Shannon Singletary, Senior Associate A.D. for Health and Sports Performance. "By doing this we hope to not only provide our student-athletes with a better chance of winning on the field but also give them an opportunity to lead a healthy lifestyle."

Ole Miss Health and Sports Performance has strong working relationships with student health services, local physicians and Baptist Memorial Hospital-North Mississippi, which is located just miles from the Oxford campus. The department also taps into its own University of Mississippi Medical Center in Jackson for world-class treatment from multiple specialties including orthopedics, neurology and cardiology.

The Rebels enjoy a partnership with a team of orthopedic surgeons that includes: Daniel Boyd, M.D.; Kure Lubner, M.D. and Cooper Terry, M.D., from Oxford Orthopedic and Sports Medicine, as well as William Geissler, M.D. and Bob McGuire, M.D., from the University of Mississippi Medical Center.

Jeff Dennis, M.D., also provides primary care services as a part of the Internal Medicine Associates of Oxford.

Ole Miss' athletic trainers begin treatment and rehabilitation as early as 6 a.m. and are available until the last student-athlete is finished with practice or competition. There are currently six athletic training facilities on campus with the two main athletic training rooms located in the Starnes Athletic Training Center and the Manning Center. In addition, there are four satellite athletic training rooms located in The Pavilion at Ole Miss, Tuohy Basketball Center, Gillom Sports Center and Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field.

The main athletic training rooms are stocked with equipment such as digital x-ray systems, stationary bikes, laser therapy equipment, therapeutic modalities, underwater treadmills and Biodex testing equipment. Each component is strategically designed to not only give the student-athletes the best care but also aid in returning them to competition as quickly and safely as possible.

REBEL STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

MISSION

The mission of this strength and conditioning program is to prepare athletes to adapt and thrive under the stress load of practicing and competing in football - with specific consideration of the relevant biomotor abilities, metabolic demands, psychological factors and injury risk associated with the sport.

We will demand discipline, relentlessness and intelligent effort while we work toward improving each athlete's skill level. We will cultivate a high-energy, up-tempo environment where enthusiasm and competition will flourish. We will attack this mission with a scientifically supported, comprehensive approach and specific considerations of the metabolic demands and injury risks of our sport. Training must prepare the athlete for the specific competitive stress load of their sport.

Top priority is to improve high speed, loaded and unloaded, total body coordination and mechanical efficiency. We will imitate the demands of football by striving to produce as many maximal or near maximal contractions as often as possible in training. Our team must be conditioned to handle and thrive at a relentless, up tempo pace. Everything we do in training is done to help the athletes more efficiently execute the movement requirements of their sport. We will demand discipline, intensity and intelligent effort while we work towards improving physical capabilities. We will cultivate a high energy environment where enthusiasm and competition will flourish.

The environment in the weight room must be one of high effort, intensity and excitement. An attitude will be established through training that will carry over onto the playing field. Discipline, hard work and vigor will become permanent traits of the athletes.

There are no greater facilities at which to train athletes than the majestic Manning Center. When entering the Manning Center's 20,000-square-foot weight room, the Ole Miss players are quickly reminded of the championship philosophy that head football strength coach Paul Jackson and the Rebel staff set forth. The facility, which is entering its 12th year of existence and was renovated in 2014, is enhanced with visual messages and houses state-of-the-art training equipment. Besides the hundreds of weights, the room also contains a variety of Hammer Strength machines, numerous Life Fitness cardiovascular machines and a fully-stocked nutrition center.

With the Manning Center's full-sized indoor practice field, the Rebels' extensive workouts touch on every area of fitness and conditioning and prepare their bodies fully for intense SEC battles.

OLE MISS ATHLETICS

VISION

The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics at The University of Mississippi will strive to be the number one academic and athletics program through the strong emphasis of core values and the opportunity to experience athletic pursuits at the highest level.

PURPOSE

The ultimate purpose of the Ole Miss Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is to develop students to their fullest potential through athletics.

CORE VALUES

Academic Excellence
Integrity
Social Responsibility
Student-Athlete Welfare

University Integration Community Engagement
Competitive Excellence

STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT - ACADEMICS

Ole Miss student-athletes not only have the opportunity to play in one of the best conferences in the nation, they also attend a university that is world-renowned for its academics. The Office of Student-Athlete Development is committed to helping all Ole Miss student-athletes achieve academic success. Among the staff are two associate directors, three assistant directors, five full-time academic counselors, four learning specialists, two academic interns, a graduate assistant and numerous tutors and academic mentors.

The mission of the FedEx Student-Athlete Success Center is to promote academic excellence and provide quality developmental and need-based programs to help student-athletes become independent and self-reliant learners. In an environment that promotes student development, the staff provides programming and support for all student-athletes from the time they arrive on campus through graduation and beyond. The staff provides resources, experience and knowledge empowering each student-athlete to reach his/her academic, career and personal potential. The FedEx staff pursues this mission by promoting academic success with integrity, strict adherence to university, SEC and NCAA rules, and a dedication to excellence.

Ole Miss has a long history of academic success among its football players, ranking first among Southern schools with 24 Academic All-America selections, such as quarterback, Eli Manning. Also among football's NFL standouts are Patrick Willis (Wilma Rudolph Award Winner) and Terrence Metcalf (Rebel Reconnect Graduate).

The 2017-18 academic year saw the football team continue its strong performance in the classroom. A total of 16 football student-athletes graduated from Ole Miss in 2017-18, with 7 planning to return for their final year of eligibility for the 2018-19 season. The football team's 984 Academic Progress Rate (APR) was nearly 20 points above the national average, ranking fourth in the SEC.

Among all sports, Ole Miss had 207 student-athletes named to the SEC Academic Honor Rolls in 2017-18 and earned its fourth consecutive 3.00+ cumulative GPA in recorded history after Intercession. With Ole Miss athletics taking its place among the best in the nation, the FedEx Student-Athlete Success Center staff hopes that the Rebel graduates of today have a great impact in the future of tomorrow.

STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT - LIFE SKILLS

Student-Athlete Development - Life Skills is a well-rounded program to challenge our student-athletes to be lifelong learners while pursuing continuous improvement academically, relationally, socially, personally, and professionally during and beyond their careers as student-athletes.

Jennifer Saxon
Assistant AD/Student-Athlete Development

The program consists of these five vital components:

- The Commitment to Academic Excellence is promoted through a full range of services that include orientation, advising, tutoring, academic skills training and the recognition of academic excellence.
- The Commitment to Athletic Excellence is developed by the department's 10 women's and eight men's intercollegiate sports teams. The sponsorship is based on equity and compliance to all University, NCAA and Southeastern Conference rules and regulations.

- The Commitment to Career Development is a joint effort of the Ole Miss Athletics Department and Career Center. The goal is to prepare student-athletes for their transition out of sports and into the career development process. Career development components of the program include special workshops and programs for student-athletes and a senior resume brochure.
- The Commitment to Academic Excellence is promoted through life skills and personal development seminars and sponsorship of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.
- The Commitment to Service is promoted - in conjunction with the University Counseling Center - through many community service projects throughout the year. Ole Miss student-athletes are very involved in the community as the community service program continues to grow.

NCAA CASE

On September 11-12, 2017, the University of Mississippi participated in an in-person hearing before the NCAA Committee on Infractions regarding allegations involving its football program. The NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions issued its case decision on December 1, 2017. The specific infractions relate to violations committed by boosters and team staff members, including coaches. Specifically, the violations can be summarized as follows:

- In 2010, the operations coordinator and assistant coach 3 arranged for prospects to obtain fraudulent entrance exam scores. The prospects used the fraudulent scores to satisfy NCAA initial eligibility requirements and later practiced, received athletically related aid and competed.
- Booster 2 violated NCAA recruiting rules when he assisted in recruiting four prospects to the institution by providing them and some family members with impermissible recruiting inducements and arranging contacts between family members and Mississippi coaches.
- Assistant coach 4 arranged for impermissible recruiting inducements for acquaintances of a prospect by providing inaccurate information to the assistant recruiting director, who then approved the payment of expenses for acquaintances who accompanied the prospect on his official visit.
- Assistant coach 4 and the assistant athletic director arranged impermissible recruiting inducements for two prospects and a third prospect's family and acquaintances by referring them to the retail store for free gear. The university is appealing this finding.
- Booster 6 provided impermissible free lodging to a student-athlete 13's mother and acquaintance. Booster 7 provided an impermissible cash benefit to student-athlete 13's mother's boyfriend. Over two years, booster 12 and his car dealership provided the impermissible benefits of complimentary vehicle use to two student-athletes and an impermissible loan to one of the student-athletes.

- The assistant athletic director knowingly arranged impermissible recruiting inducements for prospects and friends of one of the prospects. Booster 11 provided cash and free food and drinks to a prospect and his companions. Boosters 9 and 10 assisted the institution in his recruitment by communicating with him and providing cash payments. The assistant athletic director initiated the contacts and facilitated the impermissible inducements.

- Several former football staff members committed unethical conduct due to their involvement in violations which were part of this case and/or providing false or misleading information during its investigation.

- The head coach fell short of his monitoring responsibilities when members of his staff committed intentional violations and deliberately involved boosters in the recruiting process.

- Mississippi failed to exercise control of the conduct and administration of its football program because football staff members felt they could continually commit recruiting rules violations, not report known violations and involve boosters in violations. The university is appealing this finding.

- Additionally, Level III violations involving impermissible inducements, entertainment, extra benefits and recruiting videos were part of this case.

In the decision issued by the Committee on Infractions the university was placed on three years of probation from December 1, 2017 through November 30, 2020. The university's appeal is expected to have a ruling in fall 2018. To review the NCAA Committee on Infractions public infractions decision and related documents, please visit: www.unmcaacase.com.

DR. JEFFREY S. VITTER | CHANCELLOR

Jeffrey S. Vitter is the 17th chancellor of the University of Mississippi and Distinguished Professor of Computer and Information Science. He is a passionate advocate for higher education with over 38 years of experience at noted universities Brown, Duke, Purdue, Texas A&M, and Kansas before becoming chancellor of Mississippi's flagship university in January 2016.

As the chancellor of the state's largest and top-ranked university, Dr. Vitter is a strong proponent of the power of higher education to transform lives, communities, and the world. Under his leadership, Ole Miss is continuing its long legacy of academic excellence and expanding its campus with a $1 billion construction program that includes a forthcoming state-of-the-art Science Innovation Institute, expansion of the Batson Children's Hospital, and a new recreation center and transportation hub.

Under his guidance, the university has unveiled a new strategic plan, Flagship Forward, and launched a number of transformative initiatives including the creation of Flagship Constellations, an innovative university-wide research initiative that brings together faculty, staff, students, and partners to find solutions to grand challenges in the areas of big data, brain wellness, community wellbeing, and disaster resilience. Another major focus has been the enhancement of community partnerships through the powerful M Partner initiative, which taps into the talents of the entire university to address core community challenges and goals in order to create sustainable change. Additionally, he is committed to achieving a healthier Mississippi through greater capacity and reach of the University of Mississippi Medical Center.

Dr. Vitter is a renowned computer scientist with research expertise in big data and data science, especially the algorithmic aspects of processing, compressing, and communicating massive amounts of information. He has been elected a Fellow of the Guggenheim Foundation, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the Association for Computing Machinery, and the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers.

He is a National Science Foundation Presidential Young Investigator, a Fulbright Scholar, and an IBM Faculty Development Awardee.

A native of New Orleans, Vitter graduated in mathematics with highest honors from the University of Notre Dame in 1977 and earned a Ph.D. under Don Knuth in computer science at Stanford University in 1980. He also holds an MBA in 2002 from Duke University.

Dr. Vitter's wife Sharon is a native Kansan and pharmacy alumna of KU. Their three children Jillian, Scott, and Audrey were born in Providence, RI and are Notre Dame alumni. Jillian received her medical degree from Georgetown University and is an assistant professor of anesthesiology at the University of Colorado. Scott, a former U.S. Army Ranger, earned a PhD in mechanical engineering at the University of Texas at Austin and works for Bain & Company in Chicago. Audrey holds a master's degree in supply chain from Pennsylvania State University and works for G.E. Aviation near Boston. The Vitters are passionate about the arts and genealogy and are huge sports fans.

ROSS BJORK | VICE CHANCELLOR FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

Ross Bjork and his wife, Sonya, have two boys: Payton (12) and Paxton (8). Bjork was announced on March 21, 2012 as the seventh full-time Director of Athletics at Ole Miss and, at the time, was the youngest AD among power five conference institutions. In October 2016, he was named the university's first Vice Chancellor for Intercollegiate Athletics. His six-year plus tenure with the Rebels has produced a new spirit surrounding Ole Miss Athletics.

Upon his arrival, Bjork reorganized the external relations structure of the department, headlined by a new partnership with multimedia rightsholder, IMG Properties, and the rebranding of the Ole Miss Athletics Foundation. He also created the unit for Health and Sports Performance, which combined sports medicine, strength and conditioning, nutrition and counseling services and added a local orthopedic sports medicine component that provides primary sports medicine care for all student-athletes. In addition, he appointed executive level administrators for academic support, finance and facilities/game operations.

Bjork's vision in facilities has transformed the athletics footprint on campus. The basketball programs moved into the nation's finest new arena in January 2016 with the opening of the $94.5 million Pavilion at Ole Miss. More than $65 million was infused into Vaught-Hemingway Stadium including a new north end zone, new field club, new and renovated suites, natural grass playing surface, new sound system, new lights, new entry plazas, and three new video boards. All of these enhancements improved on what was already one of the best gameday experiences in college football while increasing capacity by approximately 4,000. A development plan for the Manning Center saw the facility renamed to honor Olivia and Archie Manning while undergoing a $12.5 million renovation and expansion. A $13 million overhaul of the Gillom Center was completed in 2017, a new $11 million indoor tennis facility opened in January, and a $20 million baseball project will be concluded this year.

Ole Miss has enjoyed unprecedented support under Bjork. Football season attendance records have been shattered over the last six seasons, while season ticket sales reached four straight sellouts. Baseball finished second in the nation in attendance in 2018, extending a streak of 13 straight seasons in the top five, while softball also experienced a record-breaking year for attendance in 2017. The athletics budget has risen from $57 to $117 million in just six years, and the Athletics Foundation established a record year for donations with $45.6 million in cash contributions in 2015-16. The Forward Together capital campaign has risen from $62 to $176 million in cash and pledges toward its increased goal of $200 million.

Bjork's leadership has translated to tremendous success in the competitive arena. The Rebels have achieved their highest Director's Cup finish in their history each of the last two years, ranking 38th among Division I institutions in 2017-18 and 39th in 2016-17. In 2015-16, Ole Miss was the nation's only school to win nine regular-season football games, 20 regular-season men's basketball games and 40 regular-season baseball games, while the 2014-15 campaign saw the Rebels as one of only two to make a "New Year's Six" bowl and the NCAA Tournament in men's hoops and baseball. Under Bjork's watch, the football team was one of just five to make the "New Year's Six" in each of the first two years of the playoff.

Other highlights include the first College World Series appearance in 42 years, as the baseball team reached the final four in Omaha and captured the SEC Western Division title in 2014. The Diamond Rebs won the West again in 2018 in addition to winning the SEC Tournament Championship. Men's basketball claimed the SEC Tournament crown in 2013, while softball earned its first tourney title in 2017. Baseball, men's hoops and softball are among Rebel programs to earn NCAA postseason berths under Bjork's watch, along with soccer (Sweet 16 in 2015), men's tennis (Sweet 16 in 2018), women's tennis (Sweet 16 in 2018), men's golf (Championship round in 2017), women's golf (Championship round in 2018), men's track and women's track.

Bjork's reign has featured eight national championships, including the first golf medalist with Braden Thornberry in 2017 and first women's tennis champ with Arianne Hartono in 2018. Sam Kendricks took home the pole vault title at both the 2013 and 2014 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships, Raven Saunders grabbed the 2016 outdoor and 2017 indoor crowns in the shot put, the distance medley team captured 2017 indoor medalist honors, and Janeah Stewart won the 2018 outdoor hammer throw. The 2013 SEC West champion men's tennis team also vied for a national title, as the doubles team of Nic Scholtz and Jonas Lutjen advanced to the final four while the team finished top-10 in the polls. The men's track program has reached new heights, finishing fourth in the nation in cross country in 2016 and eighth at the outdoor championships in 2013.

Off the field, Bjork established the goal of a cumulative 3.0 GPA among the student-athlete population when he arrived, and the Rebels achieved that for the first time in program history in 2015-16 and have since maintained the 3.0 mark. In the community, student-athletes are participating in more than 50 service projects per year, and former baseball student-athlete Brady Bramlett has served as Vice-Chair of the NCAA Division Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Throughout his career, Bjork has placed a great importance on diversity, and in 2013, the athletics department partnered with the William Winter Institute for Racial Reconciliation to launch a community engagement week, which has become an annual event.

Bjork has taken a leadership role in the Oxford/University community since his arrival. He is a member of the chancellor's leadership team and has served on numerous committees, including the search for a new chancellor and the naming of Chucky Mullins Drive. Bjork has traveled the region each spring speaking to alumni clubs on the Rebel Road Trip and visited nearly 25,000 fans in the first seven years of the caravan. His commitment to the fanbase has also shown through gameday surveys and annual improvements to help maintain Ole Miss as the premier "bucket list" experience in college sports.

Bjork arrived in Oxford after a stint as Director of Athletics at Western Kentucky University, where he quickly established an atmosphere of success. After Bjork made a midseason coaching change, the Hilltopper men's basketball team went on to capture the 2012 Sun Belt Conference Tournament title and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Women's volleyball won the conference regular season and tournament in 2011 and reached the NCAA Tournament each of his last two years, while men's and women's cross country each won conference team titles in 2011. WKU's football program posted the greatest one-season improvement in conference wins in the history of the Sun Belt in posting a 7-1 league mark and second-place conference finish. WKU football also signed the conference's top recruiting class each of his last two seasons.

During his tenure, each of WKU's men's and women's athletic teams exceeded the NCAA required 925 Academic Progress Report Rate (APR), and WKU had more individuals honored for their academic achievements by the Sun Belt Conference than any other institution in 2011-12. For the first time in program history, the overall cumulative average GPA was over 3.0 for all 391 student-athletes and 228 maintained a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. Ten of the university's 15 athletic programs posted a cumulative team GPA of 3.0 or better.

The youngest athletics director of the 120 NCAA FBS programs when hired at WKU, Bjork has an extensive career in intercollegiate athletics with more than two decades of experience as an administrator and student-athlete, having worked on the senior staffs at UCLA, the University of Miami and the University of Missouri. He began his administrative career at WKU as an Assistant Development Coordinator in 1996-97.

Bjork, 46, is a native of Dodge City, Kan., and received his bachelor's degree in recreation administration from Emporia State University in 1995 where he was a two-year starter at fullback. Bjork was honored by Emporia State with the 2017 distinguished alumni award. He earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Western Illinois University in December 1996. Bjork has quickly established a leadership role in the SEC by serving as Chair of the awards committee and representing the SEC on the NCAA Men's Basketball Oversight Committee and the NCAA Transfer Working Group.

In planning your coverage of Ole Miss in 2018, media are asked to review the following information. Contact the Athletics Communications office at 662-915-7522 if you have any questions.

WORKING CREDENTIALS

To request game credentials, go to Ole Miss' online credentialing site: www.sportssystem.com/OleMiss. Credential requests must be made as early as possible by the sports director of each media outlet and are limited to those media who will be attending the game in a working capacity. Media must approve the SEC Media Policy before requesting credentials. Media credentials are allotted on the following basis: 1) daily newspapers; 2) network affiliate television stations; 3) websites whose primary purpose is to gather and disseminate news and who have an affiliation with a nationally recognized media entity/network; 4) magazines, weekly newspapers and non-broadcast radio stations.

PARKING

Gameday media parking is located in two locations: 1) garage adjacent to The Pavilion; and 2) lot near Tad Smith Coliseum. Media should check their pass to indicate for which lot they are designated. For passes marked for the garage, each pass is for a specific numbered parking spot. Cars parked in the wrong spot will be towed. Passes marked for Tad Smith Coliseum are for a lot located west of the old arena.

Media parking passes are only applicable on gameday. Parking permits are required for everyone on campus Monday through Friday between 7:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. Media that plan to regularly attend practices, press conferences and other on-campus events may purchase a Vendor Permit from Campus Parking (www.olemiss.edu/parking), which is good for the full academic year. Those without parking permits are advised to park in a metered spot in the east lot of the Manning Center and feed the meter. Day passes are available online to print at www.olemiss.edu/parking/visitors.html. Parking is also available in the garage adjacent to The Pavilion. The garage will accept credit cards only as payment.

MEDIA GATE/WILL-CALL

Media will enter Gate 35 on the west side of the stadium beginning three and a half (3.5) hours prior to kickoff. The media will-call table will be located there, and photographers may receive a vest at this location. Parking passes may not be picked up at media will-call and must be requested at least seven days prior to gameday to ensure delivery.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

All photographers must wear a photo vest in order to be admitted to the sidelines. This may be received at the media will-call table at Gate 35. Gameday flip cards will be available there or in the photo workroom, which is located next to the visiting team locker room off the southeast corner of the field.

Per NCAA rule, images or likeness of current student-athletes may not be sold, distributed or used for commercial purposes.

SIDELINE ACCESS

Excluding select portions of the game, media sideline access is reserved for photographers/videographers. Credentialed photographers/videographers who arrive at media will-call without proper equipment will not be granted a vest for sideline access. When on the sideline, media must remain outside the bench area and may not shoot behind the benches. During pre-game activities, media must remain in the southeast corner of the field (near the visiting team tunnel) until the team leaves the field after warm-ups.

RECRUITS

Per NCAA rule, media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect or family members of a prospect during their official visit, including prospects in attendance at practice or games. In addition, media are forbidden from videoing or photographing prospects during their visit. Media are also asked to make every effort to keep distance from prospects on campus, including at practice, during pre-game activities on the sidelines and in the stands.

GAMEDAY SERVICES

Members of the media covering Ole Miss will be provided with pregame notes for both teams, a flipcard and a game program (upon request).

Approximately 30 minutes following the completion of the game, complete team and individual stats, running play-by-play, postgame notes and quotes from players and coaches will be available.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Ole Miss holds its weekly fall press conference each Monday of the regular season at 11:15 a.m. CT in the Burns Team Meeting Room at the Manning Center, which is adjacent to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium/Hollingsworth Field. Various Ole Miss coaches and staff will take the podium first and will be followed by Coach Matt Luke at approximately 11:30 a.m. The press conference is streamed live on SEC Network+.

SEC WEEKLY TELECONFERENCE

Coach Luke will be available on the weekly Southeastern Conference teleconference every Wednesday, beginning week one and concluding the final week of the regular season, from 11:20-11:30 a.m. CT. The number is available through the SEC office at 205-348-3000. See page 95 for more information.

PLAYER/ASSISTANT INTERVIEWS

During Game Week

Coordinators will be available Monday following Coach Luke's weekly press conference.

Select players and assistant coaches will be available after practice on Tuesday, while Coach Luke and select players will be available after practice on Wednesday. All media interviews will be held in the team meeting room. There is no availability on Thursday or Friday.

Media may not contact current student-athletes directly under any circumstances.

After Games

For home games, Coach Luke will hold a postgame press conference in the Burns Team Meeting Room at the Manning Center. Following the press conference, select players and assistant coaches will be available in the same room. Visiting team media availability will take place in the photo workroom, which is located next to the visiting team locker room off the southeast corner of the field. Postgame TV stand-ups should be conducted from the navy turf on the east sideline and not on the playing field.

Communications representatives will be available to assist in postgame interviews. Complete postgame plans will be announced on gameday in the press box by the communications staff. The staff will accompany members of the press wishing to go to the sidelines, during the final quarter.

PRACTICES

Media are forbidden from reporting (e.g. tweeting, blogging, etc.) on anything related to practice until after the post-practice interviews. This includes media who leave practice early. Videographers and photographers must use tight shots and no formations. On available days, video is permitted for individual drills only, and media will be alerted which portions of practice (including stretch) are available for video. Use of footage from practices must be limited to three minutes per day. If you have not previously attended practices, please contact the Athletics Communications office for prior approval and daily alerts on practice locations and times.

AUDIO/VIDEO

Press conferences, media opportunities, practices and any form of competition may not be broadcast live, including social media, without prior consent of the athletics department. Use of footage from practices is limited to three minutes per day. This includes content attained via FTP, which should be credited to Ole Miss Sports Productions.

Ole Miss offers free FTP downloads of game highlights and interviews with coaches and players for television stations to use during regularly scheduled news/sportscasts. To access the Ole Miss FTP site, please contact Seth Austin at saaustin@olemiss.edu or 662-915-2954.

RADIO RIGHTS

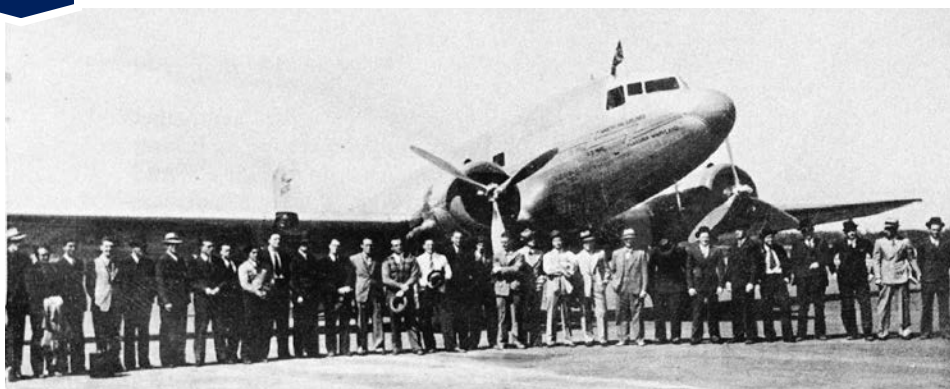

The radio rights to Ole Miss Football are provided by IMG College in partnership with TeleSouth Communications Inc. Visiting networks planning to originate from Vaught-Hemingway Stadium/Hollingsworth Field are issued credentials by the Ole Miss Athletics Communications office. Broadcast lines should be ordered through AT&T (1-877-438-0041). Visiting networks may also wish to contact Cabell Philpott with IMG College (336-831-0719 or cabell.philpott@imgworld.com), concerning the SEC's network agreement.

TRAVEL

AIRPORTS

Memphis International Airport is located 76 miles north of the university. Jackson-Evers International Airport is 167 miles south of campus.

ACCOMMODATIONS

For hotels, restaurants and general information on Oxford, go to VisitOxfordMS.com. Nearby cities with additional hotel options include Batesville, New Albany, Holly Springs and Grenada, among others.

DRIVING DIRECTIONS

Media traveling to campus should take the Chucky Mullins Drive exit off of Highway 6 and travel north toward the 4-way stop. Media with parking passes for the garage should turn right onto Hill Drive, and media with passes for the other lot should continue straight on Chucky Mullins Drive. Both lots are located on the right side of their respective streets.

OLE MISS RADIO NETWORK

One of the most popular means of keeping track of Rebel Football is tuning in to the Ole Miss Radio Network. The Network offers first-rate broadcasts of every Rebel football game, including a 90-minute pregame show and extensive postgame coverage.

Ole Miss Football may be heard throughout Mississippi and portions of the Southeast through services provided by IMG College in partnership with TeleSouth Communications Inc. In addition, every game can be heard worldwide over the internet at OleMissSports.com, and on XM Satellite Radio.

"The Voice of the Rebels," David Kellum, returns for his 29th season handling the Ole Miss radio play-by-play call. The veteran broadcaster also serves as the play-by-play announcer for both Ole Miss basketball and baseball. In 1998, 2000, 2002, 2004, 2011, 2012, 2016 and 2017, Kellum was honored as the Mississippi Sportscaster of the Year, as voted on by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association members in the state. In August 2006, he received the "Lindsey Nelson Outstanding Sportscaster" award from the All-American Football Foundation.

Kellum's first link with Ole Miss Athletics was in 1978. As a 19-year-old freshman, he began broadcasting Rebel baseball, and has handled the baseball play-by-play for the past 40 seasons.

Kellum hosts Ole Miss' weekly radio shows for men's basketball and football. He is married to the former Mary Evelyn Kuehn of Oxford. They have two daughters, Stefanie Marie and Staci Michelle.

Harry Harrison, a former All-America selection at safety for the Rebels, provides the color commentary for the broadcast. A letterwinner from 1971-73, Harrison is President of Harry Harrison and Associates in Oxford, Mississippi. He is the father of two sons and a daughter — Nick, Josh and Lyndee.

Richard Cross is the co-host of "Head to Head" on Super Talk Mississippi and a television play-by-play announcer for ESPN/SEC Network. Cross has 18 years experience in radio and television and has launched two successful statewide, syndicated sports talk radio shows in Mississippi.

Raised in Oxford and a graduate of The University of Mississippi, Cross is the recipient of two Mississippi Association of Broadcasters Gold Awards and has worked for Fox Sports Radio and the Sporting News Radio Network.

Cross is married to the former Jane Easley of Clarksdale, a pharmacist at The University of Mississippi. The couple has two children, Ava Montgomery and Oby.

Brett Norsworthy enters his 10th season as co-host of the pregame and postgame show. Norsworthy began his radio career co-hosting Sportstime in September 1992 on WHBQ in Memphis and has remained a Memphis sports radio fixture throughout the following years. He has been all over the Memphis market hosting various shows with a number of different personalities.

In his radio career, Norsworthy has had the pleasure of covering the SEC beat extensively. He's also covered many of the nation's top sporting events as well as freelance reporting for major networks. He co-hosts "Fish N Stats" on AM 560 and FM 87.7 with Memphis Grizzlies sideline reporter Rob Fischer.

Rounding out the broadcast team is Houston McDavitt, engineer/producer. McDavitt has worked with the radio broadcast for 14 years in a technical role and has been in broadcast engineering for 20 years. This is his eighth year as game engineer/producer for Ole Miss football. He is Director of Engineering for Telesouth Communications and lives in Brandon with his wife, Laura. McDavitt has two sons, Thomas and Watson.

ON AIR WITH THE REBELS

The Reb Talk radio show and "The Season: Ole Miss Football" television program are distributed by IMG College in partnership with TeleSouth Communications.

The radio show is a weekly one-hour live radio broadcast that allows fans the opportunity to hear from Coach Matt Luke and other staff about Ole Miss Football. The show will air every Tuesday during the season at 7 p.m., live from Boure on Oxford Square.

REBELS ON TELEVISION

Ole Miss was one of the first football programs in the Southeastern Conference, as well as the nation, to have a game broadcast on television.

On Nov. 13, 1948, WMCT-TV in Memphis telecast the Ole Miss-Tennessee game from Crump Stadium in the "Bluff City."

The game, won by the Rebels, was reported to be the first football game televised from the Mid-South.

The Rebels' first network televised football game was in the 1952 season when they faced Georgia Tech in the 1953 Sugar Bowl on ABC-TV.

Since then, Ole Miss has appeared on 241 regional and national telecasts, and on every major sports network, including ABC, CBS, FOX, NBC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, SEC Network and FSN.

The Southeastern Conference and ESPN signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create and operate a multiplatform network which launched August 14, 2014. The new network and its accompanying digital platform carry SEC content 24/7 and featured more than 1,000 live events in its first year.

The network televises more than 45 SEC football games, more than 100 men's basketball games, 60

women's basketball games, 75 baseball games, and events from across the SEC's 21 sports annually. Programming includes in-depth commentary and analysis in studio shows, daily news and information, original content such as SEC Storied, spring football games, and more.

In 2016, Ole Miss appeared on CBS once, the ESPN family six time and the SEC Network five times.

The Rebels' history on television has been a storied one. The memorable 1969 Ole Miss-Alabama game, which had national record-setting performances by Rebel quarterback Archie Manning and Tide signal caller Scott Hunter, was one of the first college games televised at night.

Ole Miss has compiled a 132-144-2 record in TV games, and 181 of the telecasts have been to national audiences. The first Rebel game to be televised in color was the 1960 Sugar Bowl when Ole Miss shut out LSU 21-0.

THE SEASON: OLE MISS FOOTBALL

Every week during the football season, Ole Miss gives fans an incredible in-depth view into the program with its Emmy award-winning television program, “The Season: Ole Miss Football.”

The show debuts each Wednesday night at 6 p.m. CT during the fall at TheSeasonOleMiss.com, while it airs on several networks and channels throughout the Southeast every week. Check local listings for air dates and times.

Not only does “The Season” give you the highlights of the previous week’s game, but it takes you into the locker room, training room, practice fields and classrooms from the viewpoint of the Rebel student-athletes and coaches. The Ole Miss sports production staff even takes you inside the players’ houses, hangouts and hometowns for a truly intimate experience.

The show has picked up numerous awards since its creation in 2011, including Southeast Regional Emmy awards in 2014 and 2015 for best daily or weekly sports program and a Gold AVA Award in 2012 for outstanding achievement by creative professionals involved in the concept, direction, design and production of media. Most recently in June of 2018, the show received two Southeast Regional Emmys for Short Form Editing, and Photography.

Since Micah Ginn took the reins as creative director for Ole Miss Sports Productions in 2013, his staff has amassed a total of 10 Emmy awards among 31 nominations.

Ole Miss produces “The Season” episodes for each of its sports teams, as well as numerous other video pieces like student-athlete features, event promos, highlight packages, commercials, in-venue pieces, as well as live videoboard shows for home sporting events.

The Ole Miss Sports Productions staff includes Ginn, associate athletics director for sports productions and creative services; Shane Sanford, assistant athletics director for broadcast services; Chris Sabo, senior producer; Stewart Pirani, manager of creative services; Mo Smith, multimedia specialist; Ryan Cochran, Tyler Rosten and Scott Wyant, producer/directors and Andrew Feeley, Young Hall, Tyler O’Keefe and John Rowland, content producers.

Ole Miss IMG Sports Marketing is a division of IMG College, which is the marketing and multimedia rights partner for Ole Miss Athletics. This is the sixth year of a long-term partnership that grew IMG College's number of SEC properties to eight. IMG College is America's leading collegiate multimedia, marketing and licensing/brand management company, representing some of the nation's top collegiate properties including the NCAA and its 89 championships, and many of the most prestigious colleges and universities in the country. Headquartered in Winston-Salem, N.C., IMG College employs more than 700 people in nearly 100 offices throughout the U.S.

IMG College is the leader in connecting brands to 190 million college sports fans through partnership opportunities in multimedia rights, licensing, events and hospitality, marketing, stadium and arena development, stadium seating solutions, ticketing, sales, and consulting. IMG College produces nearly 35,000 hours of radio programming on the largest independent sports network in the country, manages nearly 5,000 hours of local television programming, is the leading publisher of college sports publications, and averages nearly 19 million unique visitors per month across its collegiate digital platforms.
